Illinois Steps Up Fly Control Plans

The fly swatter may have little work to do in Illinois this year if interest in the state's fly-free program keeps mounting the way it has been in recent weeks.

H. B. Petty, entomologist with the University of Illinois and the Illinois Natural History Survey, reports that the success of the program is almost a sure thing. Petty recently completed a series of district meetings over the state with county farm advisers of the Agricultural Extension Service.

"Most of the counties in the state are giving major attention to clean-up right now," Petty says. "This job should be done on the farms and in the cities and towns before DDT spraying is started in late May or early June. Once we get the fly breeding spots cleaned up, the fly control program will be on the road to success."

Farm advisers at the district meetings reported excellent cooperation from town and city business and civic groups. Many cities have organized special committees to follow through on the clean-up and fly control jobs.

Johnny Bruce to Play May 4 At Police Ball

(News-Gazette)

Johnny Bruce and his University of Illinois' orchestra will play May 4 for the Champaign policemen's ball, which is rapidly nearing the sell-out stage.

The dance will be held in the Champaign armory, with all proceeds going into the fund of the Champaign unit of the Policemen's Benevolent and Protective association.

As vocalists, Bruce's orchestra will feature Chris Stevens, a girl who formerly sang with Carmen Cavallero's band, Hagin Harper, Ernie Orcutt, and the glee club.

The band's unique style features the use of clarinets in megaphones, a trombone trio, and a celeste.

Its musical arrangements are written by Gordon "Bud" Pentz, a U. of I. graduate who now is studying for a master's degree.

Bruce is a UI graduate who had a popular band on the campus before he entered the navy during the war. In the navy, he had his own show band in the South Pacific for 22 months and played for GI show troupes and traveling artists such as Jack Benny, Randolph Scott, Carole Landis and Martha Tilton. When he returned to the states, he led the famous "Seahawk" dance band at the naval pre-flight school at Iowa City until his discharge.

(Editor's Note: Johnny Bruce Krugh is a brother of Mrs. Carl Dicks of Broadlands.)

Nehemiah Rebuilds Jerusalem
Lesson for May 2, 1948

BORN and reared in Persia, Nehemiah appears in the opening scene of his prophecy as cup bearer to King Artaxerxes in the royal palace at Shushan.

He was a favorite at court, due, no doubt, to his personality and training, plus a keen desire to serve his people. He obtained a royal order from Artaxerxes, granting him passage to Jerusalem. It was a long and dangerous journey, but Nehemiah traveled not only with letters from the king, but assurance in his heart that he was on the Lord's mission. He was given authority to seek help from other nations. Just how much help he received from other nations is not definitely certified, but we do know that he achieved the high purpose which God had put in his heart. He governed the city wisely for a dozen years, and wrought many notable reforms. Read the first seven chapters of Nehemiah for the complete story. Read also Psalms 122:1-9.

WHEN FRIENDS WORK TOGETHER

UPON arrival in Jerusalem, Nehemiah made a tour of the city by night. He was shocked and amazed at the ruins. He called upon the people to come and help rebuild the walls. And they were impressed with the earnestness and sincerity and courage of his call. "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work," Nehemiah 4:6.

There is work for everyone who is of a willing mind. There is work in the home. Boys and girls who pitch in and share in the everyday work of the home make glad the hearts of their parents, and at the same time they are learning how to care for their own homes when they grow up.

STRENGTH AND ENCOURAGEMENT

NEHEMIAH set the people together in families, with tools for work and weapons for defense against the enemy. And in this union of numbers there was both strength and courage. We need today to learn anew this lesson of working together. So often we witness evidence of people pulling against one another. We see it in the home and in the school and in the wider areas of life—in politics and in the clash between capital and labor.

THOSE WHO OPPOSED NEHEMIAH

OUR lesson describes not only the courage and wisdom of Nehemiah in getting the Jews to work and work together, but it tells us about those who opposed the rebuilding of Jerusalem. Sanballat was the governor of Samaria, and when he heard that Nehemiah was rebuilding Jerusalem, he put in to defeat him by many schemes of sabotage.

He began with ridicule. "What do these feeble Jews?" he scoffingly asked. Ridicule is always one of the weapons of those who would tear down and destroy. Young people will do well to guard themselves against the snare of cynicism. It is a dangerous thing. Sanballat and his cohorts, Tobiah, and certain Arabians and Ammonites and Ashdodites, conspired to hinder Nehemiah in many devious attacks; but the people worked and fought, in the name of the Lord.

WHAT MAKES A REAL LEADER?

THIS is the question which will inevitably arise as we study this lesson. How could one man inspire people to undertake the impossible? First, Nehemiah relied implicitly upon God's help. Second, he threw himself into the task, fearlessly and intelligently. Third, he possessed the quality of inspiring faith and hope in others. These are the qualities that make a real leader, anywhere, any time.

