From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Going Fishing? Here's How!
 To hear Willie Wells and Basil Strube arguing about trout fishing, you'd think it was more important than the atom bomb.
 Willie favors dry flies, Basil pooh-poos anything but wet flies. Willie swears by a Royal Coachman; Basil won't hear of anything but a Silver Doctor. And by the time it comes to steel rods versus bamboo rods... #IX&!?!
 But on Saturday, each got back from Seward's creek with a catch that couldn't have differed by more than several ounces!
 Each had used his favorite kind of fly, his favorite rod and his favorite place to cast. So over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right... which is how so many arguments should end.
 From where I sit, if we all respected one another's different opinions—whether about trout flies, or drinking beer, or voting, life would be a whole lot pleasanter.

Smile Awhile

Cute Katie says night clubs these days remind her of the Gay Nineties—the women are gay and the men are ninety.
 Doc, why did you choose to be a skin specialist?
 Because my patients never get me out of bed at night, they never die and they never get well.
 Mr. Smith—My wife came from a very large family. Did yours?
 Mr. Brown—No, she brought it with her.
 Mummy, said little Brian, Tommy doesn't know how to swim—because his mummy wont let him go near the water.
 Well, Tommy is a very good little boy.
 Yes, answered Brian thoughtfully; and he'll go to Heaven the first time he falls in.
 The teacher had been giving her class a lesson on the great inventions of the century and was now anxious to test how much her pupils had learned.
 Now, children, she began, can you tell me the name of one important thing unknown a century ago?
 A small boy rose at the back of the class. Me, teacher, he replied.
 A Chinese gentleman was trying to catch a train and a porter was trying to locate his baggage. The Chinaman got very upset. Finally, as the train was about to depart, he hammered on the counter and exploded in these words:
 Pretty damn seldom where my bag go. She no fly. You no more fit run station than God's sake. That's'all I hope.

Household Hints

Bluing spots on white clothing can be removed by boiling in clear water.
 To protect mirrors keep them out of the sun—it will cause spots and other blemishes.
 Discolored piano keys can be brightened by rubbing with a soft cloth dampened with alcohol.
 For the sake of shape and fabric, iron bias-cut garments with the grain of the material.
 To keep fat from splattering when meat is fried, sprinkle a little salt in the pan before putting in the fat.
 Tablecloths that are no longer in use make good cot covers or bedspreads if dyed to match the color scheme of the room.
 When a bee or wasp stings

you, remove the stinger gently and encourage bleeding so as to wash out the venom.

Salt in small quantities is absolutely essential to human beings. Some salt is obtained naturally from common foods, such as meat.

Woolen cloth should never be soaked. Wash by hand, squeeze suds through the fabric. Rubbing shrinks and hardens the wool.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

State of Illinois, Champaign County, ss.
 In the Circuit Court of said County. William C. Kraecht, et al, Plaintiffs, vs. Margaretha Kracht, (also known as Maggie Kracht), et al, Defendants, Chancery No. 3679.
 Public notice is hereby given that by virtue of a decree entered in the above entitled cause on the 28th day of June, A.D. 1946, I, the undersigned Master in Chancery of the said Circuit Court of Champaign County, Illinois, and as Trustee appointed by said court to make sale of the real estate hereinafter described, pursuant to the terms of the last will and testament of Carl Kracht, deceased, will sell at public vendue to the highest and best bidder, beginning at the hour of ten o'clock A.M., Central Standard Time, on the 9th day of October, A.D. 1946, at the North door of the Court House in the City of Urbana, County of Champaign and State of Illinois, the following described real estate, viz:
 TRACT 1: Lots One (1) and Two (2) in Block One (1) in William Astell, Jr.'s Addition to the Town of Broadlands, Illinois;
 TRACT 2: The Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-four (24), Township Seventeen (17) North, Range Ten (10) East of the Third Principal Meridian in Champaign County, Illinois, together with the landlord's share of the crops growing on said Tract 2 on the day of said sale.
 Said Tract 2 will be sold subject to the rights of Walter Nonman as tenant from year to year of said real estate, which said tenancy expires on March 1, 1947.
 All of the above described real estate will be sold subject to the general taxes upon the same for the year, 1946, payable in 1947.
 Purchasers will be furnished an abstract of title to said respective tracts of real estate brought down to and including the Master's Report of said sales;
 TERMS OF SALE: Twenty per cent (20%) of the purchase price, cash in hand on the day of said sale, and the balance of said purchase price within 30 days from the day of said sale.
 Dated this 5th day of September, A.D. 1946.
 DONALD M. RENO, Master in Chancery, and as Such Trustee.

SET YOUR SIGHTS
 It takes planning to achieve a goal
 Some young men know what they want and plan for it. Others are still looking for their niche. The new Regular Army can help both.
 Perhaps you want to go to college but can't afford it. If you enlist in the Army, you'll get your chance. Honorably discharged after a three-year enlistment, you are eligible for 48 months of education at any college, trade, or business school for which you can qualify. The Government will pay your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year, plus $65 a month living allowance—$90 a month if you have dependents.
 If you haven't found your spot, an Army enlistment offers you training in any of 200 trades and skills. You leave the service eligible for further training at the best civilian schools.
 You can assure yourself of the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights if you enter the Army on or before October 5, 1946. See your nearest Army Recruiting Station for details.

HIGHLIGHTS OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT
 1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
 2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
 3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
 4. A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
 5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.
 6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
 7. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.
