Immanuel Lutheran Church

P. E. Kerkhoff, Pastor

On October 31, 1517 Martin Luther nailed the famous 95 Theses on the church door at Wittenberg and thus unknowingly set into motion the Reformation. We shall take recognition of its various phases in the School for Religious Instruction, Saturday at 1:00 p. m.; in S. S. and Bible Class 9:30; in the Public Worship, 10:15; and in the Rally of Young People's Societies in the afternoon and evening. Welcome!

Luther loved young people. He played the flute and sang, sang even college songs at meals. He has been called "the jolliest of the world's great prophets, a jest always upon his lips, a quip always upon his tongue. Here too he resembled Lincoln—the saddest jester the world has ever known."

1000 Treated For TB in 26 Years

Since its establishment in 1922, Outlook tuberculosis sanatorium which is asking for a small increase in its tax rate at the Nov. 2 general election, has treated more than 1,000 victims of the disease.

The higher levy is needed to overcome an operating deficit brought about by soaring costs experienced in the post-war period.

Of the 35 persons in the county who discovered they had tuberculosis during 1947, 34 of them entered Outlook sanatorium, according to records of the Champaign County TB association, which furnishes free chest x-ray examinations.

Streptomycin has proved a lifesaver in many cases of tuberculosis and reduces the length of treatment in some cases. However, use of the drug increases by 35 per cent the daily cost of treatment.

When Outlook was opened in February of 1922 there were six patients received for care. In 1947 the sanatorium handled a total of 74 patients.

The Outlook sanatorium furnishes treatment without cost to residents of Champaign county afflicted with tuberculosis. When a resident learns he has the disease he is free to enter the institution immediately.

Due to its emphasis upon early discovery of the disease through the Champaign County Tuberculosis association, Champaign county has a lower tuberculosis death rate than any other county of comparable size in Illinois.

Tuberculosis deaths have been reduced from 90 in 1922 to eight in 1947. Approval of the tax rate by voters in the Nov. 2 general election is necessary before the sanatorium can realize the tax funds required to keep abreast of present costs. The tax proposal will be found on a small separate ballot handed the voter along with the ballot listing the candidates.

50th Anniversary of Broadlands Chapter

Fifty years of Eastern Star work were commemorated at Broadlands Chapter last Friday evening, when Mrs. Freda Maxwell, junior past matron, escorted Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mohr, worthy matron and patron through the Golden Gate to the Garden of Remembrance. After Mrs. Gladys McClelland sang "Happy Birthday Night," Mrs. Mohr invited the following to pass into the Garden: the charter members; Mrs. Neva Frick, who read the early history of the Chapter; the past matrons and patrons of Broadlands chapter; and the associate patron with the flag of our country. Mrs. Jessie Bergfield placed a spray of flowers on the altar in memory of those who have joined the Grand Chapter on High.

Broadlands chapter was instituted in 1898 by Sidell chapter, No. 220, and the Fiftieth Anniversary night was celebrated with past matrons and patrons serving in the various stations. Mrs. Nettie McIntyre, the first worthy matron of the chapter, was the only one of the four living charter members to be present.

Clark Henson was guest of honor, and his daughter, Mrs. Maxine Turner sang "Bluebird of Happiness" to him. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Witt served as guest worthy matron and patron and to them Mrs. McClelland sang "The Anniversary Song."

Other guest officers were: Mr. and Mrs. George Cook, associate matron and patron; Mrs. Jessie Archer, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Henson, treasurer; Mrs. Freda Maxwell, conductress; Mrs. Thelma Clem, associate conductress; Mrs. Jessie Bergfield, chaplain; Mrs. Neva Frick, marshal; Mrs. Betty Dicks, organist; Mrs. Gladys McClelland, Adah; Mrs. Margaret McGee, of Sidell, Ruth; Mrs. Isla Somers, Georgetown, Esther; Mrs. Lillie Bowman, Martha; Mrs. Frances Dague, Ellecta; Mrs. Delia Nohren, warden; Edward Nohren, sentinel; Andrew Henson, color bearer.

Minute interviews were held with each past matron and patron and a Golden Chain with a link for each five years of the chapter's history was formed and placed about the altar to honor all the charter members.

A huge white birthday cake was wheeled about the chapter room by Mrs. Edna Henson as fifty small golden bells tinkled from its sides. Orange slush punch and cake were served in the reception room from a table centered with a large gold cornucopia spilling out candy corn. During the refreshment hour Mrs. Alta Rice of Philo chapter entertained with beautiful music on the marimba.

