Jack Holt in "Whirlpool"

From the opening scene to the thrilling climax, the film is replete with intense dramatic interest, exciting situations and breath-taking suspense. In the role of Rankin, small-time carnival owner, Holt is said to provide a powerful characterization.

Committed to the penitentiary for twenty years for the inadvertent death of a small town "hick" in a carnival brawl, Holt returns after completing his sentence to a world unlike the one of his youth. Bitter and resentful for his incarceration, he turns big-shot racketeer. His flourishing profession receives a powerfully dramatic set-back, however, when his name is linked with that of his innocent wife and daughter, who all these years had believed him to be dead.

The climatic denouement has been hailed as a stirring screen episode. In support of Holt is a large cast including Jean Arthur, Donald Cook, Allen Jenkins, Lila Lee and John Miljan.

Chevrolet Makes New Four Door Sedan

A new four-door Sedan is now being added to the 1934 Chevrolet Standard Six line. This new model has been created to meet a definite demand, and its introduction now places the company in a position to offer Chevrolet quality in a four-door Sedan at a price that is certain to attract the interest of thousands of prospects.

While the new Standard Sedan embodies all the major features of the present Standard Six line, it introduces several new features of interest. In appearance the Standard Six Sedan follows the same general styling of the present Standard Six line, with the exception of a new treatment at the rear end where the former rear cross member cover is eliminated. The body now extends lower in an unbroken contour to cover the rear end of the frame. The spare tire carrier, of the same design as on the present coach, extends through the body rear panel. The bumper mounting points of the frame and the gasoline tank filler neck, also extend through this panel.

The floor in the rear compartment is entirely flat, making it much easier for the rear seat passengers to rise when leaving the car. Another feature of the rear compartment is a carpet covered foot rest which is built into a recess at the bottom rear of the front seat. The recess increases the effective leg room in the rear compartment.

The new Standard Sedan provides exceptional roominess and comfort. The body is of the same width as the Master Six Sedan. Although the body is slightly shorter than the Master Six Sedan, it is 2½ inches longer inside than the present Standard Six Coach.

The new Sedan will be available in the regular standard colors—black, blue, maroon and green.

Long View News

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Parker, accompanied by the latter's father, Wm. Taylor, of Homer, motored to Clay City, Tuesday, to visit a relative who is very ill.

Mrs. Jas. Carleton, Mrs. Sue Harden and Mrs. O. T. Rowen entertained the J. F. F. club members and their husbands Saturday night at a euchre party with six tables at play. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nohren, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Block. High score awards went to Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Daniels and low to Mrs. Fanny Churchill and Lyman Mohr.

Local People Hurt In Automobile Collision

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Witt and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Limp are recovering from injuries they received about 8:30 o'clock last Sunday evening, when their car collided head-on with a truck driven by Ellsworth Mayhew of Mattoon. The accident occurred on the U. S. Route 45, near the Cunningham Home at Urbana.

Mr. and Mrs. Witt and Mr. and Mrs. Limp were returning to their homes at Broadlands, after having visited in Joliet, when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Witt received a severe scalp wound, a broken rib and two broken toes. Her spine is injured somewhat but it is not fractured. Mr. Witt received a cut on his right arm which necessitated several stitches to close the wound. Mr. Limp received a bad cut over one eye, several stitches being required to close it, a dislocated thumb and cuts on several fingers. Mrs. Limp received several cuts about the legs. Mrs. Limp and Mr. Witt were discharged from Mercy Hospital after receiving first aid. Mr. Limp was brought home on Monday evening but Mrs. Witt will probably be a patient there for some time.

The Witt car, going south, was trailing another car southbound on the "S" curve near the Home. The car ahead of the Witt car suddenly turned to the right, following a slight jog in the road, revealing a truck going north, whose bright lights blinded Mr. Witt and he met head-on with the truck. Mr. Mayhew, driver of the truck, escaped injury. The truck and car were badly damaged.

At this writing Mrs. Witt is slightly improved.

Charles E. Keller For County Judge

Charles E. Keller, Republican nominee for County Judge of this County was born and raised on a farm near Bondville. In 1908 he became associated with the late Judge Boggs as stenographer and in 1915 was appointed Official Circuit Court Reporter of this County which office he held until 1923. He studied law while acting as Court Reporter and was admitted to practice in 1923. He spent four years in the office of Dobbins & Dobbins in Champaign and since 1928 has maintained an office for himself in Champaign. He served as Master in Chancery under Judges Boggs and Leonard and heard and decided many contested law suits. His reports were seldom overruled in the Circuit Court and of all the cases appealed to the higher courts only one case was reversed. He has been actively engaged in the practice of law for the past eleven years in the State and Federal courts. He has had a training and experience that few candidates for this office have an opportunity to acquire.

Mr. Keller is forty-four years of age, married and has three children. He has lived in Urbana for the past twenty-three years and has always taken an active interest in the civic and community affairs of this county.

Worse Than War

Whatever else may happen during 1934, it is a practical certainty that more than 30,000 Americans will be killed in traffic accidents, and another 750,000 injured.

It is strange that the awful death toll of automobiles does not serve as a warning to drivers and pedestrians alike, but it appears that it does not. Many persons who worry over germs or minor dangers of other sorts will take chances on the highways which are bound to sooner or later end in disaster.

As recent statistics show, three times as many casualties result from automobile accidents in a single year as were suffered by the United States forces during the entire World War. The war cost more lives, but the automobile is responsible for more injured.

