Mrs. Bowman to Teach at Fairland Next Year

The closing of the grade school at Fairland for the school year was recently celebrated with a basket dinner, with about 100 patrons and pupils in attendance. During the next school year patrons of the Smith school will send their pupils to the Fairland school, thus giving Fairland a total enrollment of 21 pupils.

Mrs. Lillie Bowman, Broadlands, taught the school through the month of April, completing the term for Mrs. Ruth James Hunter, who resigned. And did the pupils and patrons of the school like Mrs. Bowman's work! They surely did for the directors have contracted with her to teach the school the ensuing term at a salary of $225 per month.

School Election This Saturday

The Community Consolidated School District Election will be held this Saturday, May 18, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 7 o'clock p. m.

The best is none too good for the children of the Broadlands school area. Vote to give it to them by voting for consolidation. Vote "FOR."

The best way for the people of the Village of Broadlands to prove to the people of the rural school districts that we really want them to join us, is to vote 100% for consolidation. So, let's do it!

Voting at Precinct 1 at Mound Snip school house will be citizens of Mound Snip district 202, Alexander 200, Larned 203, and Broadlands district 201, outside of the corporate limits of the village.

Official Sample Ballot Special Election

Miss Ruth Wienke Is Bride of John Cheney

(Sidell Journal)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wienke of Cayuga, Ind., announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to John Cheney, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cheney of Sidell. The wedding vows were read April 19 at the Methodist parsonage in Covington, Indiana. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dillon of Sidell.

The bride was attired in a blue wool dress and wore a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Dillon wore brown and her corsage also was of gardenias.

Mrs. Cheney graduated from the St. Elizabeth hospital school of nursing with the class of 1944. She served 15 months in the Pacific with the Army Nurses Corps. Mr. Cheney attended Sidell high school and is now engaged in farming near Sidell. For the present, they will reside with the groom's parents.

Mrs. Maude Anderson Hostess to W.C.T.U.

Mrs. Maude Anderson was hostess to the local unit of the W. C. T. U., Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruth Henson, the president, presided over the meeting which was opened by members singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee," after which the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given.

Mrs. Nelle Potter led the unit in song, with Mrs. Faustine Smith accompanying. A very interesting devotional period was presented by Mrs. Anna Laverick.

The special topic for this month was "Mothers' Responsibility In The Home." Mrs. Ruth Henson gave some very interesting points on this article.

Ten members were present and gave names of famous mothers in response to roll call. The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Anna Seeds will be hostess to the next meeting.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDAQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for May 19

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

A FRIEND WHO LEARNED TO BELIEVE

LESSON TEXT—John 11: 7, 8, 10; 20: 24-29.
MEMORY SELECTION — Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.—John 20:29.

Doubt and faith—both seem to come to the hearts and minds of men. Yet they are directly contradictory to one another and cannot exist together. To believe is to drive out doubt, and when doubt comes in, faith loses its grip.

Thomas, and his experience following the resurrection of our Lord, presents a lesson on what a man can do to meet honest doubt and how such a man can come out into the sunshine of faith.

We find in Thomas, first, an expression of

I. Fearless Loyalty (John 11:7, 8, 16).

Unafraid of the threats of men, Jesus was about to go once more into Judea. On his last two visits there, the Jews had sought to kill him, namely, at the feast of tabernacles (John 8:59) and at the feast of dedication (John 10:31).

He was not one to draw back for the fear of men when the Father's will led him forward in his service to humanity. Lazarus was dead, and Mary and Martha needed him and he was going to them.

Then came a fine expression of the loyalty of Thomas. If his Lord was going to face death, he was willing to go along and die with him. Let us recognize that there was a man of real courage, willing to show his loyalty even by giving his life.

There is something fine about that attitude, and something which shows us that when this man later expressed doubt, it was not the silly and shallow unbelief of a trifler. This man loved the Lord and served him, and yet he failed him.

When we think we are strong, we had better watch out lest we fail. Let us be clear and triumphant in our declaration of loyalty to Christ, both by word and by life. And then let us set a double guard against the enemy of our souls.

Thomas next appears in

II. Faithless Failure (John 16:24, 25).

He had been willing to die for his Lord, or with him, but now the Lord had been taken by wicked hands and crucified. He and the disciples were alone to face a hostile world; at least so it seemed to them.

The awful day of crucifixion preyed heavily upon the mind of Thomas. That is evident from verse 25. He had been thinking of those awful bleeding wounds, and had forgotten about the promises of resurrection.

Jesus died, and that is a precious truth; but one must not stop there, for a dead Saviour is no Saviour at all. Thomas got sidetracked in his thinking. Let us not make the same mistake.

