Sheriff Davis Is Dead At Urbana

Urbana, Ill., Jan. 24.—Sheriff George W. Davis, 57, died suddenly at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning at his official residence here, death being due to complications.

He was stricken ill last summer while spending his vacation at his cottage in Michigan. He was brought back here and steadily grew worse. Three weeks ago he went to the Mayo Bros. clinic in Rochester. After an examination it was stated that nothing could be done for him and he returned home. He was apparently improving at the time of his death.

Sheriff Davis, active in Masonic circles, was the only sheriff in Illinois to be elected three times.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Chief Deputy Sheriff Chester Davis, and a daughter, Mrs. Samuel F. Davis of Monticello.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the First M. E. church in Urbana.

Revival Meeting Now In Progress

The revival meeting now in progress at the U. B. Church started Monday night. Rev. W. T. Dunn, an evangelist from Indianapolis, who is assisting the local pastor, is preaching some stirring revival sermons. Rev. Dunn mixes a little humor with his sermons, which puts life into the meeting and occasionally brings a good laugh from his audiences. Rev. Dunn says this meeting is not a U. B. meeting nor an M. E. meeting, but it is a meeting for all the Christian people of Broadlands to unite in a soul winning campaign. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services which commence each evening at 7 o'clock.

See The Flapper Grandmother at Newman opera house, Feb. 3 and 4.

Local elevators have been taking in considerable corn the past few weeks.

Bandit Shot In Allerton Robbery

Five business places were robbed or ransacked, one man was locked in a refrigerator while a bandit robbed the cash register in Dicks' general store, and a bandit shot in a series of burglaries in Allerton, about 2 o'clock last Monday morning.

The post office, the general store of Dean Upp, Harry Parrish hardware store, the elevator owned by Adam Eaton and Forrest Dicks' general store were visited.

The last place visited was the store of Forrest Dicks. In the store were George Milner, an employee, and Ted Smith, a friend, who had come to spend the night with Milner. Smith was sleeping on a cot beside a stove in the center of the store when the intruder entered the back door. Milner slept in a room in the back part.

Smith said he was awakened by a crash in the rear of the room and when he went to investigate, was confronted by a bandit, a revolver and flashlight. Smith said the bandit told him to keep quiet and ordered him to go into a large refrigerator, located in the back of the room. The bandit also told him there were two companions keeping watch in the alley. Smith obeyed and was locked in the refrigerator.

The burglar then went to the cash drawer where he took $35 in cash. Securing a hammer, he went to the safe and was in the act of knocking off the knob when the noise awakened Milner. He secured a shot gun and returned. The bandit hearing his approach, ran to the back door. Milner then fired and the bandit screamed. He staggered out the back door and made his escape.

A glove clasp, torn off in some unexplained manner, was regarded by police Monday night as a possible connecting link between the robberies at Allerton, and the finding of a wounded man in an automobile in Covington, Ind. an hour and a half later.

Meanwhile, at Lakeview hospital the wounded man was reported resting easy after having seven buckshot removed from his groin. A guard assigned from the sheriff's office remained in the patient's room.

The clasp found in Dicks' store at Allerton became important Monday, when Detective Fred Vutrick returned from Covington with the personal effects of the wounded man. Among these effects were four pair of leather gloves, and from one of them a clasp had been torn.

Mrs. Brewer Entertains Loyal Workers Class

The Loyal Workers of the U. B. church met with Mrs. Eva Brewer on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 18.

Mrs. Leona Bergfield was leader of the meeting. An interesting lesson was read entitled, "What difference does it make what we do on Sunday?", after which a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments of nut bread sandwiches and coffee were served.

Those present were Mesdames Leona Bergfield, Jessie Bergfield, Loucinda Clem, Allie Struck, Jennie Nohren, Pearl Edens, Anna Lill, Belle Smith, Eva Brewer.

Royal Neighbors Install Officers

Broadview Camp, No. 1190, Royal Neighbors of America, installed officers for the ensuing year at the Woodman Hall, last Friday night. Mrs. Ione Allen was the installing officer and Mrs. Pearl Edens was ceremonial marshal. Following the installation, a pot luck supper was enjoyed.

