Divorce Granted

Judge Leonard on Friday awarded a divorce decree to Zola Lawless against Ralph Oris Lawless. She charged he deserted her June 1, 1941. They were married Sept. 3, 1938.

Custody of three children, Jeanette May, 5, Sharon Lee, 4, and Sandra, 2, was given to the plaintiff's mother, Mrs. Mae Peterson. The defendant was ordered to pay $50 monthly to the plaintiff as long as she remains unmarried and a $75-a-month allotment to Mrs. Peterson for support of the children.

Relatives here have received word that Loren (Cull) Comer, who was recently injured in a railway accident at Lafayette, Ind., is getting along nicely.

To the People of this Community

This is a home front communique on the most vital war action now in progress in every community of the land—the Fifth War Loan.

We are advancing on our objective. However, we must make certain that we reach and pass our goal by July 8. This can be done if every one of us puts something extra of ourselves into the fight.

No one needs to remind you that it is an American trait to go into a sprint with the goal in sight. We started this push June 12. Reports from every city and town in America tell us that the number of individual buyers of extra War Bonds today has reached an unprecedented total. We all know that in addition to numbers we need fire power. Your extra War Bond is absolutely essential. The greater the stockpile of War Bonds, the easier it will be for us to get this war over.

This very moment our boys are waging a life-and-death struggle. Every additional War Bond you buy will play its part in the outcome. Last month's War Bond, last week's War Bond, yesterday's War Bond are already in the embattled foxholes. Today is another day for the home front just as today is another day for the boys on the battlefronts.

Letters To The Editor

May 28, 1944.

Dear Joe: Well, here I am in Little Creek, Va. We were sent here to go aboard a minesweeper so don't know how long we are to be here yet. Maybe a week, maybe a month. It's rather doubtful as to where we will go, too.

This is a school to train men for sweepers. We haven't had schooling yet as we haven't been assigned to our sweeper. As soon as we are assigned we go through a three week course then shove out to sea. It will be very exciting as it will be my first journey on a ship. Really am looking forward to it, too.

Well, Joe, I can't think of much to say so guess I'll close for now. Give everyone a hello for me.

John Crain.

Warns Against Killing Birds; Is $500 Fine

Springfield, May 31—Livingston E. Osborne, director of conservation, today reminded Illinois youth that shooting robins, bluebirds, catbirds, woodpeckers and other song and insectivorous birds with BB guns, air rifles, slingshots or other weapons, is a federal offense bringing maximum sentences of $500 fines and six months in jail, or both.

With summer vacations underway, youngsters are apt to take out the old BB gun, air rifle or slingshot to do a little pot shooting at song birds in the neighbor's gardens or nearby woods and parents are asked to warn their children about the federal law.

"Aside from the fact that song birds make a garden or farm more attractive, the birds are economically valuable because many of them eat insects that otherwise would be injurious to plants and crops."

Allerton Lad Burned By Scalding Water

Allerton—Michael, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cooper, had the misfortune to stumble and fall, catching the pail of hot water where his mother was scalding a chicken. He has second degree burns on all four fingers. He has been under a doctor's care since it happened, on Saturday.

PAUL IN EPHEBUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:8-10; Ephesians 2:4-10; 3:14-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them.—Ephesians 2:10.

Not peace—but a sword! With such graphic words Jesus indicated that His coming into the world would set men apart, either for or against Him (see Matt. 10:34-42). The gospel is the good news of redemption for all mankind, but the attitude of men toward the gospel divides them sharply, into the saved and the lost. Which are you?

Our lesson, telling of Paul's ministry at Ephesus and giving part of his letter to the Ephesians, shows that the gospel does divide, but that it also gives quickening grace and strength for Christian living.

I. Dividing (Acts 19:8-10).

Paul had a long ministry at Ephesus and a very successful one, but at the same time it was a stormy, trying experience. After all, do not those elements often go together? Paul began in the synagogue. That was the proper way, and his custom. He ran into opposition, and after three months he had to seek another place to meet the people. But notice, he did not give up and leave town.

