Rocking Village Streets; Start Working Today

has not been decided just how the ensuing year as follows: many blocks will be rocked. The Worthy Matron - Mrs. Elsa Federal government pays all of Walker. the labor bill and a portion of the material bill. The work will start (today) Friday, so we have Henson. been informed.

This will be a fine improvement for our village, and the Village Trustees are to be com- Zermah Witt. mended for having the enterprise to put the project over. But let's rock all of our streets, so all property owners will be tiring Worthy Matron and Edsatisfied and Snodgrass will have ward Nohren is the retiring "Down Into The Valley," a good street as well as his Worthy Patron. neighbor.

Local and Personal

Logan Hedrick of Homer has placed his card in The News.

in "Road To Ruin" at the local 15. theater this Saturday night.

and daughter Maxine were well attended. We hope every-Champaign visitors Saturday.

Broadlands Lodge, A. F. & A. night.

mick have employment with the to come are cordially invited. Schweiser-Chevrolet Motor Co., at Newman.

Clark Henson and family were supper guests at the home of A toulear will be signed and failing were Gym, Saturday night, Dec. 16. parted one in death, March 1st, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Maxfield at Everyone come and bring a box. Villa Grove last Sunday.

A big show at the Broadlands Theater this Saturday night—a 7-reel feature and a 2-reel comedy—all for 5c.

to the G. T. Club, on Thursday with Ogden, the score being 30afternoon, Dec. 21, at the home 23. of Mrs. Henry Kilian, Sr. Mrs. Edna Telling will be assistant hostess.

Prof. Geo. H. Cook has been confined to his home by illness the past week. E. G. Montgomery is substituting for Mr. Cook, and Mrs. Etta Kracht is substituting for Mr. Montgomery.

Monticello; Amiel Witt and fam- their help and kindness during ily of near Hume; Max Fulton the illness and death of our dear and family of Chrisman were mother. Also for the many Sunday visitors at the home of beautiful floral offerings. Mr. Peter Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nohren, Mrs. Irene Witt, Mrs. Zermah Witt and Miss Jessie Witt attended a is called to the advertisements meeting of the Hume Chapter, of the following firms in this Warnes, Wednesday. O. E. S., Thursday night of last week.

The local station of the C. & E. I. Railway Co., is now operating on full time—from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. The new schedule went into effect on Wednesday of last week and will enable Mr. A. A. Cable, the agent to serve his patrons in a more satisfactory manner.

and Mrs. Lawrence Keefe, Jr., And Examiner. of Newman, Roy Wendling and Thomas Dosey.

Broadlands Chapter of O. E. S. Elects Officers

The Village Board has made At the regular stated meeting arrangements with the Federal last Saturday night, Broadlands Passed Away on Friday of B. Sunday School was entertain- home of Mrs. Minnie Anderson, From an issue of The Broadlands government to rock some of our Chapter No. 416, Order of the village streets. Seemingly it Eastern Star elected officers for

Worthy Patron-C. T. Henson. Associate Matron-Mrs. Ruth

Associate Patron-O. P. Witt. Conductress-Mrs. Irene Witt. Associate Conductress — Mrs.

Secretary-Mrs. Alma Bruhn. Treasurer-John Bruhn.

Mrs. Delia Nohren is the re-

DECEMMA MARTINIE, REPORTER.

Our next basketball game is at Don't fail to see Helen Foster Villa Grove, Friday night, Dec. profusion of beautiful floral of-

The program given by the mu-Mr. and Mrs. Clark Henson sic students Tuesday night was Dicks Bros., local undertakers. one enjoyed it.

Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. M., will meet on next Monday the assembly singing will be held. We will sing Christmas April 30th, 1867 at the age of 12 songs and there will be a short Clyde Gore and Orval McCor- musical recital. All who wish the Champaign Lutheran church

> The Senior class will give Box Supper in the High School 13, 1878. He preceded the de-A turkey will be given away. 1899. To this union were born Pie and coffee will be served. Also there will be an old-fashioned spelling match. Everyone is welcome.

Long View won another bas-

	Longview-	rG	FT
t	Gaines	3	1
	Fonner		0
	Smith	2	3
1	Buddemeier	4	2
S	Kincannon	0	0
	Bengston		2

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere Wm. Bruhn and family of thanks to our many friends for

The Heppe Children.

Your Attention

week's issue:

Montgomery Ward & Co. Fischer Theater. C. I. P. S. Co. Illinois Theatre. Messman & Astell. Dicks Bros. L. W. Donley. Broadlands Theater. Logan Hedrick.

The following were entertain- Iron Tank! The true story of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warnes ed at a turkey dinner at the the tragic experience of a trust- attended the International Live School at 9:30 a. m. Morning mineral mixture. The four best home of Chas. Wendling, last ful young girl who fell into the Stock Exposition at Chicago last Worship at 10:30. Sunday: Lawrence Keefe, Sr., clutches of a half-mad wretch, week. and family, and Robert Dyar of told in The American Weekly,

Otto R. Schultz Hdwe. Co.

Is your subscription paid?

Mrs. Mary Heppe Goes To Reward

Last Week .--- Funeral is Held on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Heppe died at her Dec. 8, at 11 o'clock.

