Vol. 19 — No. 36 | Georgetown, Vermilion County, Illinois | Friday, June 17, 1949

Congratulations to the local citizens for a good display Tuesday of flags for Flag Day.

Haps Barber Shop baseball team of Westville and the Georgetown Merchants nine entertained a crowd at the Georgetown City Park diamond last Sunday afternoon until rain cut short the game at the end of the third inning, leaving the match in midair as a 1-1 tie . . . Several from this vicinity made the pilgrimage to the American Legion state home for orphans of veterans last Sunday; they saw the youngsters there get a thrill over the new bicycles presented them; most of the county Legion organizations throughout the state, including the Vermilion County Council, each gave a bicycle . . . Ore Vacketta has completed a most successful year as president of the Westville Lions Club . . . The Youth Camp is growing steadily in popularity and is being used by youth organizations throughout the county; it will be occupied almost constantly for the next month by various groups.

A. A. says that after the first World War, folks remarked that what this country needed was a good 5-cent cigar. Now, after World War II, we find that what this country needs is a good $1,000 car.

Father's Day Sunday and Tuesday morning, the Good Old Summer time makes its official appearance until next September. It's going to be quite a weekend.

Some of the local folks are calling this session of the Illinois General Assembly a "do nothing" legislature. Most of us taxpayers are not so much worried as to whether or not the legislature does nothing but whether it is likely to do too much.

When you work in your garden nowadays, you won't need to get "gardner's knees." On the market now are the new "gardners' knee pads," which cushion your aching joints, and protect them from damp ground, with a thick layer of sponge rubber. The pads are fastened with adjustable straps, which permit standing and walking without removing the pads.

It used to be that living in the small town was so much of an advantage in cost as compared with living in the cities that those in the small towns were the envy of their city-slicker cousins. Now, economists tell us, living quarters offer the chief differential in cost, since comparable homes in small towns are from one-third to one-half less expensive than big city properties. There is, however, little difference now in the cost of food in the small towns and the big cities, it is said. Of course, the experts don't take into consideration the amount of food that is raised in local gardens. Also, clothing is less of an elaborate and extensive item, on the whole, than in the cities. All in all, you can still enjoy a much better standard of living in the small towns for the same money, or even less.

Our Clean Story Club—A woman entered a department store and examined nearly every piece of dress goods in the place without making a purchase.

"Thank you for showing me all those silks," she finally said, "but I'm not buying anything myself. I was just looking for a neighbor."

"Well, there's one bolt of satin here that you haven't seen yet," the clerk replied sarcastically. "Do you think she could be in that "

Supervisors Kill Zoning Order for Highways of County

Board's Vote Revoked Last Year's Ordinance

The ordinance adopted by the Vermilion County Board of Supervisors last fall, authorizing zoning rules to apply to the placing of billboards, establishment of scrap yards and heavy industry, and regulating types of buildings along the principal highways of the county was voted down Tuesday afternoon, June 14, at the regular meeting of the board. This abolishes the commission appointed last fall by the board to put the zoning rules into effect.

The commission consisted of Harvey Acton, Danville, chairman; Larry T. Allen Jr., Danville; William Dolan, Catlin; Carl Gruber, Blount; Everett Clapp, Vance; William Moyer, Georgetown; Benjamin Norwood, Clint Sandusky, Danville; and Tom Merritt, Grant township.

The vote also killed an amendment which would have exempted Blount township and parts of Newell township from being zoned. Larry Allen of the commission led the fight for a vote, being much opposed to the amendment. He held the floor persistently for some time until a motion for a roll call vote was made. The final vote was 17 to 8 against the amendment and the ordinance.

Atty. A. L. Lowenstein represented several property owners of Newell township who wanted the protection of the zoning ordinance. Atty. Ralph Rouse represented others of Newell township who wanted to delay a final vote. Allen yielded the floor after a motion was made for a vote and Chairman Moyer of the board had entertained the motion.

The board also named the judges and clerks for next year's elections and the grand jurors for the October term of Circuit Court.

Appropriation for more funds for repairing four bridges between Catlin and Fairmount was approved. Additional funds for completing repair on the Sidell bridge project also were approved. Bills totaling $50,000 were allowed and ordered paid.

Congregational Church Notes

Rev. C. R. Dierlamm, Minister

The Daily Vacation Bible School is under way. There has been a good response this week. The pupils are learning the art of living in the finest ways possible.

When the inspiration of religion gets into one's real thinking and working capacity, pleasant results are in evidence.

We are using the best materials in all the classes, regardless of cost. The recreational periods are well supervised. Your child used to look up to you as a parent, but when the rapidly growing years come along that same child has become a developed youth. It does not take long for our boys and girls to show the first signs of responsibility for their future tasks. The teachers of our daily schools, as well as those of religious instruction, appreciate this grand opportunity to lead the way for American youth. This is our task and God helping us we will be faithful to our task.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Milewski are the parents of a daughter born in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Tuesday, June 7. The mother is the former Ann Paranauskas.

District Scouts Get Outdoor Tests at Westville Camporee

Westville was host Saturday night and Sunday forenoon, June 11 and 12, to Boy Scout troops, Scoutmasters and troop committeemen and friends of the Little Vermilion District of the Scouts. The event was a camporee at the Youth Camp east of town. Six troops took part.

Patrols competed with each other for honors in the outdoor achievements of Scouting. The competition was by patrols rather than by individuals. Results were as follows: Eagle Patrol, Troop 34, Westville, rated Class A; Class B Patrols were Eagle 20, Ridgefarm; Apache 48, Olivet; Eagle 16, Georgetown; and Eagle 22, Catlin. Class C patrols were Flying Arrow, Wolverine, Panther and Ranger.