Another reason for his failure was that he did not go to the meeting of his brethren. Perhaps he did not feel like going, and did not think it was any use to go. Ah, but that's just the time one needs the fellowship of other believers. Go, and you will meet the Lord!

The Lord was there and Thomas missed him. We, too, will miss the Lord and his blessing if we stay away from his house and the meeting of his people.

Having gone thus far in discouraged unbelief, it was easy for Thomas to take the next step and demand physical proof of the resurrection. His despondency had now reached the place of making unreasonable demands and of discrediting the witness of others.

We are glad that we can close our study on the note of renewed faith and of

III. Full Confession (John 16:26-29).

Note that the Lord was ready fully to meet the demands of Thomas, even though they were on the unreasonable side. That was undoubtedly because he knew the essential fineness and truthness of Thomas.

His doubts were unfortunate and entirely unnecessary, but they were genuine. No real doubter will ever remain one long, for if he brings a genuine doubt to the Lord, he will find it fully met. It is the triflers, those who use their doubts to hide their sins, and those who are unwilling to bring their dark thoughts into the light of the presence of Jesus, who go on doubting year after year.

Notice the comment of Jesus following the glad and complete confession of faith by Thomas. It is a good thing to believe because one has seen and been convinced. That is proper and blessed.

But the real fullness of blessing comes to the one who can rise to faith in Christ because of his word, quite apart from the visible or tangible evidence. This is real Christian faith which declares Christ to be our Lord and our God, the one whom having not seen, we love (1 Pet. 1:8).

The U. S. Is Now Weak

In less than eight months the United States has demobilized its Army and Navy so rapidly that they are no longer effective as fighting forces. The people have wanted it that way, and the administration and Congress bowed to the popular will.

Right now, whether the people realize it or not, we are too weak to have much influence in world affairs, in spite of our bluff about protecting the United Nations Charter and seeing justice done to countries devastated by the war.

In our efforts to obtain fair settlements of the innumerable problems growing out of the war, we have gotten precisely nowhere. In fact, Russia is constantly raising new questions and making new demands, the end of which is not in sight.

Stalin and Molotov show no disposition to even carry out the pledges formerly made, because they know that neither we nor the British will do anything about it except talk.

They know we are not only weak, but also tired of our policing job in Germany, Italy and Japan. They know this because we will not even give our occupation forces the trained men they will soon need for their present tasks. And they know we have plenty of trouble at home.

What could we do to Russia, Stalin might ask, when we are too weak to put John L. Lewis in his place.

Dollar Haircuts

Another evidence of inflation is seen in reports from several cities that barbers are hiking the prices of haircuts and shaves. In Milwaukee some tonsorial artists are charging a dollar for haircuts, and in Philadelphia the price is 80 cents for haircuts and 40 cents for shaves.

This in itself is no great cause for alarm, as the amounts paid to barbers are relatively small items in the cost of living. But if prices get too high it may serve to increase the army of male citizens who remove their stubble with the trusty safety razor, thus reducing the number of barber shop customers.

As for haircuts, the Boston Globe suggests that the dollar rate may encourage a return to the old New England custom of placing a mixing bowl over the head and trimming around its edges with the family shears.

But the barbers have a comeback, as expressed by William Cuttles of Palm Beach, Fla., who declares that lately so many men are demanding fancy haircuts that there is no alternative to boosting prices. He says: "It is getting downright shameful—the finicky, prissy way many men are acting these days when they get into a barber's chair. They supervise every snip of the scissors, caution the barber continually about not disturbing a wave or altering the contour which they imagine sets off their manly features. When the operation is completed they spend minutes viewing the resulting nightmare from every angle."

Which suggests that a distinction might be made in the price of a fancy trim and that of just a plain haircut.

Radicalism

Undoubtedly Karl Marx, father of Communism, had a noble purpose. He aimed to relieve the world's oppressed people, to correct injustices and get rid of poverty. That would be fine. There is absolutely nothing wrong with a platform that flatly favors what's right and opposes what's wrong. The next step is getting everybody to agree on what's right and what's wrong.

Followers of the profound Marx didn't all see eye-to-eye with him after he left first-base. He was obliged to "run out" on the First Internationale and disband it because it was being used by a gang of ruffians, more bent on wrecking what was in sight than on building a new social order according to a noble plan. The leader and his followers were not of the same calibre.

They Misunderstood

Setting out to make a big reform that required changing the motives of a large number of people, Marx recruited many followers without changing their motives. It was ironic. There is a story of a good mayor who campaigned so vigorously to get better railroad service for his city that his political followers went radical, derailed the fast train and robbed the mail car.