Funeral rites were held at the family home last Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and from the St. John's Evangelical church, Turner and family, Oscar Witt held and contests were enjoyed. Broadlands, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Theo. M. Haefele, pastor. A quartet composed of Mrs. Philip Limp, Mrs. Frank Frick, Mrs. Howard Mohr and Mrs. Theo. M. Haefele sang Jessie Bergfield and daughters ening were: Mesdames Leathie "Asleep In Jesus," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," with Miss Muriel Mohr, accompanist.
Pallbearers were Edward, John, School News William and George Heppe, Carl and Mrs. Thomas Bergfield. and Erhart Benschneider. Members of the Ladies' Aid society Allerton High of the church had charge of the ferings.

Interment was in St. John's cemetery, under direction of Mrs. Maria Catherine Heppe (nee Edens) was born in Heida, Holstein, Germany, on March 7, 1855 and died on December 8th, 1933. She came to America on years. She was confirmed in in 1872 later transferring her membership to the Evangelical Church of Broadlands. She was married to H. K. Heppe, Feb. five children. John F. Heppe, William H. Heppe, George Edward Heppe, Margaretha E. Witt, and Anna C. Benschneider. Three grandchildren all living in or near Homer, and also many other relatives and friends re-Mrs. Irene Witt will be hostess ketball game last Friday night main to mourn her departure. She died on Friday, Dec. 8th at EG ET DE 11 p. m., reaching the age of 78 years, 9 months, and 1 day.

Long View News

Rev. Turner and family spent days when the girls serve chili. Sunday in Broadlands.

met on Thursday afternoon with Friday evening, 25-23. Archer, Mrs. John Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Quinn report the birth of a daughter, Monday, Dec. 11.

The Friends Society of the Methodist church were enter-

Roy Mercer and son of Fairland, ton, Indianola, Sidell and Ridgewere guests in the Mrs. Elfie farm. The second night shows riculture projects of the past Boa Driver home, Sunday.

program is announced for Satur- teams. day night, Dec. 23. Chas. Bengston is the general chairman.

Chained Eight Years in an Mr. and Mrs. John Mathews,

Longview, Rex Wiggins and Ev- the magazine distributed with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Sullivan, cast are kindly asked to be pres- ber. erett Consoer of Villa Grove, Mr. next Sunday's Chicago Herald Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Warnes ent. motored to Indianapolis, Sunday, Sunday, Dec. 24th-Presenta- awarded to his exhibits: to spend the day with Mr. and tion of the Christmas Pageant at Exhibit Mrs. D. O. Moore.

Y. W. O. Class Meets at Thos. Bergfield Home

evening.

gifts, and contests were enjoyed, elected: president, Ida Messman; home in Homer, on Friday night, after which refreshments were vice-president, Ruth Richard; served consisting of sandwiches, secretary and treasurer, Bertha an extended visit in Chicago. scalloped chicken. waldorf salad Cook. and coffee.

family, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rayl, winner. Mrs. Lillie Bowman, Mrs. Pearl Dainty refreshments were Edens, Mr. and Mrs. John Noh- served by the hostess. ren and daughter Marcelle, Mrs.

JESSIE R. WITT, REPORTER.

Kathleen Baker was a visitor on last Friday.

Warren Richard visited the high school on Monday.

Clara Haines was a visitor in the high school on Wednesday of Much practice is being done in preparation for the Christmas day night, Dec. 21.

too much for some as there were No. 4 new white corn ...... 34c The Broadlands Theater enday morning.

visitor at the school one day last oats 11c; soy beans, 42c. week. He gave a short talk which was enjoyed by everyone.

Club are getting quite a lot of night. practice in preparation of food for a large number, and also serving. There have been a large number eating on Wednes-

The Allerton Basketeers were The L. S. L. club members defeated on the Sidell court last | A National David and Hendrix doing most of the Allerton scoring. game was close with Allerton trailing at the half 13-12. Referee, TeVault.

Sidney comes to Allerton, Friday, Dec. 15 for their return game of the season.

The drawings have been made Tournament which is to be held at Indianola, January 12-13. The O. E. Buker, Mr. and Mrs. four towns competing are Allerthe winners and losers playing year was that of Raymond Kil- Litt the finals. Much is to be ex- ian. Last March 11, his Chester Gilt The Community Christmas pected by the coaches of all White sow farrowed six pigs

St. John's Evangelical Church Swine Sanitation. The pigs cord of all labor, expenses, and REV. THEO. M. HAEFELE, PASTOR. Were fed a balanced growing ra- returns. The following state-

17:30 p. m.

D. of K. Class Meets at Home of Mrs. Anderson

The Y. W. O. Class of the U. The D. of K. Class met at the ed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wednesday evening. Six mem-Thomas Bergfield on Wednesday bers and three guests were pres-

There was an exchange of The following officers were ing of the O. R. T. at Danville.

After the usual business was Those present were: Rev. J. F. transacted a gift exchange was and family, Howard Clem and Mrs. Helen Ward was the prize

Those present to enjoy the ev-

"Laughter In Hell"

"Laughter in Hell" with Pat O'Brien and Merna Kennedy, at School News the Illinois Theater, Newman, this Saturday and Sunday.

