

BROADLANDS.

—Jacob Seider and wife went to Tuscola Wednesday.

—J. W. Irwin of Westfield was in the city Wednesday.

—Frank Saybert of Longview was in the city Wednesday.

—Orville Cundiff of Sidell was a caller in the city Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Telling went to Sidell to eat turkey.

—Mrs. N. Bruhn of Kinmundy is visiting friends and relatives in the city.

—Edith McCormick, who has been suffering with a severe form of ab-cess of the throat for two weeks, is slowly improving.

—Mrs. J. A. Kenney spent a few days last week with her parents at Tuscola.

—Henry Killian rejoiced over a big fat girl instead of a fat turkey for Thanksgiving.

—Rev. and Mrs. Reynolds spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Warren at Longview.

—The Woody quartet rendered an excellent program at the M. E. church Thursday night.

—A number of J. A. Coolley's children and other relatives took dinner with him Thursday.

—The Schafer women, living on the Sloans farm, are convalescing after a two-months siege of sickness.

—One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the poverty social given at Moore's hall on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the public school library. The weather was fine and as soon as the doors were opened the crowd began to assemble, dressed in their worst rags, and it was not long until the house was filled. The school cleared about $14, which will be used in buying new books for the library.