How we do need such leaders to day! And the Bible speaks to us, in the story of Nehemiah, reminding us how real leaders are produced. Read the 122nd Psalm. Here is the secret of it all—"They shall prosper that love thee." Every difficulty confronting the home, the community, the nation, the world, can be met and mastered, provided we tackle it in the name of the Lord, relying upon his wisdom, his strength, his poise.

Perseverance Mills Whole-Kernel Flour

This is the story of a man who stuck to an idea on how to better the world's food situation and made good. His contribution may become a standard addition to the food staples of America.

In England before the war, John Wright was a successful business man who believed that the world's food supply would benefit if in the milling of wheat the whole kernel could be turned into flour. He built an experimental mill to try to develop the process, but German bombs came to destroy his plant and it never was rebuilt.

About a year ago Mr. Wright arrived at Pullman, Wash., to make his home. Realizing the great need in the world for food and having great faith in his idea, he presented his thought to Washington State College which is located in that city.

Mr. Wright was hired on a part-time basis to help build and operate a pilot mill similar to the one he'd had in England, with the understanding that any results from work done by the college would be available to the public. He is not a regular member of the research staff, but a most interested observer and helper.

From that point the college began its endeavors. George E. Pease, research engineer of the division of industrial research at WSC was in charge of designing the pilot mill.

Work progressed and the college announced, "This is a fawn-colored product exceptionally fine in texture, which produces an appetizing, nutritious loaf of bread. The flour uses the entire wheat grain without any loss of the constituents usually sifted out during milling."

"One of the revolutionary facts about the new technique is that it involves only one operation, and the key to the new process is the enormous velocity of the grinding wheel. The wheat is hurtled once around the wheel, and then blown into a gigantic fabric bag where the flour settles out of the air blast created by the mill."

"After passing just once thru the mill, 100 pounds of clean wheat yields exactly 100 pounds of finely ground whole wheat flour. No part of the wheat is lost. Its entire composition remains in the flour."

As this new product cannot be treated the same as ordinary white flour in cooking, the Home Economics Department at WSC is working with the Research Department in experiments aimed at discovering the best ways to use it.

Truman's Chances

Presidential polls at this stage of the campaign are only straws in the wind—and perhaps not very important straws at that. But they are of interest, nevertheless, and are being watched by the voters generally, as well as by the politicians.

The Gallup polls have been particularly interesting, because they have called for an expression of voter opinion as between President Truman and each of five Republican aspirants taken separately. Up to the present time, these polls have shown that any of the G. O. P. candidates could probably defeat Mr. Truman, with the exception of Senator Taft. Governor Dewey has made the best showing of any candidate so far, according to the following percentage figures: Truman, 43; Taft, 36.

Truman, 39; Dewey, 47. Truman, 41; MacArthur, 44. Truman, 39; Vandenberg, 44. Truman, 39; Stassen, 44. Whether President Truman's chances will improve as the campaign progresses remains to be seen, and much may depend on developments in the international situation during the next few months.

The MIDWESTERN
by Robert Casey and W. A. S. Douglas

This is the story of Dwight H. Green, the Midwesterner who believes that the preservation of the pioneer spirit is the hope of America and the world... that the destiny of our country lies in its system of free-enterprise.

Read the story of how this great prosecutor cracked Al Capone's famous empire-outside-the-law and succeeded in the apparently hopeless task of sending him to a Federal Prison.

Dwight H. Green is a man who has guided the government of Illinois for the past 8 years with uncompromising honesty and integrity, a man "who cannot be bullied or bought, who understands the state's problems and does something about them."

Still echoing the quarterback spirit of college days the Midwesterner never hesitates to plunge directly into every job... calling signals yet still doing his share of the blocking and tackling. Remember his drive and skill in legislative battles over the Illinois soldier bonus bill and the Congressional reapportionment act? Where seven previous governors had failed for 46 years, Dwight H. Green succeeded.

THE MIDWESTERNER is a thrilling account of our own governor's meteoric rise from a struggling lawyer to the highest office in the state. Every citizen should read it.

Smile Awhile

What are you going to do about it sir? demanded the enraged tenant. The walls of my house are all bulging outward.

Bulging outward are they? said the landlord, with a pleasant smile. Then your house must be bigger; I shall raise your rent.

What happened after you were thrown out of the side exit of the movie on your face?

I told the fellow I belonged to a very important family.

And then?
He begged my pardon, asked me in again and threw me out of the front door.

Grandpa Scruggs, 99 years old to the day, had never gone "an overnight piece" from the quiet of his native Appalachian valley. Now, he approached the mountain preacher.