Movie Show Saturday

The following program will be shown at the Broadlands Theater, this Saturday night:

Feature-Helen Foster in 'Road To Ruin.'

Also a two reel comedy. Admission 5c to all.

Market Report

Following are the prices offerprogram to be given on Thurs- ed for grain Thursday in the local market: No. 2 wheat.

The cold weather seemed to be No. 2 old corn ..... 40c No. 2 oats Following are the prices offer-well represented at the Illinois the world 585 are in the United The members of the R. O. H. Theater, Newman, last Sunday States. Russia comes second

News Items of 12 Years Ago

A. A. Cable attended a meet-

Miss Irene Krenzien left for

Kenneth Brewer suffered a broken right arm while attempting to crank a Ford car.

Wm. Brown and family moved to Newman where Mr. Brown had employment with the Fred

A. Smith Lumber Co. Misses Florence Kesterson and Phyllis and Leone, Miss Alice Boyd, Ruth Richard, Irene Witt, Pearl Clester entertained a num-Maxwell, Miss Anna Clem, Mr. Ida Messman, Edna Dicks, Mary ber of friends in honor of Mrs. and Mrs. Clark Henson, daugh- Dicks, Helen Ward, Minnie An- Hazel Kesterson. it being her 23rd birthday anniversary.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES Edward Hardy, Pastor.

BROADLANDS Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching, 11:00 a. m.

The pastor will deliver a Christmas message. The choir will sing a Christmas anthem.

The Sunday School will give their program on Christmas eve, Sunday, Dec. 24.

LONGVIEW Sunday School-10:00 a. m. Preaching—7:30 p. m. Epworth League—6:45 p. m.

The Sunday School will render their Christmas program in connection with the Sunday morning service Dec. 24.

29c urday night.

Mr. Tuggle, Vermilion County ed for grain a year ago: old corn, People in this country still Superintendent of schools was a 16c; new corn, 12c; wheat, 34c; marry at the rate of one couple every minute and a half.

> Broadlands and Allerton were Of the 1,426 radio stations in with 73.

Longview Township High School Future Farmers of America

Organization

Studying Vocational Agriculture

W. B. BRAEUNINGER-Instructor in Vocational Agriculture.

tained in the home of Mrs. Ursa for the Indianola Invitational Raymond Kilian Secures Good Results With Sow-Litter Project

One of the best vocational ag- Boa which were raised according to the McClean County System of tion which consisted of corn, ment can be made from these Sunday, Dec. 17th-Sunday pasture, protein supplement and records: pigs of the litter were exhibited Christmas Pageant rehearsal at the St. Joseph Community at 1:30 p. m. Characters of the and Vocational Fair last Septem-

The following prizes were Premium Placing 1st Boar

-
ar	1st	$4.00
ar	Champion	$5.00
ter	2nd	$5.00
t	4th	$3.50
Total		$23.50

Raymond kept an accurate rerecords:

Value of pigs produced	$68.00
Cost of production	$191.54
Total profit	$48.46
Allowed for his labor	$3.65
Total Income	$52.11
Premium money earned.	$23.50

Total income, premiums __$75.61

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

. F. DARNALL, Editor and Publisher. Entered as second-class matter April 18 1919 at the post-office at Broadlands, Illinois

ADVERTISING RATES:

under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Display Per Column Inch... Cards of Thanks.....

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

1 year in advance... 6 months in advance ..... 3 months in advance ...

Light and Health

eering publication. It is well to him. known that quartz mercury and careful handling.

off these healthful rays have movies. Many large systems go been developed for use in general lighting, thus performing a passenger. double duty. In fact, such lamps are already available, but so far their use has been restricted principally to home treatment of diseases in which sunlight or its equivalent is necessary.

opted for general use, as it is the gradual absorption of the idity and safety. indoor workers who have little of the Interior. contact with the health-giving rays of natural sunlight.

Southern Pine Paper

After years of patient experimenting, Dr. Charles H. Herty, the famous Georgia chemist, has succeeded in producing excellent newsprint paper from Southern cess.

vast new industry will arise in and still hold aloof from the that is in their power to live up the South which will be of im- paleface. mense benefit to the entire country. For many years an enormous amount of newsprint and pulp has been imported from newspapers.

gratulated on the success of his furnished free by Uncle Sam. efforts by President Roosevelt, who said: "I am delighted that become obvious that the Red his dream and that of all of us has come true, and that we are identity and become as the rest to use Southern pine for news- of us, and adds: "From a senprint paper purposes."

