Do You Have A Church?

1. Through neglect, the church schools of America (Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Jewish) have reached only one person in five.

2. Thus, four fifths of the people are without adequate religious teaching.

3. America's greatness rests upon the greatness of its religion.

4. Take your children to church school every Sunday.

The churches in Broadlands are working together this month to urge that all the children of our community have a church. They have a home and a school, but there is also a vital need for a church. We often hear much criticism of our youth but the real blame lies with the parents who neglect the spiritual teaching of their children. Not only should all children be in church and church school but their parents should be there with them.

Religious Census Cards are being used in the public school and posters have been put up to draw the attention of all to this important movement that is going on not only here but in many communities around us. BE IN CHURCH SCHOOL SUNDAY.

M. F. Parks Seen as Next County Board Chairman

Forthcoming elections will not affect the membership of the Champaign county board of supervisors, none of whose terms expire this year.

However, a change in the chairmanship of the board will come with the completion this spring of Arthur Kinzer's two years of service as board head. Recent tradition has supervisors serving two years only in the top post.

General agreement among supervisors Saturday was that Merton F. Parks, Raymond township, was in line for the chairmanship. Parks, it is known, has gained more than enough signatures on his petition for the post to carry him into office.

The Raymond township supervisor began preliminary work of gaining pledges for election to the job several months ago and is far in the lead. Richard Squire, Somer, was reported seeking the job, too, although he reportedly did not circulate any petitions.

Republicans, who control the board, will go through the routine of staging a caucus before the election at the April board meeting. However, with enough pledges already signed up, Parks is practically assured of GOP support, which means election.

Hold School of Instruction

A School of Instruction was held Saturday, Jan. 10, in connection with the regular stated meeting of Broadlands Chapter, O. E. S.

The altar was draped in memory of the chapter's departed brother, Marvin E. Cooper. Mrs. Alyce Crain read James Whitcomb Riley's "He Is Just Away" as Mrs. Zermah Witt played "Londonderry Air" on the piano.

Broadlands Chapter will have initiation ceremonies and obligation night on Saturday, Jan. 24, at 7:30 o'clock.

Longview Wants to Keep Its HS District

By Mrs. J. V. KEEFE
News-Gazette Staff Correspondent

Longview, Ill., Jan. 13.—Some form of grade school consolidation is necessary in the Longview area but the present Longview township high school district should not be reorganized, it was agreed by a large majority of the 125 school patrons attending a discussion forum Monday evening at LVTH.

The group failed to give its approval to the Champaign county school survey committee's proposed community unit district No. 8, which would cover all 12 grades in the Philo-Homer-Sidney-Longview-Broadlands area.

When a show of hands was called from patrons favoring the survey committee's proposal, no hands were raised.

A meeting called by the high school board to discuss reorganization policy before a public hearing conducted at Sidney on Wednesday, was presided over by Harry Jarman, high school principal. Henry Kilian, Broadlands, a member of the survey committee was present but did not elaborate on the committee's plan for this area.

Although the survey committee has recommended that Longview and Homer high schools be kept open, if the large 12-grade district is formed in this section of the county, there was general agreement here Monday evening that Longview high school would eventually be closed under reorganization.

There are 97 students in Longview high school at present—the highest enrollment in history—but well under the 300 minimum that University of Illinois educators say is needed to warrant a "broad" high school curriculum. The present Longview grade school enrollment is between 55 and 60.

Lost In the Woods? No, at Bondville

Bud Comer, one of the bus drivers for the local grade school, got lost on Thursday night of last week, while taking the basketball team to Sadorus, and woke up to find that he had driven into Bondville, which made the players one-half hour late for the game by the time they arrived in Sadorus.

Consequently, Bud has been taking a lot of ribbing the past week. But, being a man of a jovial nature, he too, is getting a big kick out of the incident, as well as his many friends.

He wants to thank the fellow who sent him the well marked map, but wishes H. O. would send directions before the game next time, so it will do him some good.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D. D.

SCRIPTURE: John 4:5-26; Romans 8:12-17, 31-39
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 103.