The teaching of any truth results in division, and especially is that true of the gospel. It was found before long (vv. 23-41) that winning people to Christ interfered with the heathen business interests, and then things began to stir.

One wonders why modern business set for the destruction of men's souls by rotten plays, movies, books, amusements, and by the saloon is so content to let the church alone. Is it because our testimony does not harm their business? If so, we are certainly not walking in the footsteps of Paul or of Christ.

Christ is a divider of men. Yes, but those who stand on the right side of that divide also receive.

II. Quickening (Eph. 2:4-10).

Dead men, spiritually, come to life when they meet Christ and believe on Him. We were all dead in trespasses and sins, entirely unable to help ourselves, when God in mercy and grace quickened us.

He did this for us, but also for His own glory. That really is the most adequate explanation of grace. It was and is for His glory, a showing forth (v. 7) of the exceeding riches of His grace, through all the ages to come.

Being saved, then, is not (as some describe it) a foolish thing of little import, that takes place in some mission or little crossroads Sunday school. It does happen there, thank God for that, but it reaches clear up to the highest heavens, and on into all eternity. This business of bringing men and women, boys and girls to Christ is the greatest of all occupations. Let's be busy about it!

Be sure to note in verses 8-10 that it is all of grace. No works can enter into salvation. We are "his workmanship," not the result of a cooperative enterprise or creation.

But at the same time do not fail to stress that we are created "unto good works" (v. 10). The professed Christian who talks about being saved by grace, but who does not live it out in the good works which God has ordained as the proper expression of salvation by grace, should not be surprised if the testimony of his lips is not believed.

If we are quickened to newness of life in Christ, we ought to bring forth fruit. That is not possible in our own puny strength. But wait, the gospel which divides and quickens is also—

III. Strengthening (Eph. 3:14-19).

Paul prayed for the Ephesians, but somehow one feels that he prayed for the Christians of all time, for every member of "the whole family in heaven and earth" (v. 15) who bear the name of Christ. The writer is rejoicing today that he belongs to that family, but he wonders how it is with you who read these lines. Do you belong?

Paul prayed in the Spirit, that is evident as one reads these sublime words. It is a comforting and encouraging thought, too, for Paul here asks for a Christian experience for his readers, which seems quite impossible of attainment, except for one thing. It is the power of God which is to bring it about. Prayer in the Spirit is prayer that God answers, always and fully.

So we read with confidence these magnificent, enriching petitions, and we say: "O God, make me that kind of a Christian, a real Christian."

Observe that there is to be a strengthening of the inward man by the Holy Spirit. This is not something "put on" or acquired. It is God's gift.

Note also that it has a normal development, a growth in the knowledge of Christ because of an ability to "comprehend" (v. 18). Is not that our great need? We are unspeakably rich in Christ, but we do not seem to know enough to take out our inheritance.

No. 1 War Mother

On Mother's day, at a ceremony in Indianapolis sponsored by the American War Mothers, Mrs. Esther McCabe of Lilly, Pa., who has 10 sons in the armed forces, was honored by being presented a certificate as the American mother having the largest number of sons in service, and designated as the nation's No. 1 war mother.

That one woman has reared 10 sons physically and otherwise qualified for active military service—and that all of them are so serving—is perhaps without precedent in our history.

Three other proud mothers were given special recognition on Mother's day in Chicago, where they participated in a "Mothers For Victory" broadcast over the Blue Network. They were:

Mrs. Patsy Gentile of Piqua, Ohio, whose son, Captain Don Gentile has destroyed 30 German planes.

Mrs. L. B. Johnson of Lawton, Okla., mother of Captain Robert A. Johnson, who shot down his 27th Nazi plane recently.

Mrs. Dora Bong of Poplar, Wis., whose son, Major Richard I. Bong, has bagged 27 Japanese planes, and who also was present to take part in the broadcast.

The names of several mothers who have had five or more sons in the service have been published from time to time, among whom we recall Mrs. Alice Hatcher of South Carolina with six, Mrs. A. W. Davenport of Alabama with five, and the mother of the five Sullivan brothers who were lost when the cruiser on which all were serving was sunk in the Pacific.

