Walters received lacerations about the head and scalp. His condition was reported as "good" at the hospital on Monday. Carter, who suffered a lacerated forehead, and Kilian, who received a laceration of the neck, were dismissed from the hospital after being treated.

The driver, and lone occupant of the jeep, Lee Spivey, 23, of Auburn, received a fractured rib, lacerations and a possible fracture of the left elbow.—Commercial-News.

Freak Windstorm Causes Great Damage Sunday

Rain, accompanied by a terrific windstorm visited Broadlands and surrounding communities last Sunday afternoon.

A heavy white cloud, followed by rains, came rolling in from the southwest about 2:30 p. m., smashing barns, corn cribs, garages, hog houses and other out-buildings. Many fences were felled and farmers were rounding up cattle and other livestock on Monday.

A large number of trees were tossed over power wires and three Illini Electric cooperative crews were kept busy until 7:30 p. m., until all service breaks were repaired. Several poles were uprooted.

Broadlands was more severely damaged than neighboring villages. The belfry and roof of the Evangelical United Brethren church were severely damaged when the chimney toppled. The Lloyd Skinner garage was completely demolished when it was tossed against his house which was also damaged. The chimney was driven through the roof of the Floyd Block home, scattering the interior with bricks and rain. A large shade tree was uprooted and a basement window was blown out at the Joe Darnall home. The large front window was smashed at the beauty shop. Several trees were severely damaged at the Ben Rayl home. The front porch at the Marie Witt residence was badly damaged when a large shade tree fell on it. Hugo Dewitt's car was damaged when a tree fell on it at his home. One of the beautiful spruce trees given to the village by the late Charley Block was demolished. Shingles were torn from the roof of the home of Mrs. Bertha Block. And little white houses too numerous to mention were blown over.

Harold Anderson, northeast of town, lost seven or eight two-week-old pigs when several hog houses were smashed by the wind. A barn and tool shed were demolished at the George Dohme farm east of town, and the garage was wrecked at the south edge of town. A barn was wrecked at the Oscar Anderson farm north of town. The farm home of the late Will Smith was damaged. Crib doors and the garage at the Paul Miller home were also damaged. At the O. P. Witt home a number of trees were uprooted, sheds, hog house and fences wrecked. Buildings on the Walter Divan farm were considerably damaged.

Francis Porterfield and Arnold Smith, farmers east of Broadlands, lost barns in the storm which could be credited with some sort of damage on almost every farm in the area.

Five Cities Win Hearing In the Train Case

Springfield, March 23—The Illinois Commerce commission Tuesday granted the petition of five east central Illinois cities and a Chamber of Commerce in the re-hearing of the ICC order authorizing the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad to discontinue four trains between Villa Grove and St. Louis.

The petition had been filed by the cities of Tuscola, Sullivan, Allerton, Broadlands and Sidell, and the Tuscola Chamber of Commerce.

The ICC order authorized the C. and E. I. to discontinue four Villa Grove-St. Louis trains and substitute two streamlined trains operating between Chicago and St. Louis.

A hearing has been scheduled for March 31 at Sullivan.

$4,000 Award For Injuries Is Affirmed

Circuit Judge Charles E. Keller on Wednesday affirmed a $4,000 award given Clifford O. Dobbs by the Industrial commission for injuries allegedly suffered while working for a Broadlands farm implement firm.

Attorneys for the defendants, Leon and Alfonso Struck, said that the ruling would be appealed to the Illinois supreme court.

Dobbs had sought the award on the grounds that he was injured while working for the farmers, who also own the implement store. The defense had argued that Dobbs was working on one of the farms and was not covered by compensation laws.

Judge Keller in his decision found in favor of Dobbs and affirmed the award granted by the commission against the Strucks.—News-Gazette.

Eternal Life

Lesson for March 28, 1948

"THE Lord has risen indeed," and because he lives, we too shall live. Easter is the day that reminds us of this blessed truth—the truth of eternal life. Well has Henry Burton expressed it in these lines:

"There's a light upon the mountains,
And the day is at the spring,
When our eyes shall see the beauty
And the glory of the King;
Weary was our heart with waiting,
And the night watch seemed so long,
But his triumph day is breaking,
And we hail it with a song.