About 60 adults attended the Saturday evening campfire when Jack Henschen of Georgetown, chairman of the campfire work, related the story of firebuilding. Others who took part in the activities were Ben Edwards Jr., district advancement chairman; Dr. J. H. Myers, Georgetown, district health and safety chairman; John Taylor, general chairman and Robert Culp, field Scout executive, Danville; Glenn Gill, Catlin, neighborhood commissioner; and Phillip Burgoyne, Georgetown district commissioner. Roy Burgoyne and Bill Pringle had charge of concessions.

Westville troop 34 had charge of the religious services Sunday morning. The camporee ended at 1:30 p. m. Sunday, each Scout receiving a camporee award.

Participating were Troop 16, of Georgetomn, Mort Goodwin, Scoutmaster; Troop 20, Ridgefarm, Russell Weathers and Leo Snapp, Scoutmaster and committeeman; Troop 22, Catlin, Gene Carson, Scoutmaster, and Ray Hewitt, assistant; Troop 34, of Westville, Bob Menestrine, Scoutmaster, and John Palmer, Joe Foyer and Adhemar Finet, committeemen; Troop 42, Sidell, Tom Powell and Tommy McDowell; and Troop 48, Olivet, R. M. Kennedy, Scoutmaster.

Harry Moses Picked For 'Czar' of Coal Industry, Is Report

Former Georgetown Mine Official Named

Reports from the East, Tuesday, stated that John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers of America, and a large part of the Northern soft coal industry, have agreed on the creation of a "czar" for the industry.

This co-ordinator of the industry would be to coal what Albert B. (Happy) Chandler is to baseball, it was stated. According to a dispatch from Washington to the New York Times, Harry B. Moses, president of the H. C. Frick Coke Co., a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corp. and a former Georgetown and Westville youth and mine official, would be the co-ordinator or czar. He is the son of the late Tom Moses, a former miner of this area and later a prominent figure in the raw materials branches of the huge steel corporation.

The duties of such a co-ordinator, according to the reports, would be to aid in the permanent stabilization of the bituminous coal industry.

The reported agreement has been shrouded in much secrecy. The Southern Coal Producers Association is said to be decidedly against the proposal. But the operators favoring it are said to represent an annual production of 200 million tons.

Southern operators maintained that the plans might mean domination of the coal industry by large northern operators and particularly by the U. S. Steel Corp.

Reports that the agreement provides that Mr. Moses would be paid a salary of from $75,000 to $100,000 a year could not be confirmed.

Lewis met briefly in Philadelphia, Monday with U. S. Steel Corp. representatives, and said he had agreed to meet with them again on June 23. The UMW contract with the soft coal operators expires June 30.

Meanwhile, pickets forced some non-union mines in West Virginia and Alabama fields to close as the "stabilization holiday" progressed. Following the week's layoff, the miners will start on their 10-day vacation. Eastern railroads have furloughed some workers, due partly to the mine lay-offs.

New Lions' Officers To Take Over; Sneyd Elected President

The newly elected officers of the Westville Lions Club will take office at the first meeting in July. Fred T. Sneyd was elected president of the club, succeeding Ore Vacketta. Other officers are: First vice-president, William Dugas; second vice-president, Joe Foyer; third vice-president, A. A. Galan; secretary-treasurer, Joe Ottino; tail twister, Cyril Urbas; Lion tamer, Angelo Imbruone; members of board of directors, Ore Vacketta, Steve Sibons, Frank Libert, Charles Urban and Charles Byron.

The nominations were made at the last meeting, which was held at the Youth Camp following a steak fry dinner. The nominating committee consisted of Joe Smith, Don Palmer, William Dugas, Simon Ronchetto and Joe Ottino.

Retiring President Vacketta asked the club's co-operation in all pending activities, including the Youth Camp and Public Library building project. The committee in charge of the steak fry included Walter Norvilitis, A. A. Galan, Frank Libert and Joe Foyer.

Guests at the meeting were John Kluchar, Chris Shaw, George Vacketta, Pete Marnati, Frank Ottino, Frank Konsis, Pete Milholland, William Knudsen, Martin Puskac, Joe Tenelli, Martin Kovanic, Joe Arnasius and Joe Putan.

Debunking the Age Limit

A most commendable effort is being made by the American Legion and other groups in trying to eliminate the arbitrary age limit as a determining factor in the hiring of workers. The National Economic Commission of the Legion again is urging industry to abandon its growing tendency to discriminate against older workers.

It is urged by the commission that industry accept the understanding that age is by no means uniform in the toll it exacts; that while some workers may be old at 45, many others remain young at 65 and continue to be capable of valuable production. It advocates that employers relax fixed ceilings on hiring and retiring and adopt flexible policies based on the worker's physical condition and qualifications. To deny employment to the nation's 20 million mature workers in the 45 to 65-year age bracket is to strike a blow at the very meaning of democracy and to fertilize the soil for discontent.

Even most persons older than 65 should have something to do, it has been found. The American Psychiatric Association has been told that many persons over 65 who are cases in hospitals and sanitariums are simply suffering from the disease of "nothing to do."

As Chairman L. J. Fenlon of the Legion's Commission says, we are removing from our productive forces some of our most capable workers by ruthlessly junking older workers purely on an arbitrary blanket-age limit. We are thus permitting valuable skills to be lost. There is no substitute for experience. Research has shown that older workers have not lost the ability to learn. They are much steadier. They are more dependable. They have a remarkably low degree of absenteeism. They can produce profitably. Of course, older workers cost more under pension plans as those are set up today, but there are few older workers who would not be willing to make up the increase in cost out of their own pockets. Pension plans should be placed on some actuarial basis that will not hamper employers in hiring older workers. While we are giving away billions to help rehabilitate other nations, we should not permit physical and spiritual starvation to exist among our own people.

