Letter From Greece Opens New Life to California Man

The following article from a San Bernardino, Calif., newspaper, tells an interesting story of Harry Nishkian, husband of Jamesine Zane Nishkian, and a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Art Zane, former Broadlands residents:

A brand new life has come to Harry Nishkian of 846 Valley View drive, San Bernardino, during the past few months. He has learned his real name, his age, birthplace, facts of his childhood, and of his mother and father.

His earliest recollection is in Turkey, of the Armenian massacre of 1921, during which his uncle's family fled to Greece, taking him, an orphan. He recalls his coming to America later with an older cousin.

His life in America is all he knew, for he had lost all contact with relatives in Greece. He married, now has three children, operates a cafe at Mt. Vernon and Rialto avenues.

Late last year he received a letter from Greece which told that his uncle and family were living and had just located him through another relative in America.

He found that he was born Harry Boghossian in Smyrna, Turkey, and is 33 years old. His father had died in the first World War, and his mother died a year later of grief.

Another cousin, Queenie Nishkian, was coming to America to be married and was to bring her mother. But Queenie's mother was slain in the massacre and so the cousin decided to bring the 8-year old boy safely to America as her brother. Thus he took her name. That is when he lost all trace of his relatives in Greece.

Learning of his uncle's youngest child, Zarouhi Boghossian, of Athens, Mr. Nishkian brought her to America. Zarouhi speaks six languages fluently and has seen the strife and aftermath of war in Greece.

With her, Zarouhi brought many treasures and heirlooms of the family, including gowns that once belonged to the royal family of Greece. Among her personal belongings she brought a unique gift for her cousin. It was a large Turkish rug, hand-woven in wool, in the design of an American dollar bill.

Brittany Home of Guernsey

A breed not yet extinct in Brittany, France, known as Froment du Leon, is credited as the No. 1 ancestor of the Guernsey cow, according to research by monks of Les Vauxbelets Agricultural college. An early description of this breed reveals that "they were smaller cattle although possessing the same markings as the Guernsey and were active, gaudy, with bright eyes and quiet at milking. They produced a good flow of rich yellow milk from which fine butter could be made." The second ancestor from which the Guernsey has been formed, according to this account, is the Norman Brindle, originating in the district of Isigny, France. The Norman cows, "a very heavy breed, produce a large supply of rich milk," some cows producing even at that time 60 to 70 pounds daily.

Mrs. Katherine Seider and Daughter, Accident Victims

Mrs. Katherine Seider and daughter Miss Emma were victims of a peculiar accident Sunday evening as they were enroute home from the country. Their car caught fire, and in trying to get out of it Mrs. Seider fell. They were near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chafin who brought them on home.

Mrs. Seider was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital, in Danville, where X-rays showed her right leg broken just above the ankle, and a broken right rib. Miss Seider suffered an injured knee, but was not hospitalized.

The car was only slightly damaged, the fire dying out as soon as the car was stopped.

Education Would Save Many Cancer Victims

According to information given to the volunteer workers in the Champaign County drive by Dr. Max Appel, pathologist for the tumor diagnostic clinic at Burnham hospital, one in every eight persons will die of cancer, and for women over 40 years of age the percentage is one in every five.

Figures show cancer will strike in almost one of every two families. Medical science with the knowledge and equipment now available could save 30 to 50 percent of those who die of cancer, if the public can be educated to the necessity of recognizing the symptoms early. This is one of the functions of the American Cancer Society as well as financing research to eliminate the disease.

Champaign County has been asked to raise $10,000 as its share of the sum required nationally to conduct an intensive, year-around program of research and education to eliminate cancer from its position as one of the primary causes of death.

Gifts for this purpose should be mailed to the general chairman of the drive, Charles W. Heath, at 201 North Elm Street, Champaign, Ill. Checks can be made payable to the American Cancer Society, Inc.

Charles Stewart of Philo, district deputy grand master of the 61st district of the state of Illinois, made his official visit to Broadlands lodge A. F. & A. M., Monday night.