Plight of the Aged

While not a pleasant subject to dwell upon, an occasional look ahead to the condition which seems secure.

some even wealthy.

and see acquaintances who were tence. After he had served so on. And the accident toll once the envy of their neighbors, more than three years the sup- soars. but who through business re- posedly murdered woman was To most of us, winter driving verses, accidents, illness or ex- found living in Indiana, and Wil- presents the principal hazard. travagance are now brought to son was pardoned. He was giv- Streets are wet and ice-covered.

have been averted by a reason- prisonment. safe in the summer, become exable exercise of prudence and Another victim, J. B. Brown tremely dangerous. The condiprosperity is one fruitful source found entirely innocent. The important than at any other time of old age poverty, and there state gave him $2,492 in install- of the year. blame. The only course to pur- one of them can be offset by She—They say I have eyes are many others. Much of the ments, or about $200 for each Every motorist should have sue is to drive with a maximum care, competence and thought on just like my father. misery which usually accompan- year in prison. his car examined at the begin- of care under any and all condi- the part of the individual. ies old age might be avoided by Mississippi was not quite so ning of winter to make certain tions—and drive as little as poslooking ahead before it is too liberal with Moses Walker, who it is in good operating condition. sible when road and weather President Roosevelt has made late.

Railway Safety

cise of safety precautions.

Based on the experience of a It is hard to imagine anything a passenger could travel around of an innocent person. When ...20c the world 2,400 times without an such unhappily occurs, it seems Readers and Locals, inside pages, line.....10c accident, and many times that that compensation should be far without being killed.

.$1.50 even greater comparative results can really compensate for the with respect to railroad employ- mental and physical suffering ees. A reduction of 27 per cent experienced by the victim of in the number of casualties to false imprisonment, but it would railroad workers was attained in at least assist him in making a a single year. It is figured that new start in life. Electric lamps of the future on an average one of these would will be health-giving as well as be able to work 120 years for light-giving, declares an engin- each accident that would happen

At present, it is pointed out ultra-violet rays have been used is safer than banking or any by physicians for some time. other important calling. A pas-But these have required expert senger on a railroad train is safer than he would be sitting in Now it appears, lamps giving his own home or attending the ture, with every prospect of suc- seen among the Navajos of Ari- ers get no income at all."

The Indian Problem

ment to encourage the remain- last. To produce the greatest ing Indians to obtain education results their efforts must have and training with a view to giv- the cooperation of the private Canada and other foreign coun- ing up reservation life and tak- citizen. By building and repairtries, because domestic manu- ing their places among the inde- ing this winter he will get barfacture has been inadequate to pendent citizenship of the coun- gains in construction valuessupply the demands of American try. There are 203 schools for and he will be demonstrating his Indian pupils, where instruction, faith in the axiom that invest-Dr. Herty was recently con- food, lodging and clothing are ment and employment are better

Dr. Wilbur declares that it has Man eventually must lose his timental standpoint there is much to regret in this fact, but it is none the less inevitable."

Wrongful Imprisonment

upon his release.

Broadlands News deaths, fatal accidents to pas- passage of special bills by their sengers on railways of the coun-legislatures. Two states, North try have dwindled almost to the Dakota and Wisconsin, have vanishing point, due to better permanent laws providing comequipment and the greater exer- pensation for wrongful imprison> leading transcontinental railroad, more tragic than the punishment made a fixed public policy in Safety measures have achieved every state. No money payment

Winter Building

The Administration's objective to place 4,000,000 additional men at work this winter, insofar as lamps which radiate the beneficial by a recent writer, railroading construction is concerned, is entirely in keeping with engineering possibilities, according to Edward J. Mehrin, President of the Portland Cement Association.

"Building in winter is definitely practicable," said Mr. Mehrin. a whole year without killing a "Some years ago construction engineers and builders exploded the centuries old myth that construction, like the bear, should There has been an Indian prob- go into hiding with the first nip lem in the United States ever of fall. Methods have been in since its earliest settlement, but common use for years which per-When the new lamps are ad- that problem is being solved by mit building in winter with rap-believed they eventually will be, Red Man into our general popu- "A survey recently conducted it is expected that they will be lation, according to former Sec- by the Construction League of of immense benefit, especially to retary Wilbur of the Department the United States revealed that normally one of every ten work-We have about 350,000 persons ers in the country has a job in of Indian blood in the entire construction or in an industry country, of whom about one-dependent upon construction. third are in Oklahoma. The rest Further, one of every five loadare widely scattered among 25 ed railroad cars contain materstates, but even the reservation lals or equipment for construc-Indians are intermarrying with tion. Therefore, when constructhe white population and are tion hits a snag such as winter, rapidly assuming the white man's all industry and business, and slash pine. He is now seeking manner of living. A notable ex- practically all people, suffer a to reduce the cost of manufac- ception to this general trend is drop in income and many workzona, who have a reservation as The Federal government and When this is accomplished a large as the state of New Jersey many of the states, are doing all to the pledge that there shall It is the policy of the govern- not be another winter like the and cheaper than charity.

Winter Hazards

The coming of winter, as the National Safety Council points out, brings with it a number of varied and important accident hazards.