Disputed War Claims

A recent decision of the Illinois Supreme Court in denying the Illinois bonus to a war widow who remarried in 1946 does not necessarily settle all disputed claims of remarried widows. Remarried widows of World II veterans are urged by the Illinois Veterans Commission to file applications despite the ruling and to permit the Service Recognition Board to make individual decisions.

At the present time, legislation is being considered by the Illinois General Assembly to extend the bonus deadline to July 1, 1951, but until this legislation is passed and signed by the governor, all claimants for the bonus should abide by the present deadline of June 30, 1949.

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission are in a position to assist claimants for the bonus in making application. Service officers of the veterans' organizations also will handle such problems and will be willing to consult with veterans or the relatives of veterans on these and similar subjects. The office of the Illinois Veterans Commission in Vermilion county is located at 517 Temple building, Danville.

To punish ourselves for others' faults, is superlative folly. The mental arrow shot from another's bow is practically harmless, unless our own thought barbs it.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Business Activities

Here are some items of business activity that are gleaned from news dispatches:

Hog prices have taken the biggest break in price in two months but they still are about four times higher than 10 years ago . . . First plant to be built abroad under the ECA program will make carbon-black in England. This material is used to give strength to auto tires. England has always bought its carbon-black from the U. S. The new plant will produce one-fourth of England's carbon-black needs and reduce her need for dollars . . . Government program to build more wheat storage facilities will get under way soon . . . The ever-normal granary grows so much bigger . . . People continue to withhold purchases as prices of many consumers' goods fall, but travel by ship and air to foreign lands is booming as never before . . . Part of the increase in the figures on unemployment is caused by many college and high school students looking for summer jobs . . . Demand for leather is still slow, so hides are not staging their usual summer price rally . . . Purchasing agents report 54 percent of companies surveyed are maintaining their production at usual levels, although only 9 percent of those surveyed reported any substantial increase . . . Despite all pessimistic talk, personal income and individual savings remain high . . . As the country's largest transportation center, Chicago is hard hit by the 15 percent tax on transportation by air, train and bus.

Leading Figures In Business Scene Fade With Years

by Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK—Back in the 1900's, when trolley cars were profitable and bicycle manufacturing was big business, a number of companies seemed to dominate the industrial scene.

They made writing paper, tanned leather, refined sugar or turned out millions of packages of biscuits. Among the 25 largest industrial companies of the nation in those days the names of American Writing Paper, American Hide & Leather, American Sugar Refining and National Biscuit loomed large.

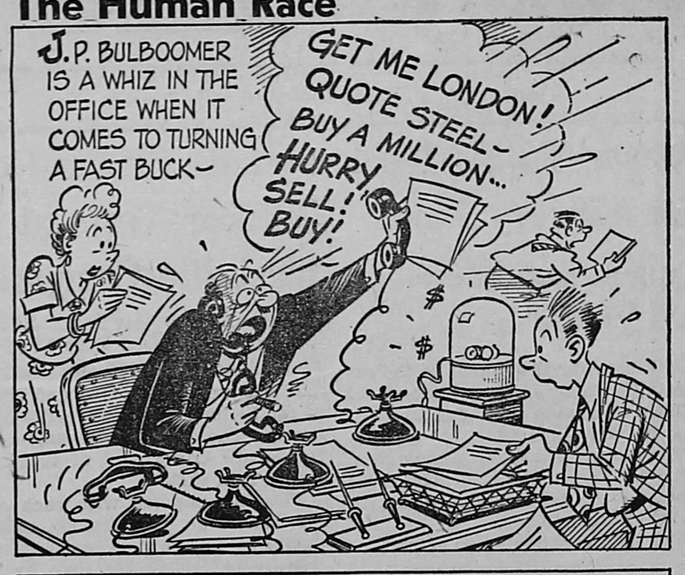

Today not one of those companies is among the 25 manufacturers listed by the National City Bank as having the largest total assets. For over the intervening years new industries, some not even dreamed of in 1900, have arisen to displace the former leaders. Not one oil company was large enough in 1900 to rank with the leaders. Today 10 oil companies give their industry top representation in the list. Three automobile campanies not one of which was in existence in 1900, are among today's top 25. Of the companies that were on that list of the nation's largest in 1900 only two have managed to stay in the group in the face of the competition that prevails in all industry.

AMERICAN IN PARIS—U. S. aid to western Europe, in the form of food, clothes and production machinery, is all well and good but at least one American manufacturer has gone a step further to provide mental stimulus for the French. The man is Joyce C. Hall, Kansas City greeting card manufacturer, who this month will award some $12,000 to French artists for the best paintings on Christmas themes submitted in the Franco - American Hallmark Art Award. The result of the offer was to bring entries from 5,121 French artists, at least one of whom will get a $2,000 cash prize and a whack at an international award of $3,500 when the American counterpart of the competition is completed late this fall. Right now, "Le Prix Hallmark," is the talk of Paris and a midwestern manufacturer, who thought of something the ECA missed, is perhaps the most popular figure in the art capital of the world.

