VOLUME 57

HOMER, CHAMPAIGN COUNTY, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1935

NUMBER 31

ALL NEW THRILLS WITH HUGE CIRCUS

With 100 double length, silver-hued railroad cars, bearing 1600 people, 7 herds of elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus will arrive in Danville, Friday, August 2 for afternoon and night exhibitions.

The big top seating 16,000 persons, covers 7 rings and stages, a huge hippodrome track and encircling grandstands, and is one of 31 great tents, among them the menagerie sheltering the world's largest traveling zoo. In its center this season will be seen Col. Tim McCoy's Indian Village, with Sioux, Crow, Shawnee and Arapahoe warriors encamped. Col. McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, will himself lead his congress of rough riders of the world in the main performance and in the wild west.

The Greatest Show on Earth offers scores of foreign features new to America this year including a Saharan racing caravan of acrobatic liberty camels and Touregs; Moroccan 60 horse liberty act; the largest aerial ballet ever produced, headed by the Annetta and Nelletta troupes of revolving flyers, the Jennies and the Lydias. Fresh from Europe are the Walkmirs, the Antaleks, the Buemrangs the Romeos, the Maschinos, the Demenatis, the Willos, the Torrence-Dolores, Lauries, the Poliss, the Rooneys, aerial novelty sensations. The Loyal-Repenskis, the Rieffenachs, the Walters, famous bareback riding troupes; the two Guice aerial comedy troupes on the lofty bars; the two renowned Wallenda troupes of high wire thrillers; the Otaris, who fly in mass somersaults from an aerial cross; the Flying Concellos, with Antoinette, only girl to accomplish a 2½ mid-air somersault to a hand-to-hand catch; the Flying Comets; the great Con Colleano, only artist ever to achieve a forward somersault on the tight wire Dorothy Herbert, madcap rider of reinless jumping horses over fire hurdles and Hugo and Mario, human projectiles, who are fired at the same instant from the mouth of a giant cannon across the upper reaches of the big top—these are some of the most prominent features of the superb 1935 Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey program, to say nothing of Mary, the famed rhinoceros of the Tarzan motion picture, which is a newcomer to the rhino colony in the vast menagerie.

563 New Laws Placed on Illinois Statute Books

The Illinois statute books have been augmented by 563 new laws, the largest number added by any recent session of the state General Assembly.

Gov. Horner vetoed 47 bills and four others in part, the latter measures being appropriation bills. The total number of bills offered in the recent session was 1,835 as compared with 1,889 two years ago

Rigney Newspaper Bill Signed By Gov. Horner

House Bill 127, introduced by Representative Hugh M. Rigney, Arthur, after passing both houses of the Legislature was signed by Gov. Horner and is now a law.

The bill provides that that part of the delinquent taxes originating in any particular township shall be printed in a newspaper published in that township instead of the entire delinquent list being printed in only one paper in each county.

By this method there will be a larger distribution of the tax lists among the tax-payers at no increase in cost.

It also means a distribution of the publication of the printed tax rolls among more than 500 weekly newspapers that do not now enjoy that privilege or benefit.

BEEES MAKE THRESHING A STINGING AFFAIR AND HOW

When the threshing crew pulled into the lot of Wm. Miller south of town Tuesday they didn't know that the place was inhabited by what bee men call "friendly bees." But after threshing began, work was only at intervals, until Mr. Miller could get to town posthaste to secure the service of Palmer Davis, local bee keeper, who was rushed to the scene to capture five swarms of bees.

It is said Mr. Miller has been offering apologies to all in the ring especially to Herman Rohl, for the bees seemed delighted to welcome him in a stinging way.

The Ocheltree Sisters visited Sunday with Mrs. Eva Cass, near Catlin.

BEANS

A National Institution

WE always think of beans, especially baked beans, as a vegetable which reaches its apotheosis in New England and which would probably speak, if it had a voice, with a Yankee twang. As a matter of fact, it is a good, hearty, nourishing vegetable not only full of protein, starch and iron but with bean enough to answer your wants in several tongues. These include the Latin languages spoken in Mexico, Italy and Spain. There are not many better bean dishes, for instance, than these

Mexican Baked Beans

Fry sixteen rashers of bacon, and remove to platter to keep hot. Pour off all but about six tablespoons of the fat. Add two diced onions, and sauté them till golden brown. Add the contents of two No. 2 cans baked beans and two teaspoons chili powder. Heat thoroughly. Add salt to taste, if desired. Serve the bacon on top. Serves eight.

Or, if you prefer to eat your beans in Italian fashion, with a little spaghetti, try these

Lima Beans Italiane

Dice four slices of bacon, and fry them to extract fat. Add one chopped onion, one green pepper, cut in rings, and two cups diced celery, and sauté all gently until brown. Add the liquid from a No. 2 can lima beans, and simmer until celery and green pepper are tender. Then add two cups canned tomato pulp and the beans, and heat well. Pour in center of platter and surround with boiled spaghetti. (You will use about a quarter of a package.) Serve as a main dish with quince jelly. Serves eight.