A large golden fifty was suspended in the East and many gold stars and gold leaves decorated the chapter room.

One of the highlights of the evening was the appearance of Mrs. Frances Dague, Broadlands Electa, in a black taffeta gown of the Nineties complete with shawl and bonnet to match.

Allerton Methodist Church Is Damaged By Fire

Allerton, Oct. 22—Quick work by the Allerton fire department and fire-fighters from three surrounding communities saved the Methodist Church after a fire broke out in the basement at noon and threatened to engulf the entire structure.

Allerton firemen kept the flames from spreading to the main floor until trucks arrived from Homer, Longview and Newman to assist in stifling the blaze before it caused more than several hundred dollars damage.

Local authorities said the fire apparently was caused by a short in wiring of the church's furnace thermostat. A fire had been built to heat the basement for the Allerton Lions club dinner in the evening.

The flames followed the heating pipes and badly charred several spots on the sanctuary floor. The basement and its equipment suffered heavy damage from the smoke and water. The basement windows were smashed to get at the fire, but the stained glass windows upstairs escaped undamaged. The entire loss was covered by insurance.

Firemen from Homer brought gas masks which permitted them to enter the smoke-filled basement. Water from surrounding wells and cisterns replenished the pumps.

All furnishings and clothing was removed from the parsonage on the west as a precautionary measure. When the danger was past, women of the town went to work to replace the furniture and restore the home.

The church is in the southwest part of town and is more than 50 years old.

True Wisdom

Lesson for October 31, 1948

WHAT is the most important thing in the world? What is worth more than anything else? Some would say Money; some Power; some Goodness; some Truth. Another answer is given by the writers of a group of books, two of which are included in our Bible. "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom," they say.

The books of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes in our Protestant Bible, and the books of Ecclesiasticus and the Wisdom of Solomon in the Apocrypha, all have this viewpoint and are therefore called the Wisdom Literature.

Other writers in the Bible divide the human race into the Good and the Wicked, or the Believers and the Unbelievers; but these writers see mankind as the Wise and the Foolish. The books they wrote (especially Proverbs) were intended particularly for those who are so far neither foolish nor wise—that is to say, the young.

Knowledge Is Not Wisdom

WISDOM (as these writers use the word) is not the same thing as knowledge. A person may know a great many things and still be a fool. Or he may not even know how to read and write, and yet be wise. Some modern writer has said: Knowledge is knowing what to do; skill is knowing how to do it; and virtue is doing it. Wisdom is all of these put together.

But the special feature of the "Wisdom Writers" is this: True wisdom begins with the fear of God. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom . . . the knowledge of God is understanding." In other words, wisdom without religion, without faith, is foolish after all.

We can see how in our times the story of the Nazis has shown this once more to be true. The German Reich of 1935-1939 had the best of the science of the world; they had scholarship and wealth and "know-how" in many fields; but they rejected God and defied his church—and so a nation was destroyed.

We too may profit by their example. We of the western nations have wealth and technical skills beyond any other peoples, we have the atom bombs—but have we the wisdom without which all these things are but as torches in the hands of madmen?

University on Ant-Hill

KNOWLEDGE may be expensive. It costs a great deal of money to know what it takes to be an engineer or a surgeon. Wisdom, strange to say, is less expensive. It is fact on such a low shelf that most people pass it by.

Consider where the "Wisdom Writers" tell us we may learn wisdom. One place is experience. "Experience keeps an expensive school, but fools will learn in no other—and hardly from that," says a more modern proverb.

Many of the proverbs in our Bible are simply distilled drops of experience. "A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger," for example. Do you need an angel from the sky to tell you that?

Another source of wisdom is just Nature herself. "Go to the ant, thou sluggard (lazy fellow); consider her ways and be wise." A lazy man is a fool; but how shall he learn to be wise? Not by reading books—just by watching the ants.

Inspired Common Sense

A FORMER governor of Virginia used to say that during his term of office he received more practical help from reading Proverbs than from any of the books on political science in his library. For the science, or the art, of government is simply one specialized form of that most important art, getting along with people. And the Wisdom Literature shows us how it is done.

Some people think that Inspiration is always mysterious, and that the Holy Spirit would not stoop to inspire what we could learn in any ordinary way. But the Christian church, when it declares Proverbs (for example) inspired, expresses her belief that there is such a thing as Inspired Common Sense.