THINGS TO COME—Only a few consumers' goods items among this week's new products. The expanding television industry announces a multi-coupler which enables at least four families in an apartment house to use one antenna in common . . . A new all-electric pressure cooker is equipped with dials for automatic setting of temperatures for cooking meats, fruits, fish and vegetables. It also boasts a safety gadget which keeps you from opening the cooker while the pressure is high . . . The versatile vinyl resin family comes up with another addition — a new type work glove coated with the plastic to increase wear-resistance and permit handling of sharp or abrasive materials . . . Union Bag announces a new type water-repellent paper bag for packaging, delivery and storage of crushed and cubed ice . . . Navy jet pilots who must wear more than 40 pounds of clothing and equipment will be carried to their planes by a new kind of electric stairway . . . You can now get an electric clock for your kitchen which will automatically trip the refrigerator defroster . . . An electric device is saving time for a gun manufacturer by automatically rejecting poor qualities of steel. Neither paint nor rust nor polish will fool the device, it is claimed.

THINGS THAT ARE HERE—Before the war the new-product columns used to forecast the day when the wonders of chemistry would mix coke, limestone and salt to produce colorful, stain, mildew, sun and fire resistant draperies the housewife could wash with a damp cloth. Those products are not only here now but are taking entire departments in stores. For the first time in merchandising history, Koroseal yard goods and ready-made items are being assembled for sale in specialty departments on a national scale. The program, originated by Comprehensive Fabrics, Inc., was launched in Cleveland and has since spread to Dayton, Kansas City, New York, Pittsburgh, St. Lou is, Oklahoma City and Detroit, with other cities to follow. The chintz- and linen-like materials, now familiar as draperies, bedspreads, light furniture coverings and heavy upholstery materials, belong to that growing family of vinyl resins which start life as coke, limestone and salt. Joseph A. Kaplan, president of the firm inaugurating the merchandising program, expects the campaign to sell at least 10 million yards of Koroseal in 1949.

The Human Race

THOUGHT . . . for the . . . Quiet Hour

PATIENCE

by Carl F. Hass

I sometimes think that the greatest asset (and virtue) that a man might have is to have patience! We can all think of times when we were hasty and spoke too sharply. When it was all over we wished that we could recall some of the things that had been spoken, but then it was too late. We can and we should apologize, but how much better it might be if we had never been so quick in our action, or if we had stopped to think before we began to speak.

Of the many places that patience is spoken of in the Bible, one of the most notable is that passage in the 6th chapter of First Timothy (verse 11) where the apostle Paul advises Timothy: "Follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness." We often speak of the need for having all of those virtues—except patience. Paul evidently thinks that a Christian man or woman will show in his life the qualities of faith and love AND patience!" Paul was right. Certainly a man or woman who is often impatient and impetuous is a long way from the Kingdom that Jesus talked about.

We all need patience. A mother needs much patience in dealing with her brood; an employer needs much in his handling of those who work for him; a teacher needs patience when surrounded by youth who do not understand his problems and his hopes for them; an employe needs patience sometimes in order to understand his boss who isn't feeling quite so well today; and we all need patience when we are troubled or in sorrow or have been disappointed.

Perhaps it is only those who have a sense of the Eternal within their souls that can be as patient as they ought to be. It seems to me that a man who has a living faith which makes him a sure foundation would be the man who would have the power and the strength to be patient in any trouble that might come his way. Mary Riley Smith has a poem called "God's Plans":

"If we could push ajar the gates of life,
And stand within, and all God's workings see,
We could interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key.
But not today. Then be content, poor heart!
God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold:
We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart—
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold."

Fill your time with positive service and good. Do not drift. Have definite things on hand to do.

Finally, education alone can conduct us to that enjoyment, which is, at once, best in quality and infinite in quantity.—Horace Mann

Mrs. Elizabeth Nagy Awarded Master's Degree at Indiana U.

(Special to the News)

beth Chapman Nagy of Westville, Ill, received the degree of Master of Business Administration at the annual commencement of Indiana University, Sunday, June 12.

Listed for degrees this year at the University are 3,865 students, the largest number in the history of the institution. Of these, 2,854 were awarded their degrees Sunday, and the others, although not completing their work until August, participated in the commencement exercises. The graduating class included representatives of 41 states and 13 foreign countries.

Mr. Dukes is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European Theater.

Georgetown Fair Board Gets Grounds in Condition

A meeting of the officials and board members of the Georgetown Agricultural Fair Association will be held Friday evening in the First National Bank building to make further plans for the 12th annual Georgetown Fair. The fair will be held this year the week of Aug. 29-Sept. 3.

President Fred E. Brown will report on the work that is being done on the permanent fairgrounds on W. West St. The approach to the grounds from West St. has been lowered and a wide driveway has been provided. The grounds themselves have been leveled and plans are being made to sod the grounds with a rye turf before the week of the fair.

William D. Kirby and Richard Graves again will have charge of the livestock exhibits, which this year will be the most extensive of any of the fairs, according to the plans.

The home economics, art and flower shows, as well as the antique and children's exhibits will be across the street in the high school gymnasium.

It is expected that by next year a building will on the grounds that may be used as an exhibit hall.

At the regular meeting of Dornblazer Post 203, American Legion, Monday night in Legion Hall, officers were elected for the ensuing year. John Stanton, World War II veteran, was elected commander.

The other officers are as follows: Vice-commander, Atty. James Linder; finance officer, Harry Dinsmore; and sergeant-at-arms, Clarence Henschen. These officers will be installed in September, with several appointive officers to be named by the new commander.

Retiring officers are: Commander, Ross Macklin; vice-commander, Walter Radomski; finance officer Harry Dinsmore; adjutant, William Parke; chaplain, Albert Humrichous; and sergeant-at-arms, Harold Bouton.

. . . Showers . . .