Officers were installed as follows:

Oracle—Zermah Witt.
Vice Oracle—Thelma Clem.
Past Oracle—Stella Phipps.
Chancellor—Dophia Warner.
Recorder—Irene K. Witt.
Receiver—Emma Jackson.
Marshal—Huldah Seeds.
Assistant Marshal—Pearl Edens.
Inner Sentinel—Anna Seeds.
Outer Sentinel—Neva Crain.
Managers—B. H. Thode, Sr. and O. P. Witt.
Physician—Dr. T. A. Dicks.
Faith—Lillie Bowman.
Modesty—Beulah Reed.
Courage—Marie Swick.
Unselfishness—Freda Maxwell.
Endurance—Allie Bruhn.
Flag Bearer—Mamie Darnall.
Musician—Leona Bergfield.

"Rookies" An Amusing Tale of Military Life

When a sergeant and a private under his command, fall in love with the same girl, there is excellent chance for comedy.

This riotous situation is the invention of Byron Morgan, scenarist and fiction writer, who wrote the story "Rookies," newest farce comedy which appears at the Broadlands opera house on Saturday night, Jan. 28th.

The tale is laid against a background of life at Uncle Sam's citizens' military training camps, and while it depicts life at camp with its drills in all branches of the service, these are made a background for the comical situations and laughs, which naturally are evolved.

Entertain Ladies' Guild Thursday

Mrs. Edith Snow and Mrs. Ida Clester entertained the Ladies' Guild of the M. E. church at the home of the former on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 19th.

A business session was held with a social hour following.

Those present were Mesdames Ione Allen, Betty Dicks, Marie Swick, Allie Bruhn, Mary Temple, Eva Brewer, Daisy Gore, Lucy Sullivan, Ida Clester, Edith Snow.

A Business Change Made

Last week a deal was made whereby Kenneth Dicks purchased the interest of his brother, Forrest Dicks, in the Dicks Bros. Hardware. At the same time Forrest Dicks purchased the interest of Bergfield and Dicks, in the general store at Allerton. Mr and Mrs. Dicks expect to remove to Allerton in the near future. The Dicks brothers have built up a splendid patronage in the hardware business at Broadlands, and we hope that Forrest will make a success of the mercantile business at Allerton.

The Ladies Aid of the U. B. church will meet with Mrs. Nola Donley on Wednesday, Feb. 1. Mrs. Stella Phipps is assistant hostess.

The Buggy Ride

Only 8,000 buggies were made in this country last year. During the previous years more than 20,000 were made. Here is an industry, one of vast proportions but now passing completely from the picture. And speaking of pictures, that is where the buggies are found. Many of them are used in movie stories, which deal with other days. There are millions of girls who never had a buggy ride. They would give thanks for one from its shere novelty. Yet there was a time when the Sunday buggy ride sent a romantic thrill down the spine.

A Smile

Nothing on earth can smile but a man! Gems may flash reflected light but what is a diamond flash compared to an eye-flash and a mirth-flash. Flowers cannot smile; that is a charm that even they cannot claim. It is the prerogative of man; it is the color which love wears and cheerfulness and joy—these three. It is a light in the window of the face, by which the heart signifies it at home and waiting. A face that cannot smile is like a bud that cannot blossom, and dries up on the stalk. Laughter is day, and sobriety is night, and a smile is the twilight that covers gently between both—more bewitching than either.
—Henry Ward Beecher.

Ford's Example

Henry Ford made a good car and he wanted the people of the United States to know about it. So in five days, according to his figures he spent $1,300,000 for advertising it—and every cent of it went into newspapers. No billboards, no magazines, just newspaper ads. The result is that millions have seen the car, and hundreds of thousands have placed their orders. Ford took the closest and only direct route to a given end. There was no doubt in his mind as to what kind of advertising it took to do what he set about doing. He put his message squarely before the buyers and they responded by going to see the car. Then they showed their faith in it by buying it. Henry Ford has furnished added proof if any more were needed, that to get your message before the people you must use the newspaper. It is an example that deserves the attention of every business man in Broadlands.

Lawlessness

Lawlessness in the United States has increased to such a point as rightly to be considered a national menace. This does not mean merely violations of the Volstead Act, but it applies to crimes of all kinds. Many explanations have been brought forward to account for the growth of lawlessness, and many cures have been proposed.

The greatest deterrent, at least in the case of cold-blooded and carefully planned crimes, would doubtless be the knowledge that punishment would be swift and certain. Today punishment is neither swift or certain, except in a few instances in which the community is aroused.