Carbon monoxide is one of the foremost. Motorists warm up their cars in closed garages—and In spite of the many legal the inevitable result is more unmay surround old age would be safeguards which surround those necessary tragedies to add to advisable, even for those whose accused of crime, a good many the annual death toll. Another circumstances in early life are innocent persons suffer imprison- field where winter brings an insatisfactory and whose future ment, and even death, as the re- crease in fatalities is in hunting, sult of perjured or otherwise un- nearly one-half of all firearms We may well be reminded that reliable evidence. A few in- deaths each year occur from Nonearly 80 per cent of all old peo- stances are related by Margaret vember to February. Careless ple are wholly or partially de- W. Stewart of the Library of or inexperienced sportsmen carry | pendent upon others for support. Congress in a recent article. loaded guns in vehicles, leave Yet many of these in early and There is the case of William them leaning against trees, middle life were prosperous and Wilson of Alabama, convicted in draw them barrel foremost after 1914 on the charge of murdering them when crossing fences, shoot Who can not look about him his wife and given a life sen- at moving, unseen objects, and feel the sting of poverty. en $3,500 by the state as partial Darkness comes early. Driving Usually such disasters might recompense for his wrongful im- practices that are reasonably thrift. Keeping up with one's of Florida, served 12 years for a tion of one's tires, brakes and neighbors in a false display of murder of which he was finally windshield wiper is vastly more

BROADLANDS THEATER

Saturday Night, Dec. 16 7:30 O'clock

Helene Foster ROADIO

Also A Good 2-Reel Comedy

Admission 5c to All

Advertisers In The News Are Deserving of Your Patronage...

Because they are helping to support an Institution that is Constantly Boosting for Broadlands . . . Your Home Town.

The Broadlands News

charge, but awarded him $500 only 15 per cent of car accidents In automobiles, in homes and phy, 9, an infantile paralysis doing? can be laid to mechanical failure, in sport, winter presents a thou- victim, of Worchester, Mass., to In contrast with the ever in- These payments by the states and that in the balance the hu-sand menaces to life and health go to the Georgia Warm Springs creasing number of automobile concerned were made thru the man element must bear the and property. Practically every foundation for treatment, served five years under a false Then he should remember that conditions are exceptionally bad. arrangements for Catherine Mur-

He-Yes, I've heard somebody say that you were pop-eyed.

Mother-Sammy, what are you

Sammy-Nothing, mother. Mother-You're getting more like your father every day,

Clara W. Smith, D.S.C.
Foot Specialist

Examination Free

Phone 19-3R
BROADLANDS, ILLINOIS

T. A. DICKS, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon

Broadlands, Ill.

DR. R. W. SWICKARD

DENTIST

X-Ray

Now permanently located at Newman, Illinois.

Telephone 83.

Great States' Theatre

FISCHER DANVILLE, ILLINOIS

Friday and Saturday on the stage

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Direct From Ripley's Odditorium At A Century of Progress

"ODDITIES OF 1933"
IN PERSON
Not Freaks But Real
Entertainers

On Our Screen RICHARD ARLEN

"HELL and HIGH WATER"

Time Tables

Executor's Notice

Those having Executor's Notices for publication can have them published in the local paper for about one-half the amount that daily papers charge.

Wife—The dressmaker says she won't make me any more dresses until you have paid her bill

Husband—That's great. I'll send her a note of thanks.

Accounts Collected

Have A Reliable Agency collect your accounts.

My charge for collecting accounts is 20%.

Logan Hedrick HOMER, ILL.

L. W. Donley

Phone No. 22

CE

City Transfer Long Distance Hauling

Broadlands, Illinois

Forrest Dicks
Allerton

Kenneth Dicks Broadlands

Dicks Bros.
Undertakers

Ambulance Service

Ambulance Service

See

Messman & Astell
For
All Kinds of Insurance

Astell Building

Broadlands, Illinois.

When you want better than ordinary printing---the kind that satisfies, and you want it to cost you no more than necessary---and you want it to impress all those who see it, and to bring the desired results---just phone No. 6, or better still, come to The News Office.

Bells and Bells

By ELSIE YOUNGHANS

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate, WNU Service

THE Princess Alexandria Sophia stirred ever so slightly. The day was breaking and a ray of light shone dimly on her small white face. Her eyelids fluttered, but were still too weary to lift their heavy fringe of lashes. She pulled the cover closer around her shoulders. Cold! Cold! Really she must ask Katja to unpack Aunt Anna Karlova's coverlet. That funny cover of lace and fur and silk that Aunt Karlova had spent an entire year in embroidering.

Winter! It must be winter! For suddenly sleighbells were ringing in the streets. Strangely muffled and far away they sounded. Perhaps a heavy snow had fallen during the night. Bells! Bells! An incessant ringing of them . . . an unending procession of them. Would they never stop! Where were they all going? Ah! But of course! Strange that she shouldn't have remembered. Suddenly it was clear as crystal. How could she have forgotten! Her wedding day! This was her wedding day! The jingling droshkas were bringing the wedding guests. From distant provinces, from the suburbs, from Moscow itself, were coming uncles and aunts and cousins-Victor's as well as her own; schoolmates, friends, officers from Victor's regiment, officials from the court and their families. Why, there must be hundreds of them, thousands of them, there were so many bells! And all coming to celebrate her wedding, her's and Victor's. Yet a strange weight lay on Alexandria Sophia! She felt she was not moving-that she was powerless to move.