Our Relationship to God

Lesson for January 18, 1948

THE Scripture lesson for Sunday is John 4:5-26 and Romans 8:12-17 and 31-39, with the 103rd Psalm as the devotional reading.

Dr. Newton

God. He is the Door through which one must pass into the Kingdom, whether bond or free, rich or poor, ignorant or learned, high or low. "I am the truth and the life and the way."

Jesus Teaches About God

IN THIS great story we see Jesus, wearied from the day's arduous tasks, sitting on the curb of Jacob's well, resting. The disciples had gone across the valley to the village to buy food. The woman comes to draw water from the historic well. She did not notice Jesus until he spoke to her. He is never too busy, never too weary, to seek to bring all men to a knowledge of God's love.

He asked for a drink of water. That was his way of making contact with her. She drew back, wondering why a Jew would speak to a woman in public. But Jesus got past the immediate wall which she threw up between herself and him, and soon was teaching her the way of everlasting life, to which she responded with gratitude.

How We Worship God

READ John 4:5-26 and see how Jesus led the woman of Sychar to understand true worship. Strangely enough, she knew a good deal about Jewish rites and ceremonies, but she had never known the basic truth that "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

Included in the record of how Jesus taught the woman to worship was the necessity of confessing her sin, having five husbands, and living at the moment with still another man. We cannot worship God if there is unconfessed sin in our hearts.

We often miss the joy of true worship because we fail to confess our sins. God looketh upon the heart. If there is sin in our hearts, it must be forgiven.

Our Need of God

"IF YE live after the flesh, ye shall die," Romans 8:13. Here is a solemn truth that many seem to forget — apart from God we are dead. The young person who undertakes to live with eating food will soon discover that his body is wasting away and his mind is broken and dissipated. Just so with the spirit of man. We are spiritual creatures, made in the image of God. If we live by the flesh, we die spiritually.

In the preceding chapters in Romans, Paul has shown how sin worketh death. He sets forth the penalties that result from carnal thinking and behavior. But in the 16th verse he comes on to say:

"It is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are the sons of God, or children of God," Romans 8:16.

Strong in the Lord

OUR age has made much of might — might that expresses itself in speed. We think in terms of atomic power. This lesson would help us to understand that we may be strong in the Lord. All power is with him. "All power hath been given me in heaven and on earth," said Jesus.

And this leads us to the climax of Sunday's lesson, when Paul declares:

"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord," Romans 8:38, 39.

Satan had the woman of Sychar completely in his power until the grace of God lifted her feet upon the Rock of Ages. She could then stand in the midst of the people of Sychar and declare that she had met One who had released her from the bondage of sin. That is what will happen in every heart that comes to God through Jesus Christ.

Many Dangers Ahead

As the New Year begins, it would be folly for the American people to ignore the many dangers which lie ahead, both at home and abroad. It may be more comfortable at the moment to minimize these dangers and assume the optimistic attitude that everything will come out all right—but such an attitude may in itself prove to be the greatest danger of all.

If the United States could devote all its brains and energies to solving the problems which we are faced with here at home, there would be little cause for apprehension, although we are burdened with a staggering national debt and excessive living costs.

The present state of our domestic economy is perplexing, and no one appears to know how prices can be brought down while scarcities exist and costs and production are so high. We may have to go through a recession as an aftermath of present inflation, in which event many people would suffer to a greater or less extent. But such a set-back would probably be only temporary if peace were preserved.

Unfortunately, the troubled world situation does not permit us to concentrate our efforts on domestic affairs. We have been forced to take a leading part in the relief and rehabilitation of other countries devastated by war, including three former enemies—Germany, Japan and Italy. And overshadowing everything else is the bitter and growing hostility of an ungrateful former ally, Russia, whose ambition to dominate the world is plainly evident.

It is frightening to contemplate the possibility of another world war, but it is folly to assume that such a danger does not exist. The most sincere and patient diplomatic efforts of the United States, Britain and France to reach agreements with Russia during the last two and a half years have resulted in complete failure.

In recent months Russia has openly expressed a determination to wreck the Marshall Plan, and the Communist Party in Italy, Greece and France is doing everything possible, through sabotage, strikes and violence, to overthrow the governments of those countries.