Legal processes need to be speeded up a bit and more intelligent juries chosen. There have been too many cases recently in which guilty parties have gone free. Justice may be blind, but there's no good reason for jurors being both blind and brainless.

Sidell Man Is Made Blind By Poison Booze

Charles Guthrie, 20, member of a prominent family living near Sidell, is totally blind and in a serious condition at Lakeview hospital as the result of a drink of liquor which he accepted from a friend at Indianola recently.

Dr. H. E. Baldwin said that the young man lost his sight almost immediately after drinking the concoction, and that he feared the loss of his eyesight is permanent.

The matter has been turned over to the county authorities for an investigation. It is reported that the grand jury, which is now in session, has been asked by State's Attorney Elmer O. Furrow to investigate, with a view to returning indictments against the person who gave him the liquor and the person who sold it.

According to information given Dr. Baldwin by persons familiar with the case, Guthrie, accompanied by his wife and two small children, drove from their home near Sidell to Indianola on Monday evening of last week. Shortly after his arrival in Indianola, Guthrie was met by a friend who mixed some liquor with a popular soft drink and invited him to take a drink.

Guthrie, it is said, drank the mixture and almost immediately became seriously ill. He was removed to his home. Within a short time he became partially unconscious. The next day he was removed to Lakeview hospital.

"Indications are that he will never recover his eyesight, and it is going to be a hard fight to save his life," said Dr. Baldwin. The physician thinks it was wood alcohol that the young man drank.

Thursday, Feb. 2 Is Dollar Day In Danville

Danville's Official, Semi-Annual City-Wide Dollar Day has become a household word for economy in the thousands of homes in Danville's trading territory. You lucky folks who were in Danville last Dollar Day will need no urging to come again. Nothing could keep you away. You know that Dollar Day is an institution for thrift; that it has been built by the sort of spectacular values only possible by city-wide co-operation and then only possible twice a year. And each Dollar Day is better because values are bigger, savings are greater. No matter how amazing the values secured before, expect even more phenomenal thrift opportunities this Dollar Day and you will be even more amazed.

Look for the Dollar Day cards in the store windows. The stores displaying the official cards are the stores responsible for Dollar Day and dollar day values.

This advertisement urges you right now to plan to be in Danville, Ill., on Thursday, Feb. 2, and share in the savings which make Dollar Day famous.

THE GROWING FAME OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 3:7-12; 6:53-56.

GOLDEN TEXT—"The common people heard him gladly."

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Followed by Crowds of People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Growing Fame of Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why the People Followed Jesus.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Secret of Jesus' Fame.

I. Jesus Ministering by the Sea (3:7-12).

1. Why He withdrew. It was because of the murderous plotting of the Pharisees against His life. So violent was their hatred against Him that they conspired with the Herodians, whom they regarded as traitors to their nation and country, to put Him to death. Their opposition was aroused when Jesus claimed to have power on earth to forgive sins (2:10). It grew in intensity when He mingled with publicans and sinners (2:16), and was fanned into a violent flame when He set at naught their false interpretations of the Sabbath law (2:23-28). Criticism and harshness causes Jesus today to withdraw from our presence.

2. To whom He ministered (vv. 7,8).

A great multitude, representing a wide stretch of territory. They came from Jerusalem and Idumaea on the south, from beyond Jordan on the east, and from Tyre and Sidon on the northwest. Jesus was the magnetic attraction—the hero of the hour. The interest of the whole country centered in Him.

3. The result (vv. 9-12).

(1) So great was the pressure that lives seemed endangered by the thronging of the multitudes. Some came out of curiosity "when they heard what great things he did" (v. 8). Others came for physical benefit, to be healed of their diseases. To escape from the throng He ordered the disciples to secure a little boat for Him.

(2) The unclean spirits prostrated themselves before Him (vv. 11, 12). They confessed Him as the Son of God. They had no doubt about His deity. This testimony He refused to receive because (a) the time for His declaration was not yet ripe. (b) They were not the beings to make Him known. He would not receive tribute from such a source. He would be proclaimed only by those who loved and honored Him.