"He is breaking down the barriers;
He is casting up the way;
He is calling for his angels
To build up the gates of day;
But his angels here are human,
Not the shining hosts above;
And the drumbeats of his army
Are the heartbeats of our love."

BREAKFAST BY THE LAKE

READ John 21:1-14 for the exquisite account of Jesus appearing to his disciples in the early morning at the sea of Tiberias. They had been toiling all night, and had taken nothing. Bringing their boats near to the shore, they saw one standing there, "but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus." Jesus told them to cast their net on the right side of the ship, which they did, and they caught 153 "great fishes." Jesus then summoned them to breakfast. He had prepared the bread and fish on coals of fire. And they did eat.

Dr. Newton

BLESSED ASSURANCE

BEFORE his death, Jesus had said to his disciples, "Because I live, you will live also," John 14:19, but they did not fully grasp the meaning of the great words. But that morning on the sea shore, they understood. They remembered that he had died on the cross, and now they were assured that he was really alive, for this was the third time he had appeared unto the disciples after the resurrection. How happy they must have been! How happy we should be on this recurring Easter season, assured that he is alive evermore. And because he lives, we too shall live.

WHAT IS ETERNAL LIFE?

SUNDAY'S lesson leads us on to the answer to the question, What is eternal life? In Colossians 3:1-4 and 12-17, we have the declaration, "Your life is hid with Christ in God. . . ." If we have believed on him — cast ourselves in implicit trust into his keeping — we have eternal life, which is his gift to every believing heart.

Paul goes on to admonish those who have "entered into life eternal," through faith in the risen, reigning Saviour, to put on the garments of his presence and power and peace — kindness, humility, meekness, long-suffering, forbearance, forgiveness.

The evidence of eternal life is to be found in the fruits of the Spirit in our daily lives.

CERTAINTY OF ETERNAL LIFE

WE READ in John 17:3 this word of further assurance, "This is eternal life, that they know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent." And in I John 5:11-12, we read, "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life."

In another passage John tells that we know that we have passed from death unto life because we love the brethren.

Easter is the day of eternal hope. It lifts above the fog of earthiness the glory of the blessed hope that fadeth not away. We have God's own testimony that we shall live with him forever, through Jesus Christ, our risen, reigning, returning Lord.

Our Richest Treasure

The Bible walks the ways of all the world with familiar feet and enters land after land to find its own everywhere. Children listen to its stories with wonder and delight, and wise men ponder them as parables of life. The wicked and the proud tremble at its warnings, but to the wounded and the penitent it has a mother's voice. It has woven itself into our dearest dreams; so that love, friendship, sympathy, devotion, memory, hope, put on the beautiful garments of its treasured speech. No man is poor or desolate who has this treasure for his own. —Henry Van Dyke.

"Divorce granted," was the decree of a judge in Yarmouth, Me., when Ernest Alexander testifying in a pal's divorce suit, said: "She put pea soup sandwiches in his lunch." If it was split-pea soup, it was even worse.

A news item from Tokyo seems to reveal that Gen. MacArthur has everything under control. The report stated that: The Four-Power Allied Council for Japan met for 44 seconds recently, just long enough to approve the minutes of the last meeting—which itself lasted only 38 seconds. Nothing was done at either session. The Council was set up originally to 'advise' MacArthur and apparently is doing an excellent job—whatever that job is.

All of us have heard remarks that although very simple, were clever, and we wished we had thought of them first. Apparently an Indian down in New Mexico one day back in 1945 found himself in the same category. It seems that he stood on a low hill smoke-signalling love messages to his girl friend a few miles away. Suddenly the atomic bomb test went off, covering the sky with smoke for miles around. The Indian watched the smoke and as it mounted higher and higher, he said, enviously: "Gee, wish I'd said that."

For no good reason, as far as we can see, just as soon as a restaurant advances to the "swanky" stage it begins printing its menus in French or Italian. All of which reminds us of the young New Yorker, the escort of a visiting young lady, and their visit to one of the better known restaurants. In order to impress his date, he attempted, in suave tones, to place the order. "Bring us two orders of Giuseppe Verticelli," said the young man. And before he could say any more, the waiter stopped him: "Sir, it is impossible, that is the manager."