Among the yearly automobile deaths are those of about 7,000 children of school age, the greatest number being between the ages of six and twelve years. The greatest number of accidents occur between five and six o'clock in the afternoon. Drivers and pedestrians are about equally at fault in their responsibility for accidents, according to the best estimates available.

While the automobile is an indispensable convenience of modern life, it has already caused the death of almost as many persons as were killed in battle in all the American armies since the founding of the Republic.

Some World Wonders

The seven wonders of the ancient world have often been described. They were the great Pyramid of Cheops, the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, the Temple of Diana at Ephesus, the Grecian statue of Jupiter, the Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, the Pharos lighthouse at Alexandria, and the Colossus of Rhodes. All except the great pyramid have been destroyed.

Other wonders, which vie with the classical seven in magnitude and historical interest, are to be found in various parts of the world, mostly in ruins. Among these the most striking are to be found in Italy.

The Circus Maximus at Rome, originally built in 665, B. C., was enlarged at various times until in the fourth century it was capable of holding 385,000 spectators.

Another of the world's largest amphitheaters, the Coliseum at Rome, was the scene of horrible atrocities, in which early Christians and others by the thousands were thrown into the arena to be killed by wild lions and tigers.

The Appian Way, extending 360 miles southward from Rome, was built some 300 years before Christ, and was the finest highway of its time.

In Pisa is the famous leaning tower, built in 1154, which has threatened to tumble down for more than 600 years, but still stands, and recently plans for restoring it to its original upright position have been made.

The Vatican at Rome, home of the Popes since 1377, was begun by the Emperor Constantine in the fourth century. It is the largest residence in the world. Here also is the largest church in the world, the Cathedral of St. Peter, begun in 1506 and completed 126 years later.

All these are visited by thousands of tourists and others each year, because of their unique character and historic interest.

In Memory of Bolivar
In several South American countries ceremonies were held in commemoration of General Simon Bolivar, the great liberator, on the centenary of his death.
Bolivar was born in Caracas, Venezuela, a scion of the nobility and had the benefit of European education and travel before entering upon his heroic career. He married at the age of 18, but his young wife died of yellow fever shortly afterward. Several years following this bereavement appear to have been spent in Europe by Bolivar in comparative inactivity.
Returning to Venezuela by way of the United States, he was impressed with the free institutions of this country, and in 1810 at the age of 27, he became identified with the cause of independence for the Spanish colonies in South America.
His first military efforts in behalf of freedom were unsuccessful and he was twice forced to flee to escape capture by the Spaniards. Once an assassin bent on taking his life killed his secretary by mistake.
Returning each time to renew his fight for independence, after several years of varying fortunes Bolivar liberated the present territory of Venezuela, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia, the latter a state named in his honor, from Spanish rule forever.

He has been called "the Washington of South America," and like Washington he suffered from much opposition on the part of his own revolutionists at various times. Although he became the virtual dictator of the countries to which he gave freedom, he never profited financially by his opportunities, but spent most of his own fortune in behalf of independence.
Tired and worn by his extraordinary exertions, Bolivar died of tuberculosis at the age of 47. His name is immortalized as that of one of the world's greatest exponents of human liberty.
We can always see both sides of a question that doesn't concern us.

Prevent an Increase in Taxes

Vote "YES," November 6, on the separate EMERGENCY RELIEF BALLOT and keep your Taxes from going up 8 to 20% next year EMERGENCY RELIEF BALLOT

Shall an Act of the General Assembly of Illinois entitled "An Act to provide for an issue of bonds of the State of Illinois for the relief of indigent persons and for the redemption of notes issued in anticipation of taxes levied for that purpose," enacted by the Fifty-eighth General Assembly at its first special session thereof, which in substance authorizes the State to provide funds for the relief of residents who are destitute and in necessitous circumstances and for the redemption and retirement of notes issued for such purposes and to contract a debt and issue $30,000,000 of serial bonds for such purposes, such bonds to bear interest at not to exceed six per cent; levies a tax sufficient to pay said interest as it accrues and to pay off said bonds within 20 years from issuance, but provides that such payments may be made from other sources of revenue and require certain moneys allotted to counties and municipalities under the "Motor Fuel Tax Law" to be first used for the payment of the several counties' portion thereof and such direct tax to be omitted in any year in which sufficient money from other sources of revenue has been appropriated to meet such payments for such year; provides for publication and for submission to the people; makes the provisions for payment of such interest and bonds irrevocable and pledges faith of State to the making of such payments; go into full force and effect?

Nerves Do they torture you by day? Keep you awake at night?

What is it that keeps hospitals open and doctors busy? NERVES.
What is it that makes your face wrinkled and makes you feel old? NERVES.
Nine times out of ten it's NERVES that make you restless, worried, haggard.

Nerves Do they make you Cranky, Blue--give you Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache?

When nerves are over-taxed, you worry over trifles, find it hard to concentrate, can't sit still. Nerve Strain brings on Headache. Nervous people often suffer from Indigestion. There may be absolutely nothing wrong with the organs of digestion, but the Nerves are not on the job to make the organs do their work properly.

Nerves Do they interfere with your work; ruin your pleasure; drive away your friends?

You're cheating yourself and the man who pays you if you work when your NERVES are not normal. You can't have a good time when you are nervous. You can't make or keep friends when you are keyed up and irritable. You may excuse yourself, but to others you are just a plain crank.