Spanish Lima Beans

Dice two long slices bacon, chop one small onion and fry together. Add one diced canned pimiento and the drained lima beans from a No. 2 can. Season to taste with salt and pepper and pour into a buttered baking dish. Add enough bean liquor to moisten (about half a cup), and place in a hot oven until brown on top. Serves six.*

PHILIP CLORE TO EDIT ENTERPRISE

The Lovington (Ill.) Reporter carries the following article in its issue this week:

Philip Clore, who has been with the Wayne County Examiner at Fairfield, Ill., the past five years is home for a few days before going to Homer, Ill., where he will manage and edit the Homer Enterprise, which he and his father, H. H. Clore, are purchasing.

Mr. Clore began his newspaper work with the Reporter in his high school days and after graduating here he attended a school of linotype instruction conducted by the Mergenthaler Linotype Company of Chicago, since which time he has been connected with newspaper work in southern Illinois, and is thoroly qualified to make a success of his new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Clore, his parents are not announcing any definite early plans at this time but hope to locate in Homer in the very near future, and to participate actively in the newspaper work.

In this instance Homer's gain is Lovington's loss, as the Clores are highly respected and worthy people. Last Fall Mr. Clore, Sr., resigned his position with the Hardware State Bank, which he had held for years, anticipating at that time joining his son in newspaper work.

These good people will be missed from the church, school, club and lodge circles of Lovington, in which they have always taken a consistent interest.

ENTERPRISE WILL CHANGE HANDS TODAY

A deal conceived in June but held in strict confidence by parties involved comes to a climax today with the announcement of a change in ownership and editing which transpires today. BF. Morgan who has been here since 1912, is relinquishing ownership today to Philip Clore, of Lovington, Ill., a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clore, highly respected and popular citizens of Lovington. As soon as a house can be located the parents will move to Homer to assist their son in his journalistic work.

Young Mr. Clore is a very fine chap, of sterling qualities and experienced in newspaper work and the former management bespeaks success to him in Homer.

And so, meet the new editor—Philip Clore.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I am now prepared to handle any well work you are in need of. I have a modern machine for drilling tubular wells. I also repair wells of any kind. Reasonable price to all. Get in touch with me at once if in need of such work.—Guy McElwee, Tele. 88R-11, Post office box 43, Sidney, Ill. p90

HOMER TO HOLD HOMECOMING FIRST WEEK IN SEPTEMBER

Homer will have a homecoming in another month should plans not go awry. For at a meeting Wednesday night of the Business Mens association it was decided to hold such an affair the first week in September.

Kemp Catlett was appointed by the president as chairman of the finance committee and already he has launched a great campaign for funds. Mr. Catlett has appointed as assistants in various parts of the township—Ernest Kiewitt, Harve Boyd; Claude Jinks; John Warnes; Thos. Craig; Chas. Carter and Edw. Harvey, Sr.

To locate a good carnival the following were placed on a committee to act: M. L. Havard; D. W. Powell; Roy Ellis and L. V. Jurgensmeyer. They hope to secure an outfit in 10 days having placed an adv in the Bill-Board.

The regular departments will each have a chairman in charge, such as for horses, cattle, veterinary department, etc.

SONGS THAT LIVE

A little more than 100 years ago there was born near Pittsburg, Pa., Stephen Collins Foster, whose best known songs have stirred the emotions of four generations and live today in the hearts of his countrymen as do those of no other American.

Millions who have sung and heard them never knew the name of their author who was of a quiet and retiring disposition, delicate as a child and never robust.

He began writing songs at the age of 13 and by the time he was 20 his compositions had gained considerable favor. He wrote in all about 125 songs, of which the most famous have a Southern setting, altho he was born, lived and died in the North.

Among Foster's songs which had a universal appeal may be mentioned Old Black Joe; Old Folks at Home; Massa's in the Cold Cold Ground and the exquisite vocal quartet "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming." These and others have been popular on both sides of the Atlantic and the words have been translated into many tongues. Great musicians incorporated several of these melodies into elaborate concert fantasies.

Foster wrote both words and music of his songs which made an epoch in popular music. He died in New York in 1864 but his plaintive haunting melodies seem destined for immortality.

Miss Pauline Rogers is attending summer school at Indiana university, Bloomington, Ind.

PERSONAL MENTION

Because of the new traffic code becoming effective July 9, all Justices of Peace are called to Danville tomorrow where they will be informed about the new law. Justice F. O. Elliott will attend from Homer. The meeting is to be held at the Wolford hotel. Officials of a number of counties will attend.

Loren Clark and son, Arthur attended a program for Boy Scouts at Camp Drake Tuesday night. It was in honor of Champaign members of the Exchange club to which Mr. Clark affiliates.

The stocks yards reopened Monday under management of the Eastern Packer Buyers, Inc. John Garrett of Danville is local manager and Charles Hillard will do the trucking of stock.

Dollar Day comes next Thursday at Danville and as usual Homer will be largely represented.