Parson, he said, I don't reckon I'll do no travelin,' till I'm a speerit. But I've allus wanted to see a big town. So I wish you'd jes' mention whilst I'm on my way to heaven, I'd like powerful well to make a little detour down by Knoxville.

Rufus, a Negro with winning ways, courted the Widow Watts while she bent over her wash-tub. His remarks waxed more and more romantic, until at length, he offered a proposal of marriage.

Are you sure you love me? sighed the buxom widow, as she paused in her wringing.

Sho' Mandy, sho,' Rufus assured her. I loves you.

Mandy picked up another garment and meditatively rubbed it over the wash-board. In her mind, hope seemed to be contending with doubt. Suddenly she raised her head, and, fixing a wary eye on her waiting Romeo, she demanded:

Look here, Rufus, you ain't lost yo' job, is you?

A man who had been poor all his life made a fortune almost overnight and began to splurge in almost every direction at the same time. One of his greatest joys consisted of inviting old cronies up to see his sumptuous new estate.

Come and see the grounds, he boasted to one of them. I will show you my three swimming pools.

Three swimming pools, echoed the friend. Isn't that a bit excessive?

Not at all. One has cold water, one has hot water, and one has no water at all.

One with cold water I can understand, conceded the guest. I can see a reason for one with hot water. But what's the idea of a swimming pool with no water at all.

The host shook his head sadly. You'd be surprised, Joe, he confided, how many of my old friends don't know how to swim.

Sidelights

Never were truer words spoken than: "Sandwich spread is what some people get, from eating between meals."

"I feel like I'm a hundred," was the response made by Lansing A. Wilcox, of Cadott, Wis., when interviewed on his 102nd birthday. He really must have been feeling young and kittenish.

A review of American history reveals that when the white men discovered this country, the Indians were running it. There were no taxes. There was no debt. The women did all the work. And the white men thought they could improve on a system like that!

It seems that Adam and Eve could never agree. Yes, we've just learned that one day while walking through the Garden of Eden busily naming all the animals, they came upon a strange looking creature. "Eve, let's call this one a hippopotamus," said Adam. "Why?" asked his spouse. "Durnit, woman," cried Adam, somewhat put out, "it looks like a hippopotamus, don't it?" (We went a long way back for this one.)

At a certain age a youngster begins to squirm when a doting mother calls him pet names before his "hardened" playmates. And so it was the other day when a certain boy returned from school and his mother asked: "And what did mama's little darling learn in school today?" And just audible enough for his mother to hear, he replied: "I learned two kids not to call me 'mama's little darling.'"

A group of sympathetic elderly ladies became interested in doing something worthwhile for the men in a nearby prison. Finally they decided to seek admittance to the prison for a first-hand study of conditions. While on a tour of the prison, one lady stopped to talk with an inmate. She asked numerous questions and finally said: "I'm sure that poverty was the cause of your downfall." The prisoner replied "No, lady, that's not true. In fact, when I was arrested, I was literally coining money."

Nowhere else beauty like this! New styling! New colors! New upholstery fabrics! All this added to the basic Big-Car luxury of Chevrolet's famous Body by Fisher. Remember—this body is exclusive to Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

First in all-round quality in the entire low-price field!

How you and your family will enjoy ownership of this newer, smarter, finer Chevrolet for 1948! It brings you BIG-CAR QUALITY—not in one item only, but in every phase of styling, engineering and construction—and brings it to you AT LOWEST COST, as well. That is why more people drive Chevrolets, according to official nationwide registrations—and more people want Chevrolets, according to seven independent nationwide surveys—than any other make of car. That is why you, too, will agree that CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST in all-round value!

You'll enjoy much greater comfort in Chevrolet for 1948. It brings you the Big-Car riding-smoothness and road-steadiness of the Unitized Knee-Action Gliding Ride. Another feature found only in Chevrolet and more expensive cars.

Just as you'll find no equal for Chevrolet value, so you'll find no equal for Chevrolet service. Safeguard your transportation by bringing your present car to us for skilled service, now and at regular intervals, pending delivery of your new Chevrolet!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sam's Hens Wear Spectacles!

Yes, it's a fact! Sam's brood of two dozen hens are wearing spectacles—which he bought from a mail-order house in Capitol City.

Sam says it works (and big poultry raisers say so, too). The hens see each other through soft colored glasses, and instead of fighting and picking at each other, they go around placidly, gain weight, and lay more eggs.

Makes me almost wish we could have rose-colored glasses for human beings, too. So that instead of quarreling and criticizing, like we do so much of the time, we'd live and let live in contentment.

From where I sit, the human race wastes a powerful lot of time in wrangling over minor issues... whether a man should drink beer or cider... whether a woman should wear slacks or skirts... instead of seeing each other through "spectacles" of tolerance that enable us to live-and-let-live like Sam's brood of chickens.