Probably no other mother has lost, or will lose, as many sons in this war as has Mrs. Sullivan.

Axis Prisoners In U. S.

In a statement issued recently by the War Department it was disclosed that the United States now holds 183,618 prisoners of war from the Axis countries—133,135 Germans, 50,136 Italians, and 347 Japanese. These prisoners are segregated by nationalities, and in addition those who adopt a defiant or non-cooperative attitude are further separated from those who are not disposed to be troublesome.

Up to last Wednesday only 285 war prisoners had escaped, and all but five of these had been recaptured. Those not apprehended have escaped very recently.

Prisoners are held in 203 camps one or more being located in all but seven states. Many of the prisoners are employed, under the terms of the Geneva Convention, and between June, 1943, and March of this year they had performed a total of more than 19 million man-days of useful work, relieving the manpower shortage to that extent, without being put into competition with American labor. Their work has been chiefly in agriculture and to a less extent in lumbering.

Army authorities believe that the distribution of war prisoners throughout the country under proper safeguards is an important means of political re-education, whereby the observations made by them as they work in American communities tends to give them a better appreciation of democratic institutions.

Generally speaking, Italian prisoners give less trouble than others, and the Army has just announced the establishment of volunteer non-combat units "in furtherance of Italy's co-belligerent efforts" for the liberation of their country. Italian soldiers showed little zeal in fighting for Mussolini, and many of them seemed quite willing to surrender when given the opportunity.

Some Leading Aces

Another American aviator, Captain Robert S. Johnson of Lawton, Okla., topped Eddie Rickenbacker's World War I record of 26 German planes shot down, by getting his 26th and 27th Nazi fighters in the great air battle over Germany, May 15.

Captain Johnson's latest victory gives him a tie with Major Richard I. Bong of Poplar, Wis., who has shot down 27 Japanese planes in the Pacific, their records being the highest among American aviators for enemy planes destroyed in the air. Captain Don Gentile of Piqua, Ohio, is credited with destroying 30 German planes, but seven of these were knocked out on the ground.

Major Gregory Boyington of Okanogan, Wash., recently reported missing in action, and Major Joe Foss of Sioux Falls, S. D., each have shot down 26 Japanese planes, equalling Rickenbacker's record.

The highest score by any member of the British Royal Air Force is 32, attained by two fighter pilots, Group Captain A. C. Malan and the late Flight Lieutenant Brendan Finnane. Flight Lieutenant George Beurling, a Canadian, has 31 to his credit. One other RAF pilot had 29 before he became a prisoner of war, while two more have 28 air victories each.

All these make total of 316 enemy planes destroyed by 11 American and British aviators, truly a remarkable record.

Sidelights

News reaching us through underground sources tells of a recent German court martial where a man named Mueller was charged with calling Hitler an idiot. The judge charged: "By calling our Fuehrer an idiot you are guilty of three crimes. You have indulged in enemy propaganda; you have libeled the head of the Reich; and most important, you have betrayed a military secret."

A certain Major in Uncle Sam's army was recently challenged by a sentry as he returned to camp and when questioned, "Who's there?" he promptly answered, "Major So and So." The sentry then asked the major for the password, which the major had forgotten. The sentry said he could not pass without giving it and the major fumed. Whereupon the major heard a voice from the guard house saying: "Don't stand there arguing all night; shoot him."

Although the matter hasn't been taken up with the ODT or any transportation facility, the system now being used in Tokyo, where trains, buses and other means of transportation are badly overcrowded, might be used here. Railways are mostly reserved for troops but some civilian traffic is allowed. In these crowded trains a seat changing signal is given at regular intervals and people who have been sitting stand up to let those who have been standing take their seats.

The real war heroes are modest chaps, the braggart is usually a phoney. This is true in all wars. But possibly the height in modesty was reached by the corporal son of Mrs. James Lawson, of Needham, Mass., who from his base in England, wrote his mother a brief letter: "No news today, mother," and signed his name. Then at the bottom of the page he added a short postscript: "Yesterday I received the Silver Star, also the Oak Leaf Cluster for gallantry in action."

