

BROADLANDS.

—A good many of our people went to Champaign to celebrate.

—The Echo last week published the assessment list of Raymond township.

—Longview's fireworks and ball were postponed to Saturday night on account of the rain.

—Charles Griffin ran a chisel into his leg Thursday, cutting a deep gash. It will lay him up some days.

—Miss Yearning of Bloomington, a schoolmate of Miss Grace McIntyre, was a guest of the latter last week.

—Mason, the five-year-old son of William Chapman, living five miles southwest of town, died Wednesday of diphtheria.

—Several of C. M. Culbertson's grandchildren from Chicago are here to spend several weeks enjoying country air and food.

—C. W. Hill departed Tuesday for Michigan to visit his parents and brother. Another brother from New York will also be there.

—The Epworth league gave a supper at the home of Mrs. Flewelling last Friday night. A very pleasant time was had by all those present.

—Miss Maude Cable is home from Sidell on a vacation. She expects to stay a month if her relief as night operator can be induced to remain that long.

—P. E. Hayes and J. M. Rawlings left on Tuesday for southwestern Louisiana to investigate the rice growing industry. They will be absent about two weeks.

---