ZACHARIAH 1:1-6; 4:1-5. DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalms 24:1-6.

Zechariah Pleads For Righteousness

Lesson for April 25, 1948

ZACHARIAH almost certainly was born and reared in or near Babylon, and was trained for the priesthood and ordained of the Lord as a prophet. His father, Berechiah, was the son of Iddo, the prophet. Though much younger than Haggai, about whom we studied last Sunday, Zechariah began his ministry only two months later than Haggai—a ministry which was to summon the people to righteousness as a condition essential in the rebuilding of the temple and in cleansing themselves of idolatry, if they were to throw off the yoke of their foes. The student will need to read the entire Book of Zechariah to have the background for this lesson. Also Psalm 24:1-6.

condition essential in the rebuilding of the temple and in cleansing themselves of idolatry, if they were to throw off the yoke of their foes. The student will need to read the entire Book of Zechariah to have the background for this lesson. Also Psalm 24:1-6.

LIVING TOGETHER IN GOD'S WAY

"TURN ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you," Zechariah 1:3. People cannot live together in peace and harmony until first they are on speaking terms with God. The insidious onslaught of secularism was weakening the Jews at the very moment when they needed to be strong and united for the task of rebuilding the temple and restoring their life in Jerusalem.

Read further into the prophecy of Zechariah and note the admonitions of the Lord for kindness one toward another—kindness and understanding and sincerity, which are the indispensable qualities of community life.

WHAT MAKES A PEOPLE GREAT?

ZACHARIAH reminds the people that the downfall of their fathers had been due to their forgetfulness of God. He calls them now to repentance of their own sins, that they become truly a great people. "Fear not, but let your hands be strong," Zechariah 8:13.

"What makes a nation great and strong? Not brick, nor stone, nor wood, But justice, love and brotherhood."

Boys and girls will do well to look again at what this old prophet was saying. We long to see the United States a truly great nation. Then let us be strong in the Lord.

GOD HAS A STANDARD

READ chapter seven, verses 8-14, and 8:16-17, for some of the standards which God sets up for his people. "Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. Oppress not the widow, the orphan, the foreigner, or the poor, and never plot evil in your hearts against one another."

Zechariah is here epitomizing the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. All of which is to remind us today that we do not need new standards. We simply need to conform to God's eternal standards.

GOD IS TO BE SOUGHT UNTO

THE first eight chapters of Zechariah have to do with the essential qualities of life if the people are to rebuild the temple. The last six chapters deal with the general standards of life which we must accept and strive to attain if we are to be well-pleasing unto him.

I like the phrase of the fathers, "God is to be sought unto." And how are we to come into the presence of the Lord? "He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, now sworn deceitfully," Psalms 24:4.

It was not enough to rebuild the temple. God wanted his people to become living stones of integrity and fidelity in the city of God.

This we shall attain only as we seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness—constantly seek this daily walk with the Lord, in the light of his word.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

By the Bible

If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering and to prosper; but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury all our glory in profound obscurity.—Daniel Webster.

A 1948 Dollar's Value

A recent report by the Department of Labor's bureau of labor statistics shows that on an average throughout the country a 1948 dollar will buy only as much as 60 cents would buy in 1939. This, it should be borne in mind, is merely an average, and does not apply to all goods and services alike.

The value of the present dollar varies greatly, depending on what one buys. To give a few examples: A dollar buys only as much food as 47 cents bought in 1939.

In clothing and house furnishings, the dollar has shrunk to about 52 cents. In fuels and miscellaneous items it is worth 60 cents. In residential rents it still buys as much as 90 cents paid for nine years ago, although there are many exceptions in individual cases.

But the dollar today will buy as much gas or electricity as $1.06 bought in 1939.

Although the consumer's dollar has shrunk greatly in value, many business men and other employers also have their troubles. The retailer must pay more than twice as much for his merchandise as he did before the war, and the manufacturer pays a dollar for raw materials that formerly cost only 40 cents. Employers generally pay about twice the wages paid in 1939 for a given amount of work.