A miscellaneous shower, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 18, at the McKendree Methodist Church. All friends are cordially invited. Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown of the McKendree neighborhood.

Georgetown Am-Vet Named Fourth District Commander

John R. Norris, commander of the local Post, Vermilion County Am-Vets 146, was elected to the office of Fourth District commander during the Am-Vets state convention held at Freeport from June 9 through June 12. This district covers 21 counties in eastern Illinois.

During the business session at the convention the Am-Vets opposed a raise in the gasoline state tax and approved Civil Service appointments of state police.

A guest speaker at the convention was Gen. W. C. Turner, a commander of the Berlin Air Lift.

Dinner Held to Observe 74th Birthday Anniversary

Twenty-six relatives and friends attended a dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ramsey, celebrating Mrs. Ramsey's 74th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Ramsey received a number of gifts and there were two decorated cakes, one with 74 lighted candles.

The guests included Mrs. Mary Maher of Farmersburg, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steerm of Terre Haute, Ind., Mrs. Nellie Meeker of Cayuga, Ind., Mrs. Lawrence Naylor of Danville, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Driskell and daughter, Ramona. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ishmael Driskell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Driskell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Driskell and Mrs. Warren Driskell Jr. and children, all of Mattoon. Mrs. Dana Ragle was an afternoon visitor.

Pastors Are Assigned By Illinois Conference

Assignment of ministers in the Illinois Methodist Conference as announced Monday by Bishop J. Ralph Magee at Jacksonville after the close of the Conference sessions disclosed some new appointments in this area.

Rev. Carl F. Hass, who was requested by unanimous vote of the Official Board to be returned to the First Methodist Church in Georgetown, was re-appointed to the Georgetown charge for his second year.

Edward D. Humphrey of the Michigan Conference, a student minister, has been assigned to the Fairview and McKendree Mehodist Churches. He will take the place of Rev. Charles Hanson, pastor of those churches for the last two years, who has accepted a charge at Mineral Point, Wis. Mr. Humphrey will attend Garrett Biblical Institute, Northwestern University, while serving the Fairview-McKendree charge.

Rev. Clarence G. Hail, pastor of the Methodist Church at Catlin, has been re-assigned to the Catlin charge for his sixth year.

Rev. Earl C. Livengood, who served at the Cunningham Children's Home at Champaign last year, has been assigned to the Vermilion Heights-Batestown Methodist Church, where a new church edifice is being constructed.

Rev. Eugene H. Hancock of Villa Grove has been assigned to the Sidell Methodist Church to take the place of Rev. Carl E. Walker, who has served the church there for three years. Rev. Walker and family will leave for California.

Rev. S. N. Madden, former pastor of Lincoln Methodist Church, is assigned to the Bowman Ave. Church, Danville.

Rev. Harry W. Nehrig is re-appointed to the Allerton-Indianola charge for his second year. David Palmer, a student at the University of Illinois, will be pastor of the Fairmount-Jamaica charge.

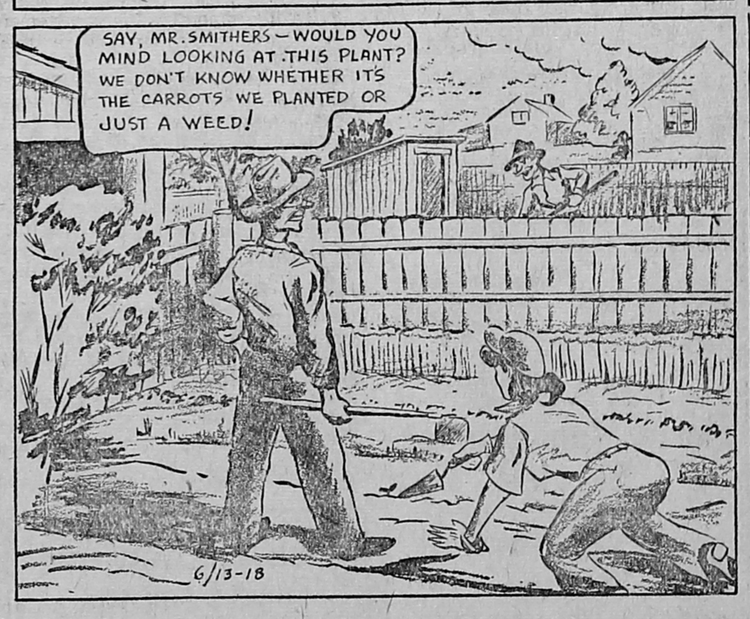

Rev. Boyd L. Rudd, former minister at Georgetown, returns to the Hoopeston Methodist Church for his sixth year.

Rev. Robert J. Campbell, former Georgetown pastor, returns to the Centennial Church at Jacksonville for his third year there.

Edward Bruce Collins, 79, head of the E. B. Collins Auto Parts Stores of Danville and Champaign, died Saturday evening in Lake View Hospital of pneumonia; was born on a farm at Macy, Ind., and was in the harness and buggy business in Danville in early 1900's; was one of Danville's first auto dealers; funeral was Wednesday forenoon in Berhalter Funeral Home.

National convention of American Legion to be held in Philadelphia, Aug. 29-Sept. 1.

