The Thirteenth Hour

It's a Weird and Thrilling Tale

"The Thirteenth Hour" A Mystery

Dropping thirteen feet from a trap-door into a dark cellar, running at top speed around the narrow ledge of a steep roof where a slip of the foot means death, and being forced through a tiny man-hole into a slimy drain are a few of the perilous things required of the police dog who is playing an important role in "The Thirteenth Hour," coming to the Broadlands Opera House on Saturday night, March 10.

In the story, an original by Chester M. Franklin and Douglas Furber, the dog is the pal and assistant of Matt Gray, a scientific young detective played by Charles Delaney. In discovering the identity of the mysterious crook who murdered a wealthy woman for her jewels, the dog and his master encounter many weird and dangerous obstacles that furnish innumerable thrills for the new picture.

One of the features of the picture is a haunted house, with countless sliding panels, secret entrances, and trap doors, that is occupied by Professor Leroy, an eccentric old gentleman interested in psychic powers. This role is played by Lionel Barrymore. As the feminine lead, Jacquelin Gadsdon plays the part of Mary Lyle, secretary to Professor Leroy, and sweetheart of the young detective-hero.

To Start Fight Against Diphtheria

The Public Health League of Champaign County with the assistance of the Public Health Department of Illinois, will put on an educational campaign in the county during the weeks beginning March 5 and March 12.

The objects of this campaign are to cause an awakening to the great danger of diphtheria which is somewhat prevalent in Illinois, and to disseminate knowledge concerning the best ways of preventing and combatting disease.

A meeting is to be held at the Broadlands Opera House, March 16, at 7:30 p. m. A speaker from Champaign will be here and the Broadlands orchestra will furnish music.

Every person who has interest in the education and health of children should give his hearty cooperation. If disease is prevented the children will be in school and will have a chance to make progress, and the parents will be saved expense and anxiety. Let us be interested in preventing disease. Let us not wait in our active participation until some member of our community is taken away by this dreaded disease, but let us assist in every possible way to avoid the scourge of diphtheria among our children. By using preventive methods and by the cooperation of all persons, it is possible to avoid diphtheria.

Home Of Henry Mohr Burned

Longview, March 6.—The three story, modern country home of Henry Mohr, two miles north and one west of here, was today in ruins. The structure burned to the ground late yesterday afternoon when it caught fire from a spark from the flue.

Mr. Mohr had just finished remodeling his home, spending several thousand dollars.

Adolph Bretz, passing in a wagon, discovered the fire when he saw the roof burning. As the men were not near enough to help, it was some time before aid could be summoned, although farmers formed a bucket brigade and did their bit until the Sidney fire department arrived. The department was unable to save the home but managed to save all outbuildings and barn.

Mr. Mohr had some insurance but not enough to cover it. Damage was estimated at $5,000.

Gov. Small--
Things You Should know

Governor Len Small was born in Kankakee county, June 16, 1862, being one of three honored by election as chief executive of the state, who are natives of Illinois.

Over 5,000 miles of hard roads have been built in Illinois during the seven years of Governor Len Small's administration, without a single cent of direct taxation to the people of the state.

Versatility has marked the life of Governor Small—farmer, banker, legislator, chief executive of Illinois. He is of the common people and has never lost touch with the most humble.

Eighty-two per cent of the 6,375 miles of hard roads crossing and recrossing the state of Illinois in all directions were built under Governor Small.

Revenue derived from the registration of motor vehicles has paid the entire cost of the state highway system of Illinois, without a cent of direct taxation to the people of the state.

No state in the union has been able to devise a plan equal to that in Illinois for the financing of its state highways, and no state in the union has one-half the mileage of hard roads as built in Illinois under Governor Small.

Only the directing hand of a financier, such as Governor Small would be able to bring the credit of the state of Illinois to the high point reached during the present regime, with all issues of state bond bringing premiums.

Len Small is the only chief executive of the state of Illinois who has visited every one of the 102 counties of the state, seeking to safeguard the interests of all.

Every benefit possible has been given in Illinois under Governor Small to ex-service men of the World War, with $55,675,835.98 distributed in compensation by Service Recognition Board.