Do You Know Illinois?

By Edward J. Hughes
Secretary of State

Q. In what year was Ninian Edwards elected governor of Illinois?

A. 1826.

Q. What important diplomatic post was tendered Edwards in 1825?

A. Minister to Mexico. He resigned as U. S. Senator to accept the position.

Q. Did Edwards serve as the Minister to Mexico?

A. No. On his way home from Washington to prepare for taking office the Secretary of the Treasury, William H. Crawford, made a statement accusing Edwards of having failed to report on the insolvency of the Edwardsville Bank which had defaulted in the amount of $40,000 to the U. S. Edwards claimed that he had reported. An investigation was demanded and Edwards ordered back to Washington. He failed to return in time and although acquitted of blame, public opinion advised his resignation of the diplomatic post.

Q. Who were his opponents in the race for governor and what was the vote?

A. Thomas C. Sloo, Jr., 5,834; Adolphus Frederick Hubbard 580 and Edwards received 6,280 votes.

Q. When and where did Gov. Edwards die?

A. July 20, 1833 in Belleville.

Q. What announcement did John Reynolds print in the Illinois Herald of Kaskaskia when he began law practice?

A. "To the poor people of Illinois and Missouri Territory: to the above class of mankind whose pecuniary circumstances will not admit of feeing a lawyer, I tender my professional services as a lawyer in all courts I may practice in, without fee or reward."

Q. When was Reynolds elected governor of Illinois?

A. 1830.

Q. What is the oldest town in Illinois?

A. Cahokia.

Q. How long has it been occupied?

A. In 1679 Father Pinet established a mission on the site of Cahokia and a continuous occupancy by priests, traders, and voyagers can be traced from this time.

Q. When did Cahokia serve as a county seat?

A. It was county seat of St. Clair from 1795 to 1814.

Two-handed dusting saves time and motion for the busy home-maker. Two dust cloths or mits are used instead of one.

Ironing of boys' suits is easier if the suits are folded and creased as they come from the last rinse the way they will be pressed.

If odds and ends of pieces seldom used in the kitchen are packed up or even given away there will be a surprising amount of extra space in cabinets for things used daily.

At the end of pleats, darts and tucks, the threads are easily fastened when each is threaded into a needle and carried back along the stitching for half an inch.

Rust and fruit stains will disappear if the stained blades of kitchen knives are rubbed with a stopper that has been dipped in water first and then fine scouring powder.

A place for children to put their toys and playthings saves time and work for the mother, gives children invaluable training, and eliminates home accidents.

They Were in the Attack—Are You Backing Them Up With War Bonds?

John B. Ohe, 26, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a Motor Machinist 2nd Cl., was wounded during the invasion of Sicily. He was in seven hospitals in Africa before being returned to the hospital at St. Albans. A brother, his mother and himself buy War Bonds regularly. Both are buying War Bonds.

Walter Feirtag, 20, of New York, was also wounded during the invasion of Sicily. He was in seven hospitals in Africa before being returned to the hospital at St. Albans. A brother, his mother and himself buy War Bonds regularly. Do you?

A strafing German pilot wounded Lt. (jg) Hinton E. Kinney, 31, of Carrolton, Ga., during the Sicilian invasion, one bullet going through his right knee. He has just bought a $1,000 War Bond. Are you buying your share of War Bonds?

Voight W. Baker, 30, of Detroit, Mich., is a Seabee. The ship he was on was torpedoed. His wife, brother and dad all work in the same defense plant in Detroit and buy War Bonds regularly. Baker owns $1,600 worth. Are you buying your share of War Bonds?

Fire Controlman 3rd Class William C. Wenzel, 18, of Massillon, Ohio, a member of a destroyer's crew, was wounded at Bizerte in the Tunisian campaign. He received shrapnel wounds in both legs. The War Bonds you buy assure him the best hospital care.

