CHEVROLET HAS NEW METHOD OF OILING ENGINE

A unique method of flooding connecting rod bearings with a surplus of lubricating oil at high engine speeds is one of the new mechanical features of Chevrolet engines in all 1935 models. The new oiling system assures an extra supply of oil to bearings when most needed, that is, when the car is being driven about 70 miles per hour for long periods.

At lower engine speeds, lubrication of crankpins is provided by oil picked up from troughs by dippers on the connecting rods. The oil pan troughs are kept filled by the oil pump which feeds fresh oil thru nozzles opening below the surface level.

At high engine speeds as the pump pressure increases oil is fired from these nozzles with sufficient force to cause high pressure streams of oil to be thrown clear across the crankcase directly in the paths of the connecting rod dippers. Because of the high speed of the dippers as the engine turns over 3,000 or more r. p. m. they hit the solid stream of oil with so much force that tremendous pressure is created. The oil flows thru the outlet in the top of the dipper and is forced thru the deep grooves in the connecting rod bearing. The force of the impact of the oil stream provides positive lubrication to the entire surface of the bearing and clears away any obstruction in the oil grooves much as a high pressure stream of water from a fire engine rips roof from a building.

FACTS ABOUT THE BIBLE

The following facts are taken from an old clipping:

A prisoner condemned to solitary confinement obtained a copy of the Bible and by three years careful study obtained the following facts:

The Bible contains 3,586,489 letters; 773,692 words; 31,173 verses; 1189 chapters and 66 books. The word "and" occurs 46,277 times. The word "Lord" occurs 1855 times. The word "Reverend" occurs but once, which is in the 9th verse of the 111th Psalm. The middle verse is the 8th verse of 118th Psalm. The 21 verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all letters of the alphabet except the letter J. The finest chapter to read is the 26th chapter of Acts. The 19th chapter of II Kings and the 37th chapter of Isaiah are alike. The longest verse is the 9th verse of the 8th chapter of Esther while the shortest is the 35th verse of the 11th chapter of St. John. The 8th, 15, 21 and 31 verses of the 136 Psalm ends alike. There are no words or names of more than six syllables.

Better Breakfasts

YES. There is a way to make that first breakfast dish of fruit different, and, oh, the difference it makes! The exclamation: "But this is something new!" is balm to the soul of the solicitous housewife who has to plan three hundred and sixty-five breakfasts a year. She'll hear it if she serves the following breakfast:

Orange Slices with Cranberry Jelly Cubes
Flaked Cereal with Cream
Buckwheat Cakes Syrup
Sausages
Coffee

The ingredients of the first dish consist of oranges and canned cranberry jelly.

Allow one medium orange for each person. Cut off peel, removing all the white fibre. Cut in slices crosswise and lay in an overlapping circle on plates. Cut some chilled cranberry jelly in small cubes, and pile about one heaping teaspoonful in center of each service of orange circles. This not only looks pretty, but the combination tastes mighty good.

Appetizing Coffee

The coffee that you serve at this breakfast should be of the kind you can't wait to taste—the kind the aroma of which is so tempting that you scald yourself with the first sip. It's easy to have coffee like that now that so many popular brands are put up in vacuum packed cans. These cans keep the coffee fresh until they are opened, and freshness is the principal thing—for fragrance, taste and strength—in the making of good coffee.

No oxygen can get to the coffee, you see, if it is enclosed in vacuum packed cans, and oxygen is the chief enemy of coffee. When exposed to it, the coffee gases quickly evaporate, and much of the taste and aroma is soon gone.*

HI JOHNSTON CAN TELL YOUR AGE AND EXACT COIN

Of late that good natured gentleman at the east side elevator, better known as "Hi" Johnston has been enjoying himself at the expense of others by having them argue the contrary and then proving his word by using the following formula to tell one's age and the amount of money in one's pocket without asking questions.

Now here's the formula. Just ask the person to get over in the corner and have them put down these figures: their age, multiply by 2. Add 5 and multiply by 50. Subtract 365. Add any number from one to 99. Add 115.

The total will be in four figures the first two being the age and the second two the number of cents in their pocket under one dollar.

Should it not work, just have the performer check up the figures for it has never failed to work.

LOCAL POSTOFFICE TO OFFER BABY BONDS

The Homer postoffice will offer for sale beginning today a new series of postal savings known as "baby bonds" according to an announcement of Postmaster O.P. Dickson, yesterday. Instructions regarding the sale of the bonds were received this week by Mr. Dickson from the treasury department at Washington D. C.

The bonds in $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 denominations are to be issued on discount basis and will mature in 10 years but will be redeemable before maturity at option of owners after 60 days. No interest will be paid on these bonds but the purchase price has been fixed so as to afford an investment yield of about 2.9% per annum compounded semi-annually if the bonds are held to maturity.