No chief executive in 109 years of the statehood of Illinois has equalled the record of Governor Len Small in the fairness of all legislation enacted, safeguarding the interests of all and without favoritism to any special faction.

Motor vehicle registration increased 253 per cent in Illinois in the seven years in which Governor Len Small has constructed more than 5,000 miles of hard roads. This is an increase of approximately one million cars in the state in seven years.

Agricultural interests in Illinois have received marked attention under Governor Small, with many measures enacted having for their object the betterment of conditions in the rural sections. Lindbergh comes to memory with the mention of aviation, and likewise the name of Governor Small is synonymously linked with hard roads.

Lumbering oxcarts of the first years of statehood in Illinois have been supplanted by 'Lizzies' and limousines as a result of the more than 5,000 miles of hard roads constructed in Illinois during the administrations of Governor Small.

Lesson for March 11

JESUS FEEDS THE MULTITUDE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 6:31-44.
GOLDEN TEXT—I am the bread of life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Unusual Meal.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Hungry Crowd Fed.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Meeting Every-Day Needs.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Compassion for Human Need.

I. Jesus' Invitation to the Weary Disciples (vv. 31, 32).

The apostles had just returned from an evangelistic tour in Galilee with a report of what they had done and taught. Their ministry occasioned no little stir. Besides, Jesus Himself continued to preach. As a result of their combined ministry, the commotion was so great that there was no opportunity for resting or eating. In such a time of need Jesus invited His disciples to retire from the crowd and rest. In order to do this they departed privately by ship for a desert place. Periods of withdrawal from the crowd in fellowship with the Lord are necessary after evangelistic campaigns. They serve a double purpose.

1. To get the eyes of the ministers off themselves and their work.
2. To prevent despondency for their failures.

II. Jesus Teaching the Ignorant Multitude (vv. 33, 34).

1. Thronged by the people (v. 33).
The wonderful words and works of the Lord and His disciples brought the multitudes to them. To escape the throng they took their departure for a desert place (v. 32). Seeing the Lord and His disciples depart, the people from the surrounding cities anticipated their landing place, and, proceeding thither, welcomed the ship upon its arrival.

2. The Lord moved with compassion (v. 34).

Instead of becoming irritated by the intrusion of the crowd His heart was moved with pity. His personal interests were forgotten as the needs of the shepherdless sheep pressed upon His notice, therefore He began to teach them many things. Jesus is now the same compassionate Savior, touched with the feelings of our infirmities (Heb. 4:15).

III. Jesus Feeding the Hungry Multitude (vv. 35-44).

1. Conference with the disciples (vv. 35-38).

(1) The disciples request that the multitude be sent to the surrounding villages to buy bread (v. 36). According to Matthew, Christ made the proposition that the multitude be fed (Matt. 14:16). (2) Jesus commands them to feed the multitude (v. 37). (3) The disciples' perplexity (v. 37). They began to calculate as to the amount of provisions required. They asked the Lord whether they should go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread. Their perplexity was due to the fact that they were depending upon their own resources instead of Christ. To be face to face with the humanly impossible has a threefold benefit. (a) It makes us realize our dependence upon Christ; (b) Drives us to Him for help in our need; (c) Leads us to give Him the glory for the results. Though our ability to teach, preach or to give, be meager, when coupled with the Lord's ability, it is equal to any demand.

2. Jesus' method in feeding the multitudes (vv. 39-44).

(1) The Lord's part. This was to issue instructions as to the method of procedure and to create the provision. Though they had but five loaves and two fishes He so increased them that the need of the hungry multitude was met.

(2) The disciples' part. They were to have the people sit down in companies so as to facilitate distribution. They then took that which the Master had blessed and distributed it to the people. The disciples' responsibility was not for the creation of the provision, but for its distribution to the people. (3) The people's part. Their part was not to create, nor distribute, but obediently to sit down and partake of the provision. Even after the bread had been blessed by the Lord and distributed by the disciples, they would have famished with hunger had they not partaken of the food. Unless the people receive Jesus Christ and the salvation which He has provided they shall eternally starve. The Lord has done His part. The disciples are under solemn obligation to do their part and the final responsibility rests upon the people.

Obedience

Obedience is the secret. Not slavish obedience, but sympathetic, loving, eager obedience. May the law of holiness be to me welcome as the light, sweet as the flowers, more to be desired than much fine gold!—W. L. Watkinson.