Communists, fellow travelers and isolationists in the United States are doing their utmost to frustrate our foreign policy and prevent reasonable military preparedness. They are thus encouraging the aggressive and expansionist policies of the Soviet Union.

Every patriotic American should realize that the only effective way to preserve the peace is to be prepared to defend it. In view of Russia's hostile attitude our present military weakness is appalling.

Sidelights

Truly there is nothing in a name. The newly elected president of the Young Democrats Club in Raleigh, N. C., is Hoover Taft.

The inmates of Tokyo's city jail were given a treat on New Year's Day. The biggest day on the Japanese calendar, a special breakfast was prepared. Each prisoner got a fish, cooked whole with the head and tail intact, an Oriental delicacy. In addition, each prisoner got a hot bath. Several days before, many of the prisoners were released, police said, in order to conserve as many fish and as much hot water as possible.

they would return for more and set a trap—into which they plunged. We have been wondering how they could dispose of so many teeth.

The mother of a young farmer was not too well. She was up in years and needed constant attention, so he decided to place her in a nursing home, where she could receive the care needed. Twice a week he would pay her a visit and take a special lunch of delicacies from the farm, including a thermos bottle of milk into which—on the advice of the family doctor—she slipped a little brandy. One day she took special pains to tell her son how much she enjoyed the lunches and added: "And, Larry, don't ever sell that cow!"

ing of a Youth Center for Chinese young people, renting a beautiful Chinese building formerly used by the Marine "Y." Helping in the work at the center are Christian university students, teachers, pastors and nurses.

Junior—A good report card.

The modern miss asked the Pro if he could tell her how to play golf.

Pro—Sure, it's easy enough. All you do is smack the pill and then walk.

Modern Miss—How interesting. Just like some auto rides I've been on.

The Blood Collection Center was very busy, and as a nurse rushed out of the room with a container of freshly drawn blood she met a Colonel who was a regular donor. She greeted the officer brightly, adding, "Just jump into bed, Colonel. I'll be with you in a minute!"

The clerk at the registration agency fancied himself as a wit, and squared himself away to do a real job when he recognized a Scotch accent in the next applicant.

Where were you born? he asked.

Glasgow, replied the Scot. Why in Glasgow? demanded the clerk.

I wanted to be near mother.

A couple of Scotsmen were walking along the road together and one was jingling something in his pocket. His pal asked, "Jock, you must have plenty of money in there."

Oh, no, said Jock, that's my wife's false teeth. . . . you see, there's too much eating between meals in our house.

Mrs. Lester could not endure the thought of remaining uncaptured, so when she countered Mr. Telson, single and quite cheerful about it, she could not avoid archly remarking:

Forty years old, Mr. Telson and never been married? It's really too bad. But surely you have not given up hope.

Oh, no indeed, rejoined Mr. T. I hope I am safe for another 40 years, anyway.

The neat, stylishly-stout woman turned sweetly to the plump woman near her as a seat on the crowded streetcar was vacated. You sit down, she suggested. You're older than I am.

The plump one glared. Indeed I am not older than you! Sit down yourself.

The stylishly stout woman sat, smiling comfortably to herself. Several blocks later she leaned toward her seatmate and confided quietly: That remark gets me a seat every time.

Household Hints

Wax the clothes chute and clothes will slide down easily.

Turn the broom from time to time when sweeping so the bristles will wear evenly.

A piece of fine sandpaper dampened, will help remove the lint from mohair or felt. Rub lightly.

Do not wash the bag of your vacuum cleaner. Washing removes the special finish that makes the bag dustproof. Brush the bag instead.

When using scotch tape, fold over the end on the spool. The next time the tape is to be used, cut off the folded part and it's ready for use.

When baking bread and the crust becomes burnt, rub a small grater lightly over the burnt place and you'll be surprised how easily it is removed.

A brilliant polish can be given to windows and mirrors by rubbing with a lintless cloth which has been dampened with vinegar.

A noted authority on flower arrangement advises the use of glass or white pottery vases as these go well with the colors of all flowers and the decorative colors of all rooms.