Governor to Enforce Anti-Fireworks Law

The scene is in the governor's offices in Chicago as he launched the campaign to enforce the anti-fireworks law. Little Karen is a fireworks casualty. In spite of expert medical care for the last three years Karen lost the vision in her right eye. The state administration is asking for strict enforcement of the anti-fireworks law.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Don't Fence Yourself In
Every spring, Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts patch up the stone wall that separates their farms. They walk along talking—Easy on one side, Handy on the other—picking up the fallen stones and putting them back.
Afterwards, over a friendly glass of beer, Easy says, "You know, wall-mending is a nice neighborly custom, but we really don't need that wall. We keep it up just because it happens to be there."
"Yes," says Handy, "a lot of walls and fences and boundaries keep on separating people for no good reason. Maybe we'd all be better off if some of them were torn down, instead of kept standing."
From where I sit, Handy said a mouthful. Take the "walls of intolerance" that people build up against each other. I like a temperate glass of beer now and then, you may prefer buttermilk—but that's no reason for me to criticize you, or you, me. Let's live and let-live together—making more friends and fewer "walls."

Many Would Produce Tomorrow's Chicken

(Special)

URBANA—Forty-one Illinois poultrymen have entered the 19 9 Chicken-of-Tomorrow contest, announces Sam Ridlen, Illinois College of Agriculture extension poultry specialist.

This is almost double the number of entries for 1948, he added. The men will compete for $10,000 in total prizes for state, regional and national contests, with $5,000 as the first prize. Illinois poultrymen must enter the state contest this year or next in order to be eligible for the national contest in 1951. Deadline date for entries was April 25. Entries will be shown at the State Fair in Springfield in August.

The Chicken-of-Tomorrow contest aims to develop better meat breeds, Ridlen explained, with faster growing birds, bigger drumsticks and extra layers of white meat.

Rural Life Meeting At Illinois Park

(Special)

URBANA—Delegates to the Illinois Rural Life Summer Conference will meet at the Allerton Park near Monticello on June 16 to 18.

Dr. D. E. Lindstrom, secretary of the conference committee, says that between 35 and 40 persons are expected to attend the meeting and discuss the development of a master plan for community organization and service in Illinois.

Paul C. Johnson, Chicago, editor of the Prairie Farmer magazine, is chairman of the conference and will preside at the meeting.

New Book on Family Housing Practical for Country Homes

Are you planning to build or remodel in the near future?

If you are, you will be interested in reading a new book on "Family Housing" which has recently been published.

Authors Deane G. Carter and Keith Hinchcliff cover the middle ground from practical home management on one hand up to technical phases of design and construction on the other. It adds up to a worthwhile book that tells the layman the "how" and "why" to most of his housing problems.

Both of the authors are faculty members of the agricultural engineering department, Illinois College of Agriculture. Carter is a professor of farm structures and Hinchcliff an assistant professor in farm structures extension.

Where other books delve into one home management, art, architecture or house plans, this book is specifically intended to cover the subject of housing the family. It is written from the standpoint of function and family need, and the language and illustrations are understandable by those with no technical training.

One entire chapter is devoted to farmhouse construction. The book starts with the house-planning approach, and special consideration is given to remodeling. A discussion of construction, materials, equipment and costs gives sufficient information to afford an understanding of their importance. John Wiley and Sons, New York, New York, are the publishers.

Farm Briefs

A poultry flock is kept on nine out of 10 Illinois farms.

Soil management of a farm depends largely on the kind of soil which makes up the farm.

Good pasture saves 40 to 50 percent of the supplements required for growing pigs.

Proper cleaning and sterilizing of dairy utensils is necessary for production of high-quality milk with a low bacterial content.

Red clover is known to have been grown in Rhode Island as early as 1750.

Crop rotation is recognized as important to soil fertility, but it is also important for weed control.

Charles Darwin found in his experiments with earthworms that in fertile soil they will produce as much as one-fifth inch of topsoil in one year.

Heavy-producing milk cows eating only lush green pasture are like a man trying to get enough food from eating watermelon.

A lack of salt in livestock rations cost farmers large sums of money each year in loss of potential gains in weight.

Type in livestock has been defined as "that combination of qualities which fits an animal for a specific purpose."

Peoria has the longest uninterrupted weather record in Illinois, from 1856 to the present.

In the major portion of Illinois, May is usually the wettest month of the year.

Snow has fallen in some area of Illinois in all months of the year except July and August.

Temperature, pressure, winds, and moisture of the atmosphere all go together to make up climate.

Illinois has an area of 56,663 square miles, its north-south length being about 385 miles and its maximum width about 215 miles.

It is estimated that 72 percent of all accidents to farm people occurred on the farm last year—16 percent in the farm home and 56 percent elsewhere on the farm.

American corn growers intend to plant 1.6 percent less acreage than they planted last year. The difference amounts to 2,167 square miles, and an area equivalent to several Illinois counties, or double that of the entire state of Rhode Island.

Average annual precipitation in Illinois varies from 30.77 inches at Morris to 47.43 inches at Anna. In 1945 Carbondale had 74.5 inches, and in 1887 Pontiac has only 16.5 inches. These are the greatest and the least annual amounts on record in the state.

Illinois has, on the average, hot summers, cool to cold winters and rather abundant rainfall throughout the year.

None so little enjoy themselves, and are such burdens to themselves, as those who have nothing to do. Only the active have the true relish of life.—Jay . . . Engagements . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Melzer of Taylorville announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Norma Jean, to Carlos E. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Mariage of Taylorville and formerly of Georgetown.

The wedding will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 25, in the Trinity Lutheran Church, Taylorville, with the Rev. Robert Sauer performing the ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents. She attended Taylorville High School and has been employed in the office of the Illinois Consolidated Telephone Co. seven years. She is now a supervisor.