He had just left the speakeasy and was walking rather unsteadily down the street, when he thought he saw his wife.

'Scuse me, he gasped, thought you were m' wife.

Flu Deaths In Tokio Average 58 Each Day

Tokyo, Japan, March 5.—With a serious epidemic of influenza raging in Tokyo today, Emperor Hirohito was confined to his bed with a feverish cold and Premier Tanaka was also suffering from one. Princess Hisa, 6 months old daughter was also critically ill.

Actress Who Saw Lincoln Shot Is Dead

Media, Pa., March 5.—Mrs. Jeannie Gourley Struthers, the last surviving woman member of the cast "Our American Cousin," shown on the fateful night 63 years ago in Ford's theatre at Washington when President Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth, is dead.

The 'Mary Meredith' of that memorable stage play died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Newell, with whom she had made her home here in recent years. She was 83.

An eye-witness of the shooting of Lincoln, then Jeannie Gourley, was threatened herself by Booth, who in his hurry to get out of the theatre after firing the shot, slashed the coat of the orchestra leader and pushed the actress aside.

Plan Appeal of Verdict In Love Bombing

Ottawa, Ill., March 5.—Hiram Reed's swift conviction on a charge of bombing the Pleasant Valley schoolhouse where his former sweetheart, Iola Bradford taught, will be appealed to the state supreme court if necessary, his counsel indicated today.

A circuit court jury took only 50 minutes and two ballots Saturday night to find Reed guilty of placing dynamite in the school house stove November 30 last. It exploded the next morning when Miss Bradford built a fire, and she was injured severely and scarred.

Arguments for a new trial will be made March 17, at which time sentence is to be passed. The charge on which young Reed was convicted carries a sentence of from one to 20 years imprisonment.

Admits Pushing Lads In At The Final Moment

Indiana Harbor, Ind., March 5. A new confession has been made by George A. Chisholm, whose name was first given as Smith, in the murder of his two small sons.

Chisholm's new statements, actually written by himself was the result of questioning by police all day and all night, during which time Chisholm and his questioners went without food or sleep.

The new confession differs from the first in one very important point. Whereas, in the first, Chisholm maintained that the small brothers, after being bound together with wire, walked off a plank into a ship canal at his bidding, the new confession makes it clear that he pushed the first boy in, that the second, realizing what was happening, screamed, and that the father then threw him into the water.

The second confession also indicates that bruises on the second lad's head were inflicted by the iron weight attached to the boy by the wire.

You find them there because of Oakland's big, impressive brute of an engine which starts so easily 'way below zero. Because of its famous GMR cylinder head . . . force feed fuel pump . . . 79-lb. crankshaft and other vital parts.

Because of its ruggedly constructed chassis . . . its bigger clutch and smoothly shifting gears . . . and the super-precision construction demanded in the All-American principle of design.

Teacher: Sureley you know what the word 'mirror' means, Thomas. After you have washed your face, what do you look at to see if it's clean.
Tommy: The towel.

He was one of those fresh jolly fellows addicted to the use of slang. At the breakfast table desiring milk he exclaimed: Chase the cow down this way, please.
Here, Mary, said the landlady, take the cow down to where the calf is bawling.

Raising Corn My Project

When I started to school last fall I decided to take agronomy. It was only a few days after I had decided to take the course that our teacher, Mr. Eiler, told us that we must decide upon a project. As corn is the most extensively grown crop in this vicinity, I decided to grow this grain.

On the tenth day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, I selected my seed corn. Nothing more happened to the project until plowing. The ground was plowed to a depth of six inches. The ground was immediately worked down. May thirteenth I planted the corn. It was favorable weather for a few days and the corn soon began to creep through the soil. From May eighteenth to June third we had very unfavorable weather, with storms and floods. This caused two small ponds in my field to be drowned out. It was cultivated the first time June sixth. It then grew very rapidly and on July fifth I plowed the corn the third time.

I did nothing more to the project until it became yellow and matured. It was the twenty-ninth day of October that I started husking. The ears were large and of good quality. It averaged fifty-seven and one-half bushels to the acre, making a total of six hundred and ninety bushels.