The high prices—inflation—will continue and probably increase as long as the present business boom with high employment lasts. Larger government expenditures for foreign relief and strengthening our armed forces are likely to cause even greater inflation than has been experienced so far.

Foreign Relief Bill

Passage of the foreign relief and recovery bill, signed by President Truman recently, was doubtless hastened by recent actions of Russia and Communist threats to make trouble in connection with Italian elections. The bill was approved by the House, 318 to 75, and passed the Senate by a voice vote.

The bill authorizes a total expenditure of $6,098,000,000, divided as follows:

1. For the European Recovery Program (Marshall Plan) $5,300,000,000.
2. For military supplies for Greece and Turkey, $275,000,000.
3. For aid to China, $463,000,000—of which $125,000,000 may be spent for military purposes.
4. For the United Nations International Children's Fund, $60,000,000.

Actual money for these expenditures must be provided by Congress in appropriation bills yet to be passed, but in the meantime the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will advance $1,000,000,000 to get the Marshall Plan under way, and $50,000,000 each for Greece, Turkey and China.

Russia and her satellite nations were originally invited to participate in the plan, but Russia refused to join in the program and would not allow her puppet states to do so. She has since done everything possible to make the recovery of Western Europe more difficult.

Sixteen free nations of Western Europe, led by Britain and France, accepted Secretary Marshall's plan, however, and began a series of discussions in Paris which led to an agreement in a report adopted on Sept. 22, 1947. The report pledged the 16 nations to internal financial and economic stabilization and a wide range of mutual help.

If the plan works well, it is hoped that the 16 nations may become self-supporting, or nearly so, by the end of 1951, thus relieving the United States of the great drain on its resources which has continued since the end of the war.

Sidelights

The minister felt that he had preached an unusually fine sermon one Sunday and while shaking hands with his congregation asked one of the oldest members what she thought of his sermon. "Very good indeed," was her reply, "it was so instructive. In fact, we didn't know what sin really was until you came here."

We've always felt that to be an Emperor required unusual talents and, according to the Nippon Times, of Tokyo, the Japs' Hirohito has a talent that few in the world can equal. It is reported that the "Son of Heaven" can hold a fan between his toes and fan himself. In fact, he is so good that he can perform this stunt while swimming.

Not all church sextons are well, just sextons. Take the case of Max Wedell, for instance: Wedell was thought very poor by every member of New York's Christ Church when he died recently. He had been faithful and deserving, they thought. But each and everyone knew he was still serving the church when his will was probated, and it was learned that it contained a provision cancelling a $13,000 mortgage he held on the church property.

Lovers of the tales of the far northwest will never forget Klondike Kate, the Belle of the Yukon and one-time toast of the sourdoughs. Klondike Kate, now a sprightly lady of 68 years, is a bride for the third time. A few days ago Klondike Kate and W. L. Van Duren of Bend, Oregon, exchanged marriage vows. Van Duren, a 71-year-old accountant, told interested reporters that he had been in love with Kate a long time, having met her 18 years ago.

Household Hints

Discolored piano keys can be cleaned by rubbing with a soft cloth dampened with alcohol.

If you are just learning to sew remember that medium weight, firmly woven fabrics are easiest to work with.

Dip the bottom of your scouring powder can in hot paraffin to prevent it from leaving rust marks on bathroom fixtures.

When cooked prunes are used in pudding, cake or muffins, the juice remaining may be blended with milk, chilled and served as an after school snack.

To freshen up your feather pillows, air them on a cloudy day rather than allowing them to hang in the sun. The sun draws the natural oil out and destroys their resiliency.

To remove chewing gum hold a piece of ice directly under the gum. This will freeze the gum making it easy to pick off. If the gum leaves a stain, sponge with carbon tetrachloride.

Wipe the blades of your electric fan with a cloth moistened in kerosene. Washing with water is not recommended because water will not dissolve the grease and may damage the motor.