God may speak to us, and does speak—if we will listen—in the advice of our parents, in our everyday experiences, in the hard-working ant and the majesty of the soaring eagle. All truth is God's truth, even when we find it in our own backyard.

Light Vote Expected

Most political observers are predicting a comparatively light vote on November 2, although this is a Presidential campaign year. The reason given for this prediction is the lack of any deep interest on the part of most voters.

There are approximately 90,000,000 persons of voting age in the United States, but only about 47,000,000, or slightly more than one-half of that number are expected to go to the polls. This is the estimate of Dr. George Gallup, based on the low registration of voters in the state of New York this year.

The largest vote ever cast was in 1940, when more than 50,000,000 persons voted. In that year there were several questions before the people that tended to create interest—the third term issue, the New Deal, the threat of war, national preparedness and so on.

In 1944, war was not an issue, as we had already been in it for three years and the country was united in the determination to see it through. Domestic issues were largely relegated to the background. That year the total vote dropped to slightly more than 48,000,000.

During the present campaign, neither President Truman nor Governor Dewey can be said to have aroused any great amount of enthusiasm among the rank and file of the voters. Whether either has changed many votes by his speeches is open to question.

If the prediction of a light vote proves correct, it may be attributed to lack of interest on the part of those who do not take the trouble to go to the polls. Interest in the state and county elections is often greater than that in the election of a President.

Poll of Writers

The results of a poll of 50 expert political writers, representing leading press associations and newspapers, was recently published by Newsweek magazine. These correspondents were asked various questions concerning the outcome of the 1948 election.

All 50 predicted a Dewey victory, and the average of the replies distributed the 531 electoral votes as follows:

Dewey, 376; Truman, 116; Thurmond, 39; Wallace, 0.

The highest estimate for Dewey was 480 electoral votes, the lowest 298. (266 are necessary for election.) For Truman, highest 212, lowest 19. For Thurmond, highest 74, lowest 0.

Each expert was asked to name the candidate he personally considered best qualified to be President. Dewey was named by 37, Truman by 7, Thurmond by 1, undecided 5.

None of the writers thought the Democrats would regain control of the House this year, but 9 predicted that the Democrats would recapture the Senate, and 4 others expected a 48-48 tie.

It should be understood that the foregoing is only the guesses of 50 men, and while they are considered political experts, it is evident from the wide differences in individual predictions that some of them are pretty far off base.

Navy Maneuvers

About 31,000 Navy, Marine and Army personnel will engage in cold weather training in the North Atlantic next month, employing 65 ships and 30 aircraft squadrons. The entire operation will be commanded by Vice Admiral D. B. Duncan on his flagship, the battleship Missouri.

The objective will be to explore the limitations and capabilities of fleet operations under frigid conditions, and the entire operation will be conducted on a war-time basis. Particular stress will be placed on anti-submarine warfare and amphibious assault landing.

Starting from Norfolk, Va., the expedition will go as far north as Davis Strait, between Greenland and Labrador. A major feature of the exercise will be an amphibious assault on the fleet base at Argentia, Newfoundland.

The amphibious units acting as a merchant convoy, will be supported by land-based blimps and aircraft and a fast carrier task force. The landing groups will be "attacked" by submarines and land-based aircraft.

It is expected that the experience gained in this operation will be of great importance in evaluating the effectiveness of present methods, and developing new techniques that may be employed under adverse weather conditions. Similar maneuvers in Alaskan waters are being planned for next February.

Sidelights

"Work is the yeast that makes dough," is the slogan with which Mrs. Fred Lippert, of Belleville, won a prize.

A married man of considerable experience advises us that when a woman lowers her voice, it's a sign she wants something; when she raises it, it's a sign she did not get it.

Man's greatest scientific discovery in recent years is for the destruction of man, so said the majority of speakers at the recent meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. It was the consensus that unless science be made to work for the benefit of man in a hurry, man is done for. Now isn't that something to look forward to?

Our pet peeve is the motorist who refuses to dim his lights at night. Recently we were driving on the highway at night during a light rain. We met considerable traffic and of the hundreds of cars coming our way we recall but very few who insisted that their lights blind us. (One such thoughtless person nearly caused us trouble.) There is a law that makes dimming of headlights mandatory.

We disagree with the person who claims that the second cup of coffee is better. To us, the second cup often is most helpful, but is truly an anti-climax. There is no drink that can give us the immediate lift that is contained in a good cup of coffee and many persons, who like more than the amount in an average cup, use a very large cup that will hold the equal of two cups in order to fully enjoy their first cup of coffee. President Roosevelt is said to have employed this system effectively.