And now, as suddenly as they had started, the bells stopped. The guests, then, were all assembled-all waiting. And Victor, her adorable Victor, he too, would be waiting! How splendid he would look in his uniform of the Imperial guard, all white and gold, with the flashing order of St. Stanislaus upon his breast. Ah, but he was wonderful! Swiftly, swiftly, her thoughts flew back to the day she had met him. It was at the ball at the Dolgoruk palace; she was making her first formal appearance in society. Victor had asked her to lead the procession with him. They had passed through an arch of flags, and instead of returning to the ballroom, he had carried her off to the gardens. Un der the willow by the fountain, he had kissed her, and told her she was the most divinely lovely thing God had created. And now here at last, she and Victor were to be married-never, so Victor had sworn, would he allow her to part from him,

But suddenly, more guests seemed to be arriving-there were the sleighbells again. The wedding banquet must be already spread in the great hall. But she, Alexandria Sophia, the bride, she was not there. Where was she? Oh, where was Katja? Why didn't Katja bring the wedding dress, that shimmering thing that had been sent from Paris? Where was the veil with headdress of pearls that had been worn by her mother, and her grandmother, and by countless Orlogski brides before them? Why this strange sense of impending doom in Alexandria Sophia's heart! Why this pain, this anguished foreboding-this heavy, heavy weight!

Sleighbells! Sleighbells! Would they never stop? Was all of Moscow coming to her wedding? And she, the bride, not ready—not ready! Ah! They were calling her—it seemed she was hiding somewhere. They were coming for her, some one was pounding at the door, shaking it. Dear God! Some one was breaking in. Why, she had been asleep, fast asleep! Her eyes were still dazed, her mind vague.

Some one stood on the threshold. Katja? good old Katja with the wedding dress? But, no, of course it wasn't Katja . . . it couldn't be Katja. The little princess was widenwake at last . . . rushing with a shudder into the complete awareness. A slovenly woman in a faded wrapper stood before her. She was holding out a thick white cup and talking: "See, dearle, it's coffee I'm after bringing up to ye. I feared as ye'd oversleep this morning, it was so late you got in last night, poor lamb, poor little lamb."

Ah! Awake! How terrible to be awake! To realize the truth! To know that she was only Sophie Orloff, apprentice at a dressmaking establishment, that she lived in a hall room in Mrs. Murphy's boarding house on Lenox avenue, that she had overslept and would be late to her job. And bitterest of all, to remember that she is no longer young, no longer beautiful, that no one in all the world really cares what happens to her.

Victor? Katja? Aunt Anna Karlova? Where were they? The Dolgoruki palace, court balls, wedding veils of lace, silken coverlets? Gone, gone! Borze Moi! Long and long ago had they all vanished. War, revolution, Red fury had annihilated these dear people—these once familiar things. They had vanished utterly, but she was left, to live on, adrift, alone.

But suddenly the muffled bells again. Now at last she knew their real meaning. With a despairing gesture, she pulled an alarm clock from under the pillow and threw it against the wall. "It didn't wake me," she sobbed, "it didn't wake me at all. It made me dream. . . Ah, Mrs. Murphy . . . it is not good to dream of sleighbells in my Russia!"

Illinois Theater---Newman, Ill.

Saturday and Sunday Dec. 16 and 17

LAUGHTER IN HELL

with

Pat O'Brien-Merna Kennedy

Smashing Drama from the current talked about novel---the story of a man whose fighting heart lived through the pain of false love and the terrors of the chain gang!

Always A Good Comedy

Admission

10c and 20c

A Big Feature and a Timely Aid is # Advertising!

. . . It will turn the spotlight of public favor on your business.

. . . It will bring new customers and add sales to your business.

. . . It will make money for you and give growth and leadership to your business.

. . . It will create customer interest and the desire to possess.

Mail order houses spend thousands of dollars each year placing their catalogs in rural communities and in return take hundreds of thousands of dollars from those same communities, which rightfully should go to local merchants, but does not because local merchants do not keep their customers informed relative to their merchandise.

Your Friends and Neighbors would rather spend at home.

The Broadlands News

Can care for all your advertising wants.

3

Burglar Alarm

By ALICE DUANE

6, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service stopped before the Barkley Jones house did not look undernourished or weak. He was tall and thin.

He glanced at the front door, then at a slip of paper in his hand. Then he rather stealthily made his way from the front of the house to the back door.

He asked the maid who answered his eng is the agent. rapping if there was something to be done about the place. "Just anything," he said rather pathetically.

"Just anything you can give me to do." Annie, the maid, gave one look into his gray eyes and decided that, if she had to pay him out of her own pocket, he would have work for the afternoon.

"Sure," she said. "Just sit down on the steps and I'll ask." She was a pretty girl, and the man smiled at her thankfully. Her eyes filled with tears as she turned away from him. She hurried off to her mistress.

This lady, overplump, over-endowed with this world's goods, sat idly before the living room fire. "I must say, Elsie," she said irritably to a young girl who was playing solitaire, "that you're about as unpleasant a guest as I can imagine. Why can't you suggest something to do."

"Oh," said the girl contritely, "I'm awfully sorry, Aunt Bess, but I came to visit you just to get away from seeing people, especially men. I just love to sit here safely-"

"It's safe enough," snorted Aunt Bess-otherwise Mrs. Barkley Jones. "But I'm bored." Then catching sight of Annie at the door, "Well, now what?" she added crossly.