When you are canning this summer, try using a "chopping board." This is simply a board of hard lumber on which to place your vegetables to chop them up for canning soups, kraut, and mixed vegetables. You will find this board a real time saver.

The class had been given a rather difficult sum to do for homework and, strange to relate, Tommy, the dunce of the class, was the only one with the correct answer.

"No, sir," truthfully replied Tommy, "He did it alone."

Mary, aged five, was facing a minor surgical operation, and her mother told her: Be a brave little girl, and mama will get you a nice kitten.

Mother was sitting close by when Mary came out of the ether. She leaned forward to catch the youngster's first words.

The occasion was an amateur musicale. The kind-hearted hostess spied a lonely-looking little man huddled in a corner of the room, and paused to make conversation.

Tell me, she finally asked, do you play any musical instrument? Not away from home, the little man replied.

How peculiar, remarked the hostess. What instrument do you play at home?

Second fiddle, the man replied.

A voluble but h-less counsel was addressing the jury.

Gentlemen, he said, this accident to my client's little 'orse will ruin 'im! The plaintiff's all is in 'is little 'orse!

The judge, upon whose sensitive ear these constant and unspirited allusions had grated, could restrain himself no longer.

Don't you think, Mr. Blank, he interjected, that at this stage of the case we might refer to it as a pony?

The greatest barrage of gunfire ever let loose, except on a war front, was the victory salvo fired in Moscow at the end of World War II, consisting of 100 blasts from 1,000 guns. Up to that time the greatest number of salvos was 24 from 324 guns.

The biggest game fish ever landed was a Tahitan marlin, a sword fish over 14 feet long. With a girth of six feet, nine inches, and a tail spread of over five feet, it weighed over 1,000 pounds. It was caught by Zane Grey off Tahiti, May 16, 1930. It took a dozen men to drag the fish up on the beach.

Coal for Fertilizer
Experiments have shown that some grades of low grade coal found near Moscow, Russia, that is, coal with low calory and high ash content, can be used with success as organic and mineral fertilizers. For this purpose the coal either is treated with an ammonia solution or is turned into special, more complicated fertilizers.

Homer Does Some "Back-Seat Sewing!"

Homer Bentley's missus was working on her new sewing machine, when Homer comes in, draws up a chair, and starts talking: "Don't you think you're running too fast?" he says. "Slow down! Watch out! Be careful!"

When the missus finally turns with murder in her eyes, Homer says goodnatureedly: "I thought you might like a little help, dear—like you help me drive the car."

The missus can't help but burst out laughing—and they settle what might have been a quarrel over a friendly glass of beer. The missus agrees to give up back-seat driving and nagging Homer about ashes on the rug. Homer agrees to quit criticizing Sarah's taste for flowery hats and parsley salad.

From where I sit, the key to getting on together is meeting every issue half way—and overlooking any petty differences in tastes—whether these tastes apply to beer or flowery-looking hats!

Condemnation Suit
Hearing on May 17

(News-Gazette)

County court hearing has been set for 9 a. m. May 17 on the condemnation suit brought by the Little Vermilion Special Drainage district against Coll Gillies for right-of-way property across the Allerton estate in Vermilion county.

Judge J. H. Benjamin, Paxton, on the bench in exchange for Judge William L. Springer, set the hearing date Thursday after overruling a petition by Gillies for a change of venue. The court also overruled a motion to dismiss the suit.

A jury of 12 will hear the case to determine the amount of damages for the right-of-way grant. The land is sought by the district to carry on a $60,000 improvement project.

Gillies is associated with the First National bank of Chicago and the land is held in his name. The district seeks about 33 acres of the estate as right-of-way property.

In allotting the case for hearing Judge Benjamin vacated a previous order setting the hearing for April 16.

High Psychiatric Loss
In active theaters of World War II, the rate of psychiatric casualties was two or three times that of World War I. Chief cause of the increase appeared to lie in the fact that warfare was more terrifying in World War II than ever before and the mental hazards were considerably greater than those encountered in the trench warfare of 1918.