The story is probably fictitious but it illustrates aptly how selfish intentions can be mustered under the banner of holy and lofty aims. Already this year, news wires have carried a story about leaders in the Communist movement addressing large audiences of working men and "whooping it up" for strikes, more strikes and bigger strikes; that is, for panic.

A Political Disease

It is not that Labor, considered broadly, is destructive in character or shot through with Communistic ideas. It's not true. It is true however that working people are numerous and therefore a powerful segment of American society. People who want to overthrow the only system on earth that gives a working man a chance are very wise to ask the workers' help. It can't be done without them.

Communism has failed exactly as often as it has been tried, and Karl Marx has been dead more than sixty years. This doctrine of "tear down in haste and rebuild at leisure" has been tried on American soil. Time after time, each experiment at having everything in common, comes down of its own poison and dies or relapses into a dictatorship. Communism is a political disease.

A Social Epidemic

Russia is called a Communistic nation but it is far from it. The government set out in that direction once, broke down property lines, degraded the family to bawdy level, overthrew the church, rejected God and bogged down in abject poverty. Now it is being run by a minority party, made up of some 3% of the citizens, and nobody else can even vote. A sorry situation they have.

Under a dictatorship Russia is doing a little better than it did under Communism but still is nothing to brag about. Russian wages are not more than a third as high as those in America. If the average Russian farmer should visit the average American farmer he would think he was in a king's palace. There is a cure for this plague and next week I'll write about that.

Elmer P. Hoggatt's Condition Improving

The condition of Elmer P. Hoggatt, 801 West Ohio street, Urbana, who underwent an abdominal operation recently in Carle hospital, was serious, Friday, according to his physicians, but he is now reported to be improving. Hoggatt, the secretary of the Urbana Home Loan association, has been receiving blood transfusions and intravenous feeding since the first of last week.

Our dealers join us in making this frank report to

THE FARMERS OF AMERICA

INTERNATIONAL Harvester is getting back into production with all possible speed. Extra shifts are being employed wherever conditions permit, to try to overcome the production losses of the recent strike. Everything is being done to get parts and machines to you.

While we and our dealers would like to tell you that this means an immediate end to the shortage of service parts and machines, it is more accurate to say that it means the beginning of the end of it. If illness or bad weather delays you seriously in the Spring, you know how much it throws you off your schedule. The strike has thrown our schedules off balance, too. There are many "chores" we must do before new machines reach you.

Material shortages

The preliminary chores of getting our plants back into shape for full production are finished. But disturbances in other industries and resulting material shortages may affect our plans. Light gauge steel sheets, brass and copper, fractional horse power motors, and many other items are all very short. The coal situation may also prove serious—we hope not.

Refilling the well

Both our dealers and our branches have run dry on parts and new machines. So the biggest chore is to get their working stocks back to normal. It will take time to fill the pipeline to dealers—just as it takes time for you to refill a well or cistern after it has run dry.

Stock and display rooms of our dealers represent not one, but ten thousand reservoirs which must be refilled. The most heroic production efforts will mean that your local dealer can expect only a small number of parts and machines at a time. Since we must play fair with all our customers, there will be a sprinkle of parts and machines all over the country—not a downpour in any one section.

You will be glad to know that all repair parts production schedules are far beyond normal.

No hoarding

You may be sure that every machine will be shipped to dealers as soon as completed. We do not and will not hold machines off the market.

At the start of the strike we had on hand at all our factories and branches just 837 tractors of all kinds—less than two days' production—and 405 of these were not completed. Many of those on hand had one or more important parts missing—principally radiator cores. Most of the rest represented the normal daily "float" between the end of the assembly line and the shipping platform. Naturally no tractors were made during the strike.

What dealers may have for you

We can report to you that our current production on TRACTORS is good and we are shipping at a normal rate. Even so, there will not be enough to go around. The situation on PLOWS and DISK HARROWS is reasonably good. On COMBINES, MOWERS, HAY RAKES, ONE-MAN HAY BALERS, CORN PICKERS and many other items, our schedules have been seriously disrupted. We must in fairness say that many of our customers are likely to be disappointed on delivery of these machines. On MILKING MACHINES, STATIONARY ENGINES, and some other small units we are hopeful of making practically normal delivery.

We know you will understand the reasons why your dealer cannot fill your orders overnight. He would like to give you the kind of delivery on machines you would like to get, but his situation is a difficult one and not of his own making. He is doing the best he can.

No cutting corners on quality

There is one thing you can be absolutely certain about: We will NOT cut corners on quality in order to increase production in this emergency. For years we have said: "QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS." Today we say it—and mean it—as much as ever.

We know you need new machines—and need them badly. But we believe it will pay you to wait just a little while longer if you cannot get all you want immediately. By waiting you can be sure your new equipment will have the quality so rightly associated with INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER for so many years.