Tax Exempt

Regulations concerning the sale of the bonds state that they shall not be transferable, exempt from taxation, both as to principal and interest. They may be purchased at all first, second and third class postoffices while the offer is in effect. Postmaster Dickson does not have any $500 or $1,000 bonds but can secure them quickly if occasion demands. The issue prices of the various denominations is as follows:

Denomination	Sale Price
$ 25	$ 18.75
50	37.50
100	75.00
500	375.00
1,000	750.00

From the above it can be seen that a bond purchased today at $18.75 and held until maturity will pay its owner $25.

Complete information may be secured at the local postoffice by interested parties.

DENIES LICENSE NECESSARY FOR EACH FISHING LINE

A widespread rumor that fishermen of Illinois are required to have a license for each hook and line was denied this week in a letter to village clerk M. L. Nelson by Chas. F. Thompson, director of conservation.

There has been no change whatsoever in the Fish Code, although some are being contemplated but will have to be submitted to the legislature for approval before they can become effective, which will not be before July 1, 1935.

IF EVERYBODY WERE JUST LIKE HIM, WHO COULD PRINT A HOME PAPER?

He was a prominent citizen of the community. He controlled quite a bit of property and had financial power in the community but he did not take his "home" paper. He either could not spare the small sum per year to pay for the paper or he was too big a man to fool with taking a paper like that. At any rate he did not take his home town paper. If everyone in the community had been like him there could have been no home paper.

His wife gave a swell reception. The local paper gave a good account of the affair. He would have thought it awful if it had not been in the home paper. But if everybody had been like him there could have been no home paper.

His daughter got married. It too, was a swell affair, and the local paper gave a proper account of it. He felt that a man of his importance was deserving of such a notice by the home paper. But if everybody had been like him there could have been no home paper.

He got seriously sick and the home paper told all about it. His friends looked to the paper to know how he was getting along, and when his condition got worse they all knew about it thru the paper. But if everybody had been like him there could have been no home paper.

He died and was given an appropriate funeral. Care was taken to see that the home paper got full information regarding the important events of his life so as to give him the final "write up" that a man of his standing deserved. But if everybody had been like him there could have been no home paper.

The family requested several copies of that issue of the paper and sent in a card of thanks. But they acted as if seriously aggrieved when asked to pay for the card of thanks and the extra paper. That all this ought to be free to And the minister who had charge of the funeral, a former resident of the place but now living elsewhere, wanted the paper to see him a copy containing an account of the funeral—free of course.

Sometimes the newspaper wonders how "prominent" a man will be when year after year he fails to have his name on the of the home paper but expects the home paper shall show the same consideration as it does a patron. x

YOU FIGURE IT

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat?

Some say Eve 8 and Adam 2—a total of only 110.

Now we figure the thing out far differently: Eve 8 and Adam 8 or a total of 16.

We think the above figures are entirely wrong.

If Eve 8 and Adam 82, certainly the total will be 90.

Scientific men, however, on the strength of the theory that the antediluvians were giants, reason something like this: Eve 81 and Adam 82—total 163.

Wrong again. What could be clearer than if Eve 81 and Adam 812, the total was 893?

We believe the following to be the true solution: Eve 814 Adam, and Adam 8124 Eve—8,938.

Still another calculation is as follows: If Eve 814 Adam, Adam 81242 oblige Eve, total—82,056.

NEW TESTS ARE BEING MADE ON SOYBEAN

Illinois' rapid rise to agricultural leadership in soybean production and the prospects for further increase in acreage during the coming year are attracting attention of farmers breeders to marked differences between varieties of this crop. Dr. C. M. Woodworth, plant breeder, U. of I., has found that the record crop of 9 bushels in Illinois in 1934 valued at more than 8 million dollars and represented 54 per cent of national production.

Soybean varieties have been found to vary not only in color but also in many characters affecting their production, Dr. Woodworth says. These differences will be increasingly important as the production of the crop expands.

"One of the important factors in which varieties differ is the number of seeds in the pod. There are some pods with one seed, some with two and 4. Usually there are one-seeded and 4-seeded given variety. Varieties differ in the proportion of the sized pods. The Ita variety, for instance, is predominantly seeded type and the Ill type is 4-seeded.

"In experiments on soybeans a type was found with very high percentage of pods, 2 or 3 newly introduced from the U. S. Department of Agriculture showed proportion of 4-seeded, any commercial variety being grown. Tests prove varieties breed true for particular proportions found. "Contrary to what might be expected the varieties having proportion of 4-seeded are not as good yielders as varieties with a majority of pods. The 4-seeded variety produce small plants, a much smaller number than taller-growing, high 2-seeded varieties.

"Furthermore it is difficult to combine the 4 seeded character with the good character of another variety. This is one of the complications in growing soybeans for an important place in American agriculture."

NEW TESTS ARE BEING MADE ON SOYBEAN TYPES

Illinois' rapid rise to the national leadership in soybean production and the prospects for a still further increase in acreage during the coming year are drawing attention of farmers and plant breeders to marked differences between varieties of this crop, says Dr. C. M. Woodworth, chief in plant breeding, U. of I.