Mrs. Emma Palmer and daughter, Miss Hulda, returned Saturday from a ten days business trip to Essex, Canada. They made the trip by motor and enroute home visited a few days at Detroit with Hugh Finnegan and family. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cotton accompanied them as far as Huntington, Indiana, and spent the ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coddington.

Wesley and Lawrence Ellis attended a performance at the Virginia, Champaign, Monday night.

Mrs. Wm. Elliott was able to return home Sunday from a Danville hospital. She is improving slowly. Miss Carrie Taylor is in charge of caring for her.

Word has been received by relatives here of the death on July 14 of R. R. Stewart, of Davenport, Wash. Mr. Stewart was a former resident of this community and before his departure with his family for the far west some 45 years ago, owned and occupied the farm where Chas. Heselden now resides. Mr. Stewart visited in Homer last year and was quite active for one of his years, having celebrated his 90th birthday in May, this year. Mr. Stewart was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Sarah Savage and Mrs. Tabitha Waugh.

Ira Ray and family will move to Danville next week.

T. R. Hill proprietor of the local electrical shop has purchased a similar business in Urbana.

Many attended the races at the I & I fair grounds Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCarty entertained at dinner Sunday John McCarty and wife; Doris McCarty and wife of Fithian; Ora McCarty and wife, Fairmount; and Hubert and Cecila Marsh, also of Fairmt.

Wednesday when Mrs. C. E. Johnson's S. S. class was picnicing at the park they had the misfortune to loose their lunch by not knowing Bob Sites' thorbred was in the backyard. The eats were easily devoured but the return trip home on empty stomachs so impress all the girls that they will not soon forget the time and place.

Mrs. J. T. Hall is on the sick list this week.

The Boys and Girls of 1878 will hold their reunion Aug. 18-20 with Illinois Cabin as headquarters. Roy and Nellie Gillespie of Champaign will prepare the eats.

Of the yields reported from recent threshing T. E. Mast heads the list. On 20 acres he had an average of 60 bushels; Frank Krugh had an average of 42 bushels an acre on a 25 acre tract and a piece of 22 acres by Albert Anderson yielded 36. For every load of bundles there was a load of oats at the Ed Darr farm. Anyone who can beat that let'er be known.

It was necessary last week to operate on Frank Wilder this being the fourth operation since being at St. Elizabeth, Danville, due to injuries sustained last fall when he was struck by a Wabash passenger train.

Brick masons began laying brick this week on the new building of the Church of Christ. The foundation is all concrete. All the windows and the door frames have also been placed in position.

WHAT AILS US?

All diseases have scientific names most of which would not be recognized by laymen. If your doctor asked you if you were troubled with anorexia, you probably would not know. But anorexia is merely the scientific term for loss of appetite.

Similarly, otalgia is earache, notalgia is backache, nostalgia is homesickness, cephalgia is headache, odontalgia is toothache, variola is smallpox, varicella is the chickenpox, pertussis is whooping cough and so on thruout the long list of ills to which human flesh is heir.

And if your physician suggests that you are cacoethic, he is merely using a scientific way of saying you have a rotten disposition. If he tells you are inclined to atony, he means you are just plain lazy. An unscientific wag once described laziness as voluntary inertia.

But whatever ails us, the doctors, like the Greeks, have a very strange name for it.

Two Ways To Milk A Cow

Mr. Merchant if your advertisement was in this space as many people would read it as are reading this' But your advertisement isn't here and people don't care a rap whether you are selling real estate, gasoline or peanuts. Did you ever sit down in a pasture with a pail between your knees and wait for a cow to be backed up and milked? Of course not. You have better sense. Well business is a lot like a cow. You've got to go out and round it up. The fellow with the pail between his knees may get some milk but the odds are in favor of the fellow who drives up the cow and feeds her. A merchant may make a living by "cussing" the government and waiting for something to happen but the merchant who makes money is the one who goes after the business thru the columns of his home paper.

Talmadge O'Daniel and brother, Butler, of Louisville, Ky., were guests at the Arthur Morgan home part of last week. The three men were schoolmates.

Vary Your

APPLE PIE, apricot pie, berry pies, chocolate pie, cherry pie, lemon pie, peach pie, pumpkin pie, rhubarb pie! Oh, isn't there a new pie particularly appropriate for the summer months which will vary from all these good old standbys? Yes, there is. Pineapple pie.

Pineapple grows in a land where it is perpetual summer and looms large in the tropical diet which is eaten there. No need to tell you that it's delicious, but what we can tell you is the way to make a fine pineapple pie. So, here goes:

With Another Tropical Fruit

Pineapple Banana Meringue Pie: Mix one-half cup sugar and one-fourth cup cornstarch, add syrup pressed from the contents of a No. 2 can crushed Hawaiian pineapple, and cook until clear and thick, stirring constantly. Add one tablespoon butter. Then add two slightly beaten egg yolks, cook again in double boiler until thick, and cool. Add the drained pineapple and two-thirds cup banana pulp, and pour into baked pie shell. Cover with meringue made by beating two egg whites and then beating in one-third cup confectioner's sugar. Bake in oven—300 degrees—until a golden brown, about fifteen minutes. Makes one large pie.*