Sagging floors often are caused by wood shrinkage or the warping of a joist. A fairly satisfactory correction can be made by driving wedges between the top of the joist and the floor.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Who Are We, Anyway?
Subject came up at Bill Webster's, the other day, as we were chatting over beer and pretzels. Just who are the folks who make up our town? Where'd they come from? Well, Doc Hollister's Scotch-English ancestry; Will Dudley's folks were mining stock from Pennsylvania; Skip Powell's family were brewers back in Holland. Guess our bloodstream's got a bit of every country of the globe—and every section of America. We've still got differences in taste and background—whether they apply to music, history, or beer. Only those differences don't matter—because we're self-respecting people, in a free, united land. And from where I sit, that's what makes our towns and cities—our America—so strong, progressive, tolerant. Our championship of individual liberties has brought us people from all faiths, all lands—to prove that respect for one another's rights is the greatest bond humanity can know!

Warning to Persons Eligible For Social Security

"Do not give money to any person who asks for payment to help you get Social Security benefits and who says he is an employee of the Social Security Administration," John Moore, manager of the Champaign Federal office, warned today. "If you are entitled to Social Security benefits, any Social Security Field office will help you secure those benefits without charge."

A Chicago widow paid $30.00 just a few weeks ago, Moore said, to a man who told her she could get Social Security benefits but that a $30.00 fee was required. The stranger said he was the assistant manager of a Social Security field office and unfortunately the widow believed him. "Our employees do call occasionally at the homes of widows and other persons, in connection with claims for benefits," the manager of this area declared. "They may do so, for example, when the person is unable to go to the field office. These employees always carry official credentials by which they can be identified, and there is no charge for their services."

Illinois State Capitol News

At the close of 1947, Illinois had 6,548 registered airplane pilots and 2,289 registered aircraft, according to Robert Dewey, the state director of aeronautics. A sixty-day period of grace is being given with regard to the registration of pilots and aircraft, but after March 1, registration will be strictly enforced, Dewey says.

Last year 2,046 oil and gas wells were drilled in 42 Illinois counties, according to a report by the state geological survey. Of the 2,046 wells completed last year, 1,071 were oil producers and nine were gas wells. Wabash county had the highest number of completed and producing wells. The total Illinois oil production for December was estimated at 5,479,000 barrels.

In recognition of current high prices the Illinois public aid commission will increase its state-wide allowances for food approximately $300,000 a month, beginning in February. A separate food budget will be used for each county instead of the uniform budget previously used.

The action of the commission is in line with a policy maintained under Governor Green of adapting the state's assistance program to meet need as it exists.

At present, the sum of $71.70 is used in determining the monthly food needs of a family of four. Under the revised budget such a family's food requirements will average $77.00 per month. These figures vary on a county basis, ranging from $80.80 in Tazewell county to $73.00 in Fayette county.

Women Sitting at Work Are Scientific, Not Lazy

Women who sit down to work are not being lazy, they are being modern and scientific, according to Helen Irene Smith, home management specialist at University of Maryland.

She points out that 14 per cent more energy is required for standing than for sitting and recommends that homemakers sit for all lengthy jobs, such as ironing, polishing silver, peeling potatoes, preparing vegetables and fruit, hand-mixing of bread, cakes or cookies, and for any other work which is located at one place.

Miss Smith admits that many kitchens are not constructed to permit convenient sitting at one's work and that too often the only seat is a high stool on which the worker must perch precariously with feet dangling. As an improvement, she suggests a pull-out board under the regular working counter. This board should be from 25 to 26 1/2 inches from the floor to permit use of an ordinary straight chair. Large kitchens may be built with a short work counter installed at the lower height with space underneath for knees and feet.

Fuel Conservation Weeks January 15 to March 1

Pointing to a serious current shortage of fuels for residential heating, Governor Dwight H. Green has proclaimed the time from Jan. 15 to Mar. 1, as Fuel Conservation Weeks throughout Illinois.

In spite of increased production of oil, gas and coal for heating purposes, the demand for fuels has so increased that shortages have already developed in some localities of Illinois, and the problem will become more acute with the arrival of severe winter weather.