Mr. Bennett was born and reared in Georgetown, where he attended school before being called to service in March, 1943. He served two and one-half years overseas and is employed at Peabody Mine No. 7 at Taylorville. They will reside at Taylorville.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Patterson announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, La Wanda, to Joe Balskus, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Balskus. The wedding will take place at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 26, at the Friends Church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Winters announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Donald Naudzius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Naudzius. The wedding will be at 8 p.m. Friday, July 1, at the Friends Church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pribble announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Helen Lucille to Robert F. Van Loon of Olivet at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 19, at the Church of the Nazarene, Olivet.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR VETERANS

This is another in a series of questions and answers regarding the rights of ex-servicemen and their families, as answered by Howard Bond, Veterans Employment Representative, Illinois State Employment Service, 220 N. Vermilion St., Danville. In this service, theISES attempts to answer questions most frequently asked by ex-servicemen and women.

Question—I would like to know if the Veterans Administration indorses publications which some veterans are now selling by house-to-house solicitation.

Answer—No. Any salesmen claiming that the VA has formally approved a book or magazine for public sale are misrepresenting the facts and should be reported to the nearest VA office. There have been several recent attempts by magazine crews to promote sales by stating that the VA has indorsed their product. The VA does not indorse any product.

Question—I have a disability problem. I am a World War II veteran and have been awarded compensation for service-connected disability. However, I am not in agreement with the rating awarded by the VA. If I accept and cash the compensation check does that mean I have no further right of appeal?

Answer — The acceptance of a check does not waive any rights you have in claiming greater compensation.

Question — My friend and I had quite a discussion the other night about the type of plane called the B-47. Can you tell me what type of airplane the Air Force's B-47 is?

Answer—The B-47 is a jet-bomber. It is in the 600-mile-an-hour class and has a combat radius of more than 800 miles. The B-47 can carry a bomb load in excess of 10 tons.

Air Force Plane Is Named For Georgetown Wife

Mrs. Patricia Ann Quinn, wife of Robert H. Quinn, who is with the U. S. Air Force, has the honor of having an aircraft fighting plane named for her. It is the Patricia Ann, a new type plane in what is described by Mrs. Quinn and her husband as "the best squadron in the world." Cpl. Quinn is a crew chief now stationed in Japan.

Mrs. Quinn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beyer, Georgetown Rt. 1.

SPRINGFIELD — Gov. Stevenson has signed two bills passed by the General Assembly to permit Illinois banks to operate on a five-day week. The banks are allowed to select the week day on which they will not be open.

This season's Illinois State Fair, to be held Aug. 12 through 21, is expected to be bigger than ever. It will feature the customary livestock, grain, culinary and horticulture competitions, a six-day harness racing program, the society horse show, which in recent years has become one of the largest in the nation, and many other attractions.

Henry White, state fair business administrator, says the total premium money to be awarded in the nearly 3,000 idividual classes will approach $300,000. Although the 1949 premium list will not be ready for distribution until about July 1, the volume of requests now being received indicates that the number of exhibitors will be the greatest in the fair's long history.

Apple River Canyon state park, in Jo Daviess county, Illinois, just off state route 78 and not far from the Wisconsin line, is regarded as one of the most beautiful parks in all the Midwest. It is a place of limestone bluffs, springs, streams and deep ravines. From the bluffs one can see Charles Mound, highest point in Illinois, 1,241 feet above sea-level.

The park is rich in plant life, much of which is not found elsewhere in Illinois. White pines, cedars and a few ancient yews line the hillsides, and the Canadian primrose flourishes along the streams. The central area of the park was the site of Millville, a once-thriving town that vanished years ago.

Park visitors will find well-marked trails, a picnic ground on the site of the old mill, a refreshment stand, shelter houses, camp grounds and a parking area.

The AAA auto and the AMA motorcycle races to be held at the Illinois State Fair, Aug. 20 and 21, have been contracted for, according to Henry White, fair business administrator. White also announced that tickets for these auto and motorcycle races will not be available until after July 15.

With the opening of the bass season in northern Illinois, June 15, fishing is now in full swing throughout the state. Perch, pickerel, trout, catfish and bass may be caught.

The state Department of Conservation is now giving Illinois sportsmen on-the-spot radio reports on fishing conditions. Field men, using tape-recording equipment, are visiting fishing spots to gather predictions and advice from local fishermen. The recordings are being distributed to radio stations and information is also being given to newspapers in the various localities.

Drilling in the Illinois oil fields increased sharply last month, with 235 wells completed between May 3 and May 31, compared with 183 completions during the preceding five weeks, according to the monthly report of the Illinois Geological Survey. The average initial flow of wells completed in May was 97 barrels, compared with 87 barrels in April. Daily average production for the month was 177,000 barrels as against 176,000 barrels in April. Two new pools were discovered in May.

Essick GIVES YOU A NEWER-BETTER

POWER TAKE-OFF SPRAYER

You can't go wrong when you buy equipment that is produced by a reliable manufacturer. That's why we are proud to show you this new power take-off sprayer. It's built by Essick Manufacturing Company, a leader in design of spraying equipment for more than 20 years.

Yes, Essick has been building sprayers a long time. They're no fly-by-night manufacturer. They guarantee every unit unconditionally for a 90 day period and many of the first Essick sprayers, produced 20 years ago, are still in use today.

Now they offer a low-priced unit, designed specifically for the small farm, which may be mounted on your tractor, truck, jeep or trailer, and uses your power take-off to drive the pump. This sprayer, the Essick Model 100, shown above, is now on display at our store and we invite you to come in to see it before you place your order for any spraying equipment.

We think you'll like it.

Urges Army Careers For High School Graduates

Graduates of the local high School are urged to consider the Army's new career guidance program in a statement made here by S/Sgt. Glenn V. Pribble, of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station located at 107½ N. Vermilion St., Danville.