4-H Club Goes All Out in War Bond Effort

The Four-H Clubs of America, 1,700,000 strong, are making a vital contribution to the war program helping in the gigantic problem of keeping the food supply line strong and in buying War Bonds. Here are some scenes of 4-H boys and girls at their war work. No. 1 shows Glenn Whittenberg, of Hidalgo County, Texas, with his fine litter which will help the food supply. Glenn is putting his profits in War Bonds. No. 2 shows an ambulance purchased by the 37,000 members of the 4-H Club members of Virginia. Representing the Virginia Clubs in the picture is Carolyn Steele, Fairview, and Richard Fleming, of Branesville. Major Baruard Sobol, USA, is accepting the ambulance, with Director M. L. Wilson of the Extension Service Department of Agriculture, looking on. No. 3 shows Billy Fleming of Fairfax County, Virginia, helping Dad with the chores. Billy is putting his earnings into War Bonds. 4-H Club members own 90,000 head of dairy cattle. No. 4—4-H Clubs make a mighty contribution to the poultry and egg supply, raising 9 million chickens in 1943. Here is Helen Wheeling, Brown County, South Dakota, with a couple of her birds. She also buys War Bonds with her profits. No. 5—4-H Clubbers are also Victory Gardeners. Here is Jane Budder of Frederick County, Maryland, in her garden. These farm youngsters raised 5 million bushels of garden produce last year. Back the Attack—Buy More Than Before.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I can't think of anything else you'll need for your Victory garden, Judge... you've got pretty nearly everything."
"I think so, too, John. Ever get your asparagus patch going?"
"I gave that up last year, Judge. Tried it six years in a row with no luck. Just haven't got the right soil, I guess?"
"Well, I think you're wise, John... no use keeping on trying things you know won't work. Just like prohibition. State-wide prohibition has been tried in this country seventy-two times in the last ninety years. It has been adopted forty-seven times in the past thirty-three years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Same thing was tried in eight provinces in Canada and in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia but it was an admitted failure and universally abandoned."
"The reason is prohibition does not prohibit. All you get is bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor, plus no end of crime and corruption."

Mint Family
Perilla belongs to a group of the mint family of Asiatic origin. It is sometimes used as an ornamental plant because of the bright-colored foliage. The seed yields an oil with the quality of drying rapidly and is, therefore, utilized in the paint and linoleum industries where it is blended with other oils in the manufacture of various varnishes, enamels, linoleums, and allied products. In Japan it was used in the manufacture of paper umbrellas, oil paper, and artificial leather. Imports of perilla oil into the United States in 1935, amounted to approximately 75,000,000 pounds, valued at 16 1/2 cents a pound. In Manchuria, perilla oil, or Su-Tzu as it is known, is used as a fuel for lamps; a vehicle for pigments especially on metal objects where its rapid drying qualities are needed; in some cases as a food; and as a fence row to protect edible forage crops from animals. Apparently the strong pungent odor of perilla was sufficient to act as a barrier against grazing livestock.

Future Farmers Put Food Profits in Bonds

Throughout the nation the FFA boys are making a substantial contribution to the war effort through the production of the all-important food supply and purchase of War Bonds with their profits. Shown here are some instances. No. 1 shows Robert Hill of the Welcome Chapter FFA, North Carolina, with three of his eight registered dairy calves. North Carolina FFA boys owned 9,299 dairy cows and invested profits in War Bonds totalling $308,650. No. 2 shows two Wilson County, Tennessee, boys of the Green Gale Chapter at Lebanon repairing farm equipment. At an auction of this farm equipment a total of $85,000 went into War Bonds. No. 3—Edward Jones of Pittsboro Chapter FFA, North Carolina, and some of his 455 high-producing victory hens. Edward made a net profit of $548.12 from his flock last year and is putting his profits in War Bonds. No. 4 shows Colin English, president Palmetto Chapter of Public Instruction, Herbert Shuman, president Palmetto Chapter FFA, and Harrison E. Barringer, State Senator, all of Florida, at the high light of an annual Father-and-Son banquet. The Florida Future Farmers bought a $1,000 War Bond with the funds from their farm produce grown on their own class project. Back the Attack—Buy More Than Before.