Annie told her story. "A poor young feller," she said. "As nice looking as you please. And he doesn't look as if he'd eaten for a week. Just anything he'll do, he says." "Oh, well!" Mrs. Jones considered. "Why, of course. You couldn't turn him away. Tell him he can clean the cellar. And make him some coffee and sandwiches, if you want. You might bring us a trayful, too, Annie!"

"I wish," Elsie thought, "that I hadn't been such a fool. But it was his fault, too. He was too brutal to leave me without a chance of explanation. wish I'd sent him that letter. It would be better to have him know I haven't a speck of pride than not to have him at all."

In the cellar the young man-"My name's Pete," he told Annie-was looking in troubled perplexity at the neat tray the maid had just brought him. A small pot of coffee, cream and sugar, a pile of bread and butter, sliced chicken and ham and swiss cheese. "More food," he thought. "What'll I do with it? I can't hurt the girl's feelings. Oh, well," he thought, "I might as well try it." Then, fortified by his lunch, he began to clean up the cellar.

It wasn't until he was almost through that Annie was frightened. Then she realized what he probably was-a burglar.

Annie couldn't stand keeping her suspicions to herself. "Here," she said, "you empty these trash baskets into the barrel there." And she went upstairs, carefully locking the door at the top of the kitchen side, so that the man couldn't follow her.

She burst in upon Mrs. Jones and Elsie.

"Oh, Mrs. Jones," she cried. "It's my fault, I suppose-but that young me questions, and I'm afraid I've told him a lot about the house and the family! Such a nice young man he seemed, too, at first. But he's a burglar!" And Annie began to cry.

Aunt Bess subsided into a state of semi-hysteria. It was the last straw, she thought, as she watched Elsie trying to quiet the weeping Annie.

"But he can't be a burglar, Aunt Bess," said Elsie reasonably. "He was too obvious, pumping Annie like that. I'll go and see." And she started cellarward, the shaken and still fearful Annie close behind her.

In the cellar, when Elsie got there, bending over the trash barrel with a rapt and ecstatic expression, was the young man. "Why, Peter Wales!" cried Elsie. 'How on earth did you get here?" "Motored over this morning. Found out at your house where you'd gone. I knew you wouldn't see me, so I tried this way of getting in with some old clothes." He smiled at the bewildered Annie. Then he walked over to Elsie and took her firmly in his arms. "Now listen to me, Elsie," he said. "We'll have no more fooling. You'll marry me-now. As soon as we can get a license. You and I both made a mistake with our silly quarrel." "Oh, Peter," said Elsie-"I can't!

But how did you know?" "Here!" Peter held her with one arm. He spread the other hand in front of her. She took from it a crumpled, torn scrap of paper. "I saw this in the rubbish-it must have come from your trash basket, a piece of a letter you'd written to me, and then torn up when you decided not to send

With shining eyes and flushed cheeks Elsie read, in her own handwriting: "-a silly mistake. Oh, Peter, I can't live without you."

Annie gazed in unnoticed fascination as Peter pressed his lips to Elsie's. Aunt Bess waited, in chill and shuddering fear, for news of the burglar.

Fairland News

Garnett Gibson, Correspondent.

what improved at this writing.

THE bareheaded young man who St. Elmo were week end guests the annual harvest festival at

The Fairland depot opened at the school house, Dec. 22nd. in a dresser drawer.

Mrs. Clayton Porch.

home with them to spend a few ing a 30-day sentence.

months in a C. C. C. Camp. His brother, Robert was overseer of the mess in that camp. Robert is a former Fairland boy and has worked up to Mess Sergeant in the regular army since leaving

What's New

A Swiss reports the invention of an electric typewriter containing but 20 parts.

for the construction of an im- that was amateur night. mense plant for manufacturing gasoline from coal.

Traffic signals which change shape in addition to colors have been designed to help color-blind drivers.

A seed drier has been developed by the Department of Agriculture through which frozen cently doubled your life insurseed cotton may be run and then ance. ginned without difficulty.

A device invented by Ray cooking schools. Woodruff, Los Angeles singing teacher, throws the voice back sounds to the audience.

cabin of an airplane, is under bear do you? tests at Roosevelt Field, Long Keeper-No, but the last boy feller down there—he's been asking Island, N. Y. It has a top speed this bear ate, he almost choked of 120 miles an hour and travels to death on a knife the boy had 30 miles on a gallon of gas.

Interesting Notes

"Rubber Face" Cox of Lon- Southbound been ill with neuritis is some- having the funniest face in all England.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hawkins of Earl Evans won a contest at of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Jr. Crookston, Minn., by eating 30 bowls of pea soup.

schedule after being closed part bury, Eng., was arrested for night. time since Feb. 27th. J. T. Weg- begging he had five razors and four bottles of beer.

er of the primary room of the Norris of Chicago carried away went to the end of their garden Fairland school is planning on a about $1,000 worth of whiskey, and found him living comforta-Christmas program to be given but left $800 in cash undisturbed bly in a shed.