SOARING COSTS
WAGE INCREASES
NEW DEMANDS

48 hours pay for 40 hours work
Penalty pay for weekends & holidays
25¢ an hour increase
Total 1/2 BILLION DOLLARS

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25c an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

Re-elect Dwight H. GREEN

A GOOD GOVERNOR

For A Greater Illinois . . .

No governor has done more for the people of Illinois in every walk of life and added more to the dignity of the state than Dwight H. Green. He has truly been a good Governor—a Governor who has accomplished great things for all the people of the state. His record shows these facts:

FOR FARMERS he has inaugurated the state's first system of State Aid Farm-to-Market roads; carried out programs on drainage, soil conservation and elimination of livestock disease.

FOR BUSINESS MEN he has kept taxes down, balanced the budget, and practiced strict economy everywhere.

FOR WORKERS he has approved more legislation favorable to labor than any other governor; acted as a bulwark against anti-labor legislation of any kind.

FOR VETERANS he sponsored the nation's most liberal bonus. His administration established the first Veterans' Commission in the country for personal service on veterans' problems and is carrying out a rehabilitation program which is restoring thousands of veterans to productive life. New veterans' hospital units have been built at State institutions.

FOR EVERYBODY—Under Governor Green state aid to Public schools almost trebled . . . New buildings and expanded facilities for the University of Illinois and the state colleges . . . A $30,000,000 housing program, aiding 115 local housing boards . . . Old age and blind pensions liberally increased and aid to dependent children established . . . First program of state tuberculosis hospital and state aid to community hospitals . . . First system of state aid to airports throughout Illinois . . . Expansion and Improvement in our highways, parks and recreational facilities.

The record of Governor Dwight H. Green in service to ALL the people of Illinois has never been equalled. It is a record of sound administration and lasting accomplishments.

I hope not, exclaimed the farmer, in alarm. I've got two wives buried close by here.

Once upon a time there was a boy penguin and a girl penguin who met at the equator. After a brief but charming interlude, the boy penguin went north, to the North Pole; the girl penguin went south, to the South Pole.

At the racetrack a visitor was talking to a jockey who had just won a difficult race. How were you able to do it? he asked.

That was easy, replied the jockey. As we neared the stretch I just kept whispering to the horse—"Roses are red, violets are blue, horses that lose are made into glue."

A lady left New York for Sao Paulo to have a good time. She attended a carnival and paraded the streets at night, singing and dancing. Next day she went to the bank and asked the teller: Is this 5,000 reis?

Yes, Madam, the teller assured her.

Will you give it to me in American money? she asked.

He gave her 57 cents and she stood and stared at it for a long time.

And I gave him his breakfast too, she said angrily, walking away.

CHARLES W. CLABAUGH

REPUBLICAN FOR

Representative In The General Assembly

For 10 years CHARLES W. CLABAUGH has represented the 24th District in the General Assembly of Illinois.

He has worked aggressively and intelligently for those principles of government with which most people of this district agree.

He has been independent and forceful in his actions in the interests of the people of the State and of this District.

In the 64th General Assembly he led a successful fight against Cook County Politicians and Organized Radicals who attempted to "take over" the government of Illinois through Senatorial Reapportionment. He will continue that fight which promises to assume great proportions in the coming Session.

He Has and Will Oppose Any Attempt to Fasten a State Income Tax Upon the People of This State.

Representative Clabaugh has made no attempt to build up a political patronage machine to re-elect himself. He has spent his legislative time and effort in the interest of good government and sound economy, believing that that is the best recommendation for continued public service.

His endorsement by the Illinois Agricultural Association, various educational groups, the Illinois Federation of Labor, and many business and professional organizations has proved the wisdom of this belief.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Want To Join Our Club?

Newcomers to our town are puzzled when they hear talk of "The Barbecue Club." Want to know who can join, and what the purpose is.

Well, the answer is: any one can join who's neighborly inclined. The purpose is simply to enjoy good food, good beer and ale, good conversation—all towards getting to know one another better.

Every other Saturday, at one farm or another, the pit is dug, and the fire started. And by sundown, neighbors from miles around have come together—the women contributing cakes, pies, and coffee, the men contributing the meat for barbecuing, and the beer or ale.

From where I sit, it's this simple wholesome side of country life in America—its spirit of good-fellowship—that makes for tolerance and better understanding between neighbors.

As I say, Neighbor, any one can join up! So come along a week from this Saturday.