It was a big occasion. President Coolidge was the distinguished guest at the laying of a cornerstone. A great crowd had gathered and each looked forward to hearing Mr. Coolidge speak. The moment arrived and the President was given the necessary implement to turn the first spadeful of earth. The job was completed and Mr. Coolidge stepped back to view the results of his effort. The crowd waited for the expected speech by the "talkative" president who uttered not a single word. Finally, the master of ceremonies in a deep whisper suggested that a few words would be fitting. Mr. Coolidge surveyed the upturned earth and remarked: "That's a fine fishworm, isn't it."

Imagine the surprise of Woodrow W. Bailey, Riverside, Calif., policeman, when he was presented an expensive 12-cylinder automobile last week. No, it was not a gift in recognition of any service he had rendered nor the act of some rich relatives, it was the result of a wreck. It was on Bailey's beat that Motorist John Henry Smith had a slight accident and the policeman rushed to his aid, pulling him from the slightly damaged car. Bailey dusted Smith off as he fumed: "I'm tired of this car. This is not the first wreck I've had in it. Do you want it?" Bailey tried to quiet him down and told him he'd feel better in a little while. Next day, however, to Bailey's astonishment, Smith delivered the car as promised with all necessary papers filled out and signed.

Why Are Meats Skyhigh? Read These Profit Figures

This may explain why housewives pay through the nose at the nation's meat counters.

The magazine Business Week, which can hardly be accused of unfairness to corporations, reveals that the "big four" meat packers in 1947 rolled up profits ranging from 150 to 550 per cent higher than in the boom year of 1929.

Here are the figures: Armour's, profits up from $4,970,000 to $30,950,000; Cudahy, from $2,513,000 to $7,122,000; Wilson's from $2,305,000 to $15,449,000; Swift's from $13,077,000 to $22,335,000.

There's a "joker" in Swift's 1947 figure, Business Week lets it be known. It doesn't include a $12,000,000 special reserve set aside to cover "high costs of additions to fixed assets."

Twenty-seven young women of India recently took training under Miss Elmina Lucke, of the American staff of the Young Women's Christian Association in India, and then offered their services at the refugee camp of 100,000 displaced Moslems in the "no-man's-land" between India and Pakistan. There they helped establish a hospital, set up a food center, and ministered to the sick and discouraged. Some of the girls were from Hindu homes and some from Moslem, but they served all refugees without distinction.

Miss Mildred Paine, of Albion, N. Y., who before the recent war carried on a social service work among the scavengers on the outskirts of Tokyo, Japan, in the name of the Methodist Church of which she is a missionary, is now back in Japan in similar service to women and children. In Taura, a suburb of Yokosuka, she carries on the Christian Social Center in what was once a navy officers' club. Miss Paine has a flourishing Sunday school, an educational service for children, a sewing class (which is making dresses for children out of what was formerly Japanese naval flags), a group making repairs for relief, and an English night school. Plans are under way to add a troop of Boy Scouts and some boys' clubs.

Want to know a Leap Year proposal you can accept whether you are single or married and have a dozen children? It's the proposal to join the Payroll Savings Plan for buying United States Savings Bonds, or the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank if you are self-employed. Millions of my nieces and nephews have learned from experience that a growing nest-egg built by regular buying of United States Savings Bonds is the best personal guarantee of a happy future.

VALVE-IN-HEAD is far ahead!

in performance and economy... in ruggedness and reliability!

- 1 In the world's champion Chevrolet engine, the valves are located in the head of the cylinder, directly over the pistons... hence the name, Valve-in-Head.
- 2 Valve-in-Head design provides faster intake of fuel mixture... and quicker and more complete exhaust of burned gases... all of which contributes to better performance and economy.
- 3 Valve-in-Head design also permits a more compact combustion chamber; and this, together with Chevrolet's "Blue Flame" combustion, means more driving power for the pistons—less heat loss—and maximum economy.

Valve-in-Head engines are inherently easier to cool; and Chevrolet's individual cooling of cylinders prevents waste of power—promotes efficient operation—prolongs engine life.