Tuesday after spending several and carried her fifty yards on year. months at the home of Mr. and the fender; then she rolled off and ran away.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Fifteen minutes after he stole your father in, my boy? Dana, Ind., spent Sunday with a coat from a clothing store E. M. Maxwell and daughters. Henry Smith of Baton Rouge, Miss Marie Maxwell returned La., was behind the bars serv- lieves in making hay while the Workmen at Martin's Ferry, Rushen Nicholas arrived here Ohio, called off work for a day Saturday from Livingston, Tex., on finding two large jugs of where he has spent several booze which had been buried under a slate pile for 35 years.

Smile Awhile

Fortune Teller-I warn you; a dark man is about to cross your path.

Motorist - Better warn the dark man.

Ned-What did she say after you kissed her?

Ted-She told me to call on Plans are under way in Wales Friday night hereafter, because > Little Peggy - Mother, was that p'liceman ever a little baby? Mother-Yes, dear.

Peggy-That's funny; I don't think I ever saw a baby p'lice-

Askum-I hear you have re-

Bascum-Yes, my wife has started going to one of those Menagerie Keeper — Ma'am, so that the singer hears it as it please keep your children away from the bear cage.

Woman-Why, you don't think An automobile built like the my children would hurt your in his pocket.

IF IT'S FROM WARD'S - - - IT'S DEPENDABLE!

Sensible Christmas Gifts for The Entire Family

It is easy to shop at WARD'S where you know the quality is dependable—and the prices are low. Here are a few Christmas suggestions:

Full Fashioned Pure Silk Hose, pair	.59c
Gift Slippers for Women, Rayon Crepe, pr	.69c
Women's Hankies, Fine Linen or Lawn, box of 3.	.49c
Warm Blankets, 70x80 Pastel Shades, pr$	1.39
Towel Sets, Bath Towel and Wash Cloth	.29c
Men's Broadcloth Shirts, plain or fancy colors	.79c
Men's Neckwear, Up to Minute Patterns	.49c
Men's Scarfs, New Holiday Styles	.49c
Men's Felt Slippers, pair	.98c
Men's Fancy Sox, Rayon or Celanese, pr	.19c
Steel Auto Dump Truck, with Lights	.98c

Visit Danville's Big Toy Department

202-206 N. Ver. St.

Phone 742. Danville, Ill.

Time Tables

C. & E. I.

1:55 p. m. 7:15 a. m. Southbound . Northbound .....8:30 a. m.

Your news items would help to make this paper more interesting.

Admission 5c to all, at the Tuesday morning on a six hour When Thomas Francis of Nor- Broadlands Theater, Saturday

A week after William McMoran disappeared from home, at Miss Esther Hollowell, teach- Burglars in the home of James Cricklewood, England, his wife

Professor-State the number Leo Singleton returned to his Robert Blandon of Winnetka, of tons of coal shipped out of home at Rice Station, Ky., on Ill., struck a cow with his auto the United States in any given Freshman-In 1492-none.

Customer-What business is Bootblack—He's a farmer. Customer-Ah, I see; he beson shines.

Great States' Theatre

DANVILLE,

Friday and Saturday on the stage

ILLINOIS

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Direct From Ripley's Odditorium At A Century of Progress "ODDITIES OF 1933"

> IN PERSON Not Freaks But Real Entertainers

> On Our Screen RICHARD ARLEN

"HELL and HIGH WATER"

Choose Any Model at the Present Low Prices

DOWN 2 YEARS TO PAY

GIVE THE GIFT she wants and needs—one that will make her life easier and happier and your food better every day for years to come. See your dealer or visit this office.

ESCENTRAL ILLINOIS ES PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

A World of Wonderful Toys For Boys and Girls--The Finest and Best Toys In Town!

Our Toy Department is such a Fairyland of toys that move, toys that fly, toys that make a noise, toys to build with, and so many, many others that the kiddies will "jump for joy" when you bring them here. See Santa's wonders first hand. Note the very low prices on toys here.

Mothers! The Kiddies will have the time of their young lives in Our Toy Shop. Bring them in.

Please Her

Give Something Electrical

Time saving electrical appliances grow in favor each year as Christmas gifts. See our amazing display of labor-saving electrical appliances. Note the unusual low

Glassware Is Appreciated

With Chinaware Give her the gift that Christmas is a good time to give Chinaware. If you are will bring pleasure for wondering what to give, long years to come . . . Glassware. Glassware come in and see our comis unusually low in price plete displays of lovely chinaware of every descripthis year. A wide variety to choose from.

This Store Is Danville's Gift Center!

tion. Lower prices here.

Gift hunting is a pleasure at Danville's Gift Center. Here you'll find items for Her-for Him-for the Home-the Kiddies. At this store are many, many items that make Christmas shopping much easier. Come in and pay us a visit.

OTTO R. SCHULTZ HARDWARE CO.

155 No. Vermilion St. Opp. Fischer Theatre, Danville, Illinois.

BROADLANDS THEATER

Saturday Night, Dec. 16 7:30 O'clock

Helene Foster -ın-

Also A Good 2-Reel Comedy

Admission : : 5c to All