"Army entrance standards have been raised and the competition for enlistment is becoming stiffer all the time, but the benefits of Army service are becoming increasingly greater."

S/Sgt. Pribble cited the Army's new career guidance plan as one aimed at the educated, alert, physically fit young man, with advancement based on personal efficiency and individual initiative more than before. Job security and excellent sports, recreation and travel opportunities, he mentioned are still more reasons why high school graduates should consider an Army career for themselves.

"The openings are fewer, but it will pay well to check closely with high school officials or personnel in the recruiting station here for latest information on quotas and opening dates," the sergeant stated.

Be generous with kindly words, especially about those who are absent. Time to me this truth has taught,

(Tis a treasure worth revealing)
More offends from want of thought
Than from want of feeling.

Be yourself. Ape no greatness. Be willing to pass for what you are. A good farthing is better than a bod sovereign.—Samuel Coley

It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the ground-work of human freedom.

Legion Members To Be at Fourth Division Conclave

A number from here will attend sessions of the convention of the Fourth Division, American Legion, to be held Friday night, Saturday and a part of Sunday in Danville.

There will be a meeting of Vermilion County Voiture of the 40 and 8 to start the meetings Friday night, when a "wreck" for initiation of new members will be staged.

A drum and bugle corps and band show will be held Sunday afternoon at the Roselawn American Legion Club, N. Vermilion St., to be followed by a parade at 4 p.m., which will start at the State Armory, and will end on Redden Square with a retreat ceremony at 5 p.m. This will close the convention.

The main sessions of the Legion will be in the Roselawn Club. Registrations will be at the Roselawn Club and at the Wolford Hotel. From 600 to 1,000 are expected from eastern Illinois, the territory covered by the Fourth Division.

George N. Craig, Brazil, Ind., national executive committeeman and candidate for national commander of the Legion, will be the main speaker at the Saturday evening dinner at the Hotel Wolford.

The convention sessions will open at 10 a.m. Saturday and will continue until noon. In the afternoon, a baseball game will be played on the Roselawn club grounds. Special schools for chairmen of Americanism, employment, child welfare, service officers and other committees also will be held Saturday afternoon. The Sunday session will convene at 10 a.m. The Legion Auxiliary of the Fourth Division will hold its business session at 10 a.m. Sunday at the YWCA. Mrs. Eloise Mount of Tuscola, division director, will preside. A reception is to be held for Mrs. Carrie Disosway of Sheldon, state department officer. The 8 and 40 of the Auxiliary will hold a business session and dinner Friday evening at the Hotel Grier Lincoln.

Included among the Legion officials at the sessions will be William G. Burns, Chicago, Illinois commander. Charles A. Hack, Danville, is the Fourth Division commander.

Lambert Wins 3rd Hill Climb Trophy

The Skyline Motorcycle Club held its hill climb west of Tilton, Sunday afternoon, despite the heavy rain which held up the event about 45 minutes shortly after the start.

Many of the spectators departed thinking the event would be called off but the riders continued after the rain. Some stated the hill was improved by the rain.

Herbert Lambert of Georgetown took first place in the amateur and expert class events and also won the trophy awarded by the club for the fastest time. This is Herb's third trophy won this year for fast time. He gave the spectators a good show when his machine looped on the hill.

One slight accident occurred, leaving one rider with a sprained ankle.

The members of the club wish to thank everyone who attended and also non-members for the assistance at the concession stand and all others who gave assistance.

Sale Bill of 100 Years Ago Lists Forgotten Items

An interesting souvenir of 100 years ago was brought to light recently when Mrs. Russell Terhune, Georgetown, came across an old farm auction bill of 1849, published in The Breder's Gazette. The bill advertised the sale of one, J. L. Moss, Versailles, Ky., prior to his departure for Oregon. It is as follows:

AUCTION

Having sold my farm (I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox-team), I will offer on March 1, 1849, all of my personal property, to wit:

All of my Ox Teams except two, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry.

Two Milk Cows; pair of Oxen and Yoke; 12 Ox Carts; Plow with wooden Mould Board; 1,500 10-foot Fence Rails; 85 Sugar Troughs made of white ash timber.

Two Spinning Wheels; one large Loom made by Jerry Wilson; 100 Split Hoops; one 32-gallon barrel of Johnson Miller Whiskey, seven years old; 20 gallons of Apple Brandy; oak tanned Leather; dozen wood Pitchforks; 32-calibre Rifle made by Ben Miller; Hams, Bacon and Lard; 6 Fox Hounds, all soft mouthed except one; gray Mare and Colt; 1 Baby Yoke; poplar Weatherboards; 800 to 1,000 3-foot Clapboards.

One 60-gallon Soap Kettle; 10 gallons of Maple Syrup; 20 pounds of Mutton Tallow; 300 Poles; 100 empty Barrels; 1 40-gallon Copper Still; three Scythes and Cradles; one-half interest in Tan Yard; 50 gallons of Soft Soap; 40 gallons of Sorghum Molasses.

At the same time I will sell my six Negro Slaves—2 men, 35 and 59 years old; 2 boys, 12 and 18 years old; 2 Mulatto Wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell altogether to same person as I will not separate them.

Terms of Sale—Cash in hand or note to draw 4 percent interest with Bob McConnell as surety. My home is two miles south of Versailles, Ky., on the McCoons Ferry Pike. Sale begins at 8 a.m. Plenty to drink and eat.

The slightest sorrow for sin is sufficient if it produces amendment, not. —Colton

None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free.—Goethe

There are two freedoms—the false, where a man is free to do what he —Charles Kingsley