The record crop of 9 1/2 millions of bushels in Illinois in 1934 was valued at more than 8 million dollars and represented 54% of the national production.

Soybean varieties have been found to vary not only in seed color but also in many other characters effecting their commercial production, Dr. Woodworth said. These differences will become increasingly important as the production of the crop expands, he points out.

One of the important characters in which varieties differ is in the number of seeds a pod. There are some pods with only one seed, some with two, others 3 and 4. Usually there are very few one-seeded and 4-seeded pods in a given variety. Varieties also differ in the proportion of the different-sized pods. The Ita San, for instance, is predominantly a 2-seeded type and the Illini, a 3-seeded type.

In experiments on breeding soybeans a type was found with a very high percentage of 1-seeded pods. 2 or 3 newly introduced varieties from the U. S. Department of Agriculture show a higher proportion of 4-seeded pods than any commercial varieties now being grown. Tests prove that these varieties breed true for the particular proportions found, indicating that the character is inherited.

Contrary to what might be expected the varieties having a high proportion of 4-seeded pods are not as good yielders as many varieties with a majority of 2-seeded pods. The 4-seeded types usually produce small plants bearing a much smaller number of pods than taller-growing, higher-yielding 2-seeded varieties.

Furthermore it is difficult to combine the 4 seeded character of a variety with the good characters of another variety. This is only one of the complications in improving soybeans for a still more important place in American agriculture.

He is a square shooter. It is a short sentence but what a lot of meaning it carries when applied to a man. Some men live a life time in a community and never earn that simple ecoinium. He is a square shooter. He will do exactly what he says he will do. What a pleasure it is to deal with such men, men whose every word is as good as any bond that might be given. Every community has such men but usually they are unimportant in civic life to the immediate community. Away from home they stand ace high. In dealing with them it is never necessary to be on one's guard or to be apprehensive of the outcome of the transaction.

No one need be deceived in anything a man does after it has once been discovered he is a liar.

Two big problems today seems to be in finding jobs for unemployed and keeping those employed from striking.

A $1.50 Dinner for 6

THERE are lots of things you can do for a dollar and a half, but it is doubtful whether you can please six people better, all at once, than by serving them this dinner at a cost of a quarter each.

- Baked Chicken Maryland 88¢
- Oven-Baked French Fried Potatoes 6¢
- Currant Jelly 9¢
- Bread and Butter 12¢
- Peach and Banana Salad 30¢
- Demi-Tasse 5¢

The ingredients of the first dish are as follows:

- 1 3-pound chicken
- 1 large egg
- Bread or cracker crumbs
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/3 cup water
- 3 tbsps. butter
- 3 tbsps. flour
- 1 13-ounce can chicken broth without rice
- 1/4 cup evaporated milk
- Salt and pepper

Cut up chicken, dust with flour and salt, and dip each piece first in beaten egg, then in crumbs. Place in a well-greased flat pan (some people like to use two glass pie plates) so the pieces are only one layer deep. Place in a hot oven—400 degrees—having the pan covered for the first fifteen minutes. Baste occasionally with the quarter cup of butter melted in the third of a cup water. Bake from forty-five minutes to an hour, or until tender. Meanwhile make a rich sauce by melting the three tablespoons butter, adding the three tablespoons flour and stirring slowly, stirring until creamy. Add the evaporated milk, and season with salt and pepper. Pour over chicken when done.

The ingredients of the salad:

- 6 canned peaches
- 6 lettuce leaves
- halves
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 2 bananas
- raisins

Arrange crisp lettuce leaves on salad plates. In the center of each place a mound of diced peaches. Cover with an inverted peach and dress with mayonnaise.*

But few small towns can really boast of a modern garage building that houses so complete a setup as that recently completed for J. M. Boggess & Son, located on So. Main street.

This new building taking the place of one formerly razed, over a year ago has a dimension of 40x102. A large modern driveway with a 27 foot clearance and three gasoline pumps adorn the front. The south side has an entrance for cars.

The front north side of like dimension is used for rest rooms, oil and accessories, it also being under management of Mr. Tracey. Cleve Nelson is the right hand man in this department. He does not even have to figure cost of gas as calculating pumps are used which measure the exact amount of gas and at the same time shows the customer the amount charge.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS NOMINATED HARDIN

The Republican caucus Saturday failed to bring half the registered vote to the polls but there was cast a total of 495 votes with one ballot thrown out by failure to mark correctly.

Of the total cast M. S. Hardin received 256 as against 238 for Roy Riggs, who polled an exceedingly good vote for a young man asking for a political office in Homer township.

Mr. Riggs made a house to house canvass while Mr. Hardin did not.

The Democrats were permitted to vote Saturday and therefore no caucus of their party will be held.

Now that the Republicans have settled their party fight any further course to defeat the caucus winner will not be countenanced by The Enterprise, for this was the day to settle differences and no third party or independent candidate will receive encouragement from this medium but just the opposite and in no uncertain terms.