II. Jesus Ministering at Gennesaret (6:53-56).

1. Jesus recognized Him (v. 54). The people quickly recognized Him because they had witnessed His mighty works. The feeding of the 5,000 was doubtless still in their minds. Perhaps many of them had witnessed His works in Capernaum and nearby places. They had doubtless heard Him teach also. He was recognized wherever He went. When He rules in the lives of believers today, those who come into touch with them recognize the fact. They take knowledge of them that they have been with Jesus (Acts 4:13).

2. The people ran to see Jesus (v. 55). They did not go about this in a half-hearted way. Those who really come into touch with the Lord Jesus Christ have called forth from them unusual energy. The degree of reality of our contact with Him is expressed by our enthusiasm.

3. They searched the whole region for those in need (v. 55).

Those who were found to be sick and in need were carried in beds to Jesus. Those who have come to know Christ will go about earnestly seeking for the lost to bring them to Christ. It matters not what effort is required.

4. They were made whole by His touch (v. 56). The only touch which is needed for the healing of the human soul is that of faith. When the individual is brought into touch with Him by a vital and living faith, sin is vanquished and sickness and death lose their power.

Two artists arrived in Spain. Neither spoke a word of Spanish. Being hungry they headed for a restaurant. They wanted roast beef but the waiter could not understand.

I'll make him understand, said one of the artists; and turning over the menu, he drew a sketch of a cow and marked 2 beneath it.

The waiter looked, smiled a smile of comprehension and went away. Five minutes later he returned with two tickets for a bull fight.

My Project Story

In the fall when school began and I took "Animal Husbandry" I decided to take dairying as a project. I took three old cows and one heifer and kept an account of the feed used and the milk and butterfat produced. Two of the cows went dry during the winter and did not give milk for about six weeks.

During the early part of the winter I fed a balanced ration of bran, oats, corn and alfalfa hay. When the bran supply was used up I dropped it from the ration.

When it was about time for the two cows to come fresh I shut them up in box stalls. It was necessary to call the veterinarian for the first cow, and she never came up to her previous milk production. The other cow came fresh soon afterwards and proved to be a good milker. After these cows had been fresh about two months it was necessary for me to end the project. The best cow gave an average milk production of 40 lbs. per day. We vealed one of the calves when it was about six weeks old; we kept the other one for a heifer. I tested milk several times during the project. Three of the cows tested fairly good but the heifer's milk was very low in butterfat.

When I figured up the accounts of the project I valued the corn at 55c per bu., oats at 30c per bu., alfalfa hay at $25 per ton and the bran at cost.

After considering all costs and expenses I found that I had a loss of about $75. I think the greatest reason for so great a loss was feeding the cows thru the dry period and some of the milk testing so low in butterfat. I think that if I would have carried the project several months longer the loss would have been greatly decreased. After testing the four cows we have decided to sell one of them and to try two of them once more.

Wilbur Buddemeier.

Jail Joke

Two Irishmen were in prison, one for stealing a cow, the other for stealing a watch. The former thinking to have some fun at the other's expense, asked:

Pat, what time is it?

Faith an I'm not quite sure, but I think it's about milking time.

The Reason Why

She went down to the power house and interviewed an oiler;

What's that thing? Why, he replied, that is the engine boiler.

And why do they boil engines? asked the maiden, sweet and slender;

They do it, said the honest man to make the engine tender.

His Guess

What is wrong with this picture? was the title of a sketch showing a man and a woman walking down the street. Junior had read the funny section and the title of this picture intrigued him. He tried to figure it out and bent his head puzzling over it for some time. At last he looked up.

Dad, I bet I know what's wrong with this picture.

What?

I bet it ain't his wife.

Rarin' To Go

An Alabama man declares that the brightest courtship of all was that of a negro couple in that state. It ran about as follows (Rastus speaking first):

Why don't you take me?

'Cause yo' ain't ast me.

Well, now I asts yo'.

Well, now I has yo'.

What is it, she asked, that carries a man along rough roads and smooth roads, up hills and down, through jungles and swamps and raging torrents?

There was silence, and then Tommy, whose father was a motor dealer, spoke up: Please, Miss, there ain't no such car.

Not Any of Them

The teacher was trying to give her pupils an illustration of the meaning of the word "perseverance."

What is it, she asked, that carries a man along rough roads and smooth roads, up hills and down, through jungles and swamps and raging torrents?

There was silence, and then Tommy, whose father was a motor dealer, spoke up: Please, Miss, there ain't no such car.