Automotive experts and millions of motorists agree: Valve-in-Head is far ahead because it gives an outstanding combination of performance, endurance, dependability and economy... Chevrolet—master builder of this master motor—has proved this by producing more than 20 million Valve-in-Head engines during the past thirty-seven years—engines which hold the distinction of having delivered more billions of miles of satisfaction, to more owners, over a longer period, than any other power-plant built today! Chevrolet's World's Champion Valve-in-Head engine is another powerful reason why CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST... another convincing proof that only Chevrolet gives BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Smile Awhile

Does he know much? queried the office friend to a new acquaintance.

Well, he not only knows that he doesn't know much, but he knows enough to keep others from knowing it, replied the colleague.

Calvin Coolidge was once taking an evening walk, accompanied by the late Senator Spencer, of Missouri.

Passing the White House, Spencer joked, 'I wonder who lives there?'

Nobody, replied the unsmiling Coolidge. They just come and go.

It was lunch hour at the lime works, and Pat's two buddies, deciding to play a little joke on him during his absence, drew the features of a donkey upon the back of his coat. In due time Pat returned and presently hove in sight bearing the lime-decorated coat.

What's the trouble, Pat? asked one casually.

Nothing much, replied Pat, equally indifferent, only I'd loike to know which one of yez wiped your face on me coat.

The bond of affection between the village ne'er-do-well and his lank, red hound seemed even deeper than the ordinary mandog comradeship. They were constantly together, prowling in the woods occasionally, but for the most part, idling in front of the general store.

A villager said to the master one day, "Jake, that ain't a pretty dog; he don't seem any account. What makes you like him so much?"

Jake pondered a moment, looking into the hound's sad, up-turned eyes. Then he replied:

"It's this-away. This dawg not only don't fuss at me when I git a notion to be wuthless, but he jes' goes along an' be's wuthless too."

Household Hints

For a larger and fluffier omelet add hot instead of cold water when beating the egg yolks.

To stretch your meat, use popcorn in meat loaves. This will give a delicious new flavor.

Excessive use of oil or thinners will reduce the covering power of any paint.

Plants frequently die because they are drowned with too much water or allowed to dry out in a warm, dry atmosphere.

Fix a towel rack on the back of baby's high chair, on which you can keep such handy items as a damp wash cloth, a bib and a towel.

An extra muslin pad or a towel on your ironing board will help to bring out the pattern of embroidered or lace-trimmed articles being ironed.

Citrus fruits are excellent for tenderizing not-so-tender meats. Use either fresh or canned orange or grapefruit juice in pot-roasts and Swiss steaks.

A good way to avoid streaks when dyeing material is to dissolve the dye in a cup of warm water, then strain through a thin cloth before adding to the water used for dyeing.

Thread several needles with different color thread and put in a pin cushion hung from the wall. It is then an easy matter to repair a garment instead of placing it in the ever growing mending bundle.

Also Break Necks
According to J. Edgar Hoover, 85 to 90 per cent of the driving accidents in many large cities are caused directly by persons who break traffic laws.

Straight Railroad

The longest stretch of railroad without a curve in the United States is the 79 miles of the Seaboard railroad between Wilmington and Hamlet, N. C.

New Synthetic Rubber

Got Spring Planning Fever?

If you build or modernize specify Adequate Wiring

Your home is as modern as its electrical wiring. In building or modernizing, it's important to consider plenty of electrical outlets for kitchen, bathroom, living room, bedrooms, basement, workshop or rumpus room. For full convenience, you need plenty of outlets so you can place your electrical appliances where you want and need them.

Be sure, too, that you have large enough wires and enough circuits to carry the electrical load necessary to fill your wants, both present and future. Insufficient wiring means lowered efficiency, fuse blow-out danger. And if you're dollar wise, remember that on the average Adequate Wiring costs only about 1 per cent more than the ordinary wiring budget.

Wooden Water Pipes

Early water piping of England consisted of bored logs. First successful water system there was built of logs in 1609. First cast iron mains used in London were constructed in 1774, and during this time, the little piping found inside the houses was of lead. Colonists in North America were laying water pipes made from bored logs in Boston in 1700 and in Schaefferstown, Pa., in 1732. In 1752 the first pressure system with pumps was built in Bethlehem, Pa. Bored logs still were used for mains and lead for house piping. In 1770 New York City began to duplicate this